Jesus said,

“Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasures in heaven; then come, follow me.”

TWENTY EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

WORDS OF WISDOM

The spirit of wisdom, as we discover in today’s first reading, comes to those who pray for her. Wisdom, like the word of God, carries a message of consolation as well as of great challenge. The Letter to the Hebrews tells us that the word of God, infused with the wisdom of God, is “sharper than any two-edged sword.” We cannot shrink from the wisdom of God, or from the word that has the power to penetrate our hearts and minds. Jesus, the living word of God, the embodiment of wisdom, has strong, deeply penetrating words for the rich young man who comes to him seeking answers to his most profound questions. Just when the young man thought he had done enough to fulfill God’s commands, more was asked of him. This is no less true for us.

To prepare for the Readings of October 20/21

First Reading — My servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear (Isaiah 53:10-11).
Psalm — Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you (Psalm 33).
Second Reading — Let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help (Hebrews 4:14-16).
Gospel — Whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all (Mark 10:35-45 [42-45]).

Readings for the Week

Monday: Gal 4:22-24, 26-27, 31 — 5:1; Ps 113:1b-5a, 6-7; Lk 11:29-32
Tuesday: Gal 5:1-6; Ps 119:41, 43-45, 47-48; Lk 11:37-41
Wednesday: Gal 5:18-25; Ps 1:1-4, 6; Lk 11:42-46
Thursday: 2 Tm 4:10-17b; Ps 145:10-13, 17-18; Lk 10:1-9
Friday: Eph 1:11-14; Ps 33:1-2, 4-5, 12-13; Lk 12:1-7
Saturday: Eph 1:15-23; Ps 8:2-3ab, 4-7; Lk 12:8-12
The Mass, Part 5 – Stand, Sit, Kneel – Catholic Calisthenics Anyone?

Last week, we explored how we participate in the Mass. We explored the roles of the clergy and the laity, and also how all of us are called to “fully conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations.” [Sacrosanctum Concilium, 14] Today, we will explore how our bodies can help us in our prayer, especially in our liturgical prayer.

If you’ve ever brought a friend to Mass, they may question you about why we stand, sit or kneel at specific times. In fact, you may even wonder the same thing. Some might even quip, “They’re just trying to make sure we stay awake.” However, all of the different positions we use for the Mass can help us in our prayer. Let’s explore how our bodies help us pray.

When we first begin the Mass, we are standing. “Standing is a sign of respect and honor, so we stand as the celebrant who represents Christ enters and leaves the assembly.” [USCCB, “Praying with Body, Mind, and Voice,” 2010] We also stand for the Gospel for the same reason. We stand out of respect for Jesus’ words and, more importantly, His presence in His Word. Finally, we stand in prayer (e.g. “Let us pray...”), especially in our common prayer, such as the “Our Father.”

We sit when we are adopting a posture and attitude of listening. We are seated during the readings that precede the Gospel and for the homily. We are also seated for moments of meditation, such as the preparation of the altar. We meditate on the gifts that we present to God, represented by bread and wine (and our financial support), and the work that God can do with our gifts for Him.

Sometimes our meditation and prayer bring us to a place of adoration and homage. During these times, it is most appropriate for us to kneel. We kneel during the Eucharistic Prayer. Many people will also kneel in prayer after receiving the Eucharist. Kneeling helps us to attain an interior attitude of reverence, respect and adoration; therefore, many people feel most prayerful when they are kneeling.

There are two other signs of respect and reverence that we accomplish through our bodies. These are genuflecting and bowing. We often genuflect as a sign of respect, and this gesture is most often made toward the Eucharist. Many people will genuflect when they enter or leave the Church, and this gesture is made toward the Tabernacle, where the Eucharist is reserved. Why genuflect? Because the Tabernacle holds the Body of Our Lord. Sometimes a bow is the most appropriate sign of respect. We bow during the Creed as we recite the words of the Incarnation and before receiving the Eucharist. We may also bow when crossing in front of the altar and when the name of Jesus is spoken.

For more information about using our bodies to help us pray, please see “Praying with Body, Mind, and Voice,” published by the US Conference of Catholic Bishops. Next week, we will explore how music and silence can help us more effectively pray during the Mass.

A BIBLE STUDY FOR ALL PARISHIONERS!
STARTS THIS WEEK!

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17TH AT 7 PM IN THE AVE MARIA HALL.
What was Christ’s mission, really, and what does He mean when He talks about the “Kingdom of Heaven”?
Join us for Matthew: The King and His Kingdom, a Bible study that dives into the personhood and kingship of Christ. You will see Jesus as the awaited Messiah who fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament, establishes the New Law, and inaugurates the Kingdom of Heaven.
Set in the rich context of Jesus’ life, Matthew shows us who Jesus is and what His life and teachings mean for us today.

PLEASE CALL THE PARISH OFFICE.

Novena of Masses for Healing and Reconciliation

...“Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it.” Then he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them. Mark 10:14-16

In light of all that is happening in our Church, we hope that you will join us in prayer for Healing and Reconciliation. We will be offering a Novena of Masses for this purpose.

The Masses will take place in the Church at 12:00 Noon, for nine Mondays, beginning on October 15.

The prayer intention for the first Mass is for The Victims in FL

If you are unable to join us for the Masses, please join us in prayer. We are offering the following prayer for you to pray during the novena:

Loving God, turn your ear to the cries of your sons and daughters who seek healing for Your Church. We are heartbroken. We are bruised. We are hurting.

In these days we again wrestle with understanding the heinous acts of abuse by those entrusted with shepherding Your flock. Ease our troubled hearts. Mend our broken spirits. Be “ever present in our distress.”

Merciful Lord, send Your Healing Spirit to our brothers and sisters who have endured pain and abuse physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. Comfort their weary spirits. Soothe their pain. Grant them justice. May our eyes be opened to see Your image in these wounded members of Your Church.

Shepherd of Souls, make Your presence known to us that these wrongful acts will be addressed. Inspire our leaders of the Church to seek new and effective paths to keep safe the flock they shepherd.

Give us all courage to act and speak up on behalf of the most vulnerable. Rush the winds of the Spirit to scatter the darkness of sin. Pour forth Your healing Spirit to renew our trust and hope in You, who are our refuge and our strength. We pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.
If you are interested and would like to become a Columbiette, please call the parish office. Columbiette meetings are on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. The next meeting is Oct. 17th at 7 PM in the All Saints Room. Refreshments begin at 6:30 PM.

General meetings are on the 2nd Wednesday of the month; the next meeting is Wed., Nov. 14th (officers meet on the 1st Wed., the next meeting is Nov. 7th) at 7 PM in the All Saints Room.

Now until Nov. 4th. Consider a commitment of your time to fast, pray and participate. Times are Mon. —Sat. 7:30 AM - 5:30 PM and Sun. 3 PM - 5 PM. Information at www.40daysforlife.com/westpalmbeach

Next weekend, Oct. 20-21st, Columbiettes will be handing out baby bottles for you to take home and fill with coins, bills and/or checks (payable to Miracle House) to help women with unplanned pregnancies. With a little help, women can be encouraged to carry their babies to term and to plan productively for their future and the future of their unborn babies. You may return the filled baby bottle the next two weeks to the welcome center or the parish office. Thank you!
THIS WEEKEND, many of our ministries will be represented after all Masses in the St. Joseph Hall at our Ministry Fair. Find out first hand who the volunteers are and what they do.

There are many opportunities to be involved with the ministries of our parish, some are listed below. Some ministries are accomplished alone and behind the scenes and some are visible, with groups of people. Some ministries are all about helping others. Other ministries are just plain fun, most are both! If you see anything that you may be interested in please call the Parish Office for more information or to sign up.

Whether or not we are present at Church, we remain one in the Lord. Please keep the following members of our parish family in your prayers: Carlos Aviado, Clarence Inman and,

C  Capt. Mitchell Joslin, Army Ranger  Capt. Jeff Keating, Marines  2nd Lt. Andrew King, Army

PLEASE NOTE: Please call the Parish Office if you are being admitted to the hospital or know of someone in our parish who requests a visit from a priest or an Eucharistic Minister. Names will remain on the prayer list for two months, unless notified.

PLEASE PRAY FOR the men and women in our armed forces stationed overseas, for the military commanders who lead them, for President Trump and his advisors and for...

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
