God bless you and thank you for your generosity in supporting your church!
In light of all that is happening in our Church, we hope that you will join us in prayer for Healing and Reconciliation. We will be offering a Novena of Masses for this purpose.

The Masses will take place in the Church at 12:00 Noon, for nine Mondays; the third Mass is on October 29. The prayer intention for this Mass is for The Victims Worldwide. You are invited to pray the Rosary communally immediately following the Mass.

If you are unable to join us for the Masses, please join us in prayer. We are offering the following prayer for you to pray during the novena:

Loving God, turn your ear to the cries of your sons and daughters who seek healing for Your Church. We are heartbroken. We are bruised. We are hurting.

In these days we again wrestle with understanding the heinous acts of abuse by those entrusted with shepherding Your flock. Ease our troubled hearts. Mend our broken spirits. Be “ever present in our distress.”

Merciful Lord, send Your Healing Spirit to our brothers and sisters who have endured pain and abuse physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. Comfort their weary spirits. Soothe their pain. Grant them justice. May our eyes be opened to see Your image in these wounded members of Your Church.

Shepherd of Souls, make Your presence known to us that these wrongful acts will be addressed. Inspire our leaders of the Church to seek new and effective paths to keep safe the flock they shepherd.

Give us all courage to act and speak up on behalf of the most vulnerable. Rush the winds of the Spirit to scatter the darkness of sin. Pour forth Your healing Spirit to renew our trust and hope in You, who are our refuge and our strength. We pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.

---Preface to the Liturgy of the Chrism Mass

"He calls them to lead your holy people in love, nourish them by your word and strengthen them through the sacraments. Father, they are to give their lives in your service and for the salvation of your people as they strive to grow in the likeness of Christ and honor you by their courageous witness of faith and love."

The Mass, Part 6 – God Gave You this Voice; Let Him Hear It

Many people are aware of the proverb that’s often attributed to St. Augustine: “Those who sing well pray twice.” Even if one cannot sing well, we pray when we sing, but there’s more.

For what other reasons do we sing during the Mass? The fathers of Vatican II gave us Musicam Sacram, the Instruction on Music in the Liturgy, [MS], to answer this question. This document says that through song, “[1] prayer is expressed in a more attractive way, [2] the mystery of the liturgy, with its hierarchical and community nature, is more openly shown, [3] the unity of hearts is more profoundly achieved by the union of voices, [4] minds are more easily raised to heavenly things by the beauty of the sacred rites, and [5] the whole celebration more clearly prefigures [the] heavenly liturgy.” [MS, 5] So, indeed we sing because it helps us pray. However, we also sing because it is one of the ways that we all can and should actively participate in the Mass. We sing because it unites us to one another and to the never-ending Mass of Heaven. [cf. Looking Through Stained Glass, “The Mass, Part 1 – The Everlasting Banquet,” Sept. 16, 2018] Finally, we sing because it is a particular expression of our joy, praise and thanksgiving to God.

Singing during the Mass is intended to be a prayer of the entire congregation. According to Musicam Sacram, “The true purpose of sacred music, ‘[…] is the glory of God and the sanctification of the faithful.’” [MS, 4] The song is directed toward God. When there is music during Mass, it is not intended as a performance, but an expression of our praise, worship, thanksgiving and prayer to God. It is for this reason that we do not applaud at the conclusion of a song, as we might at a concert or play. (Really, this is true of other facets of the Mass as well, such as the homily.)

Music also helps to accentuate both the mood and the solemnity of the Mass. For example, during the Christmas season, we might choose joyful music to express the joy we have inside over the miracle of the Nativity, such as “Joy to the World.” During Good Friday services, we might choose music that would express our sorrow at the pain that Jesus suffered for our sake, such as “Were You There.” You may also notice that more portions of the Mass might be sung during feasts and solemnities (such as Pentecost or the Easter Vigil) than during a regular weekday Mass, thus elevating the solemnity of those occasions.

In this article, we have been discussing “making a joyful noise unto the Lord.” [Ps 98] However, we also should discuss the need for balance between music and silence. Just as it is true that we should express our prayer to God in song, it is also true that we should allow time for God to speak to us during the Mass. God speaks best during the times when we are silent. It is for this reason that several moments of silence should be present in every Mass. Specifically, in the order that they occur in the Mass, there should at least be silence at the beginning of the Mass before the Penitential Rite [Lord, have mercy…], silence whenever we begin one of the presidential prayers [Let us pray…], silence after the readings and homily, and silence before and after the distribution of Communion.

Next week, we will begin our discussion of the parts of the Mass, beginning with the Introductory Rites.
We honor our parishioners who served in Ministry, and passed away during the past year. God bless them for their dedicated spirit of Stewardship to our Parish over the years. May each of them rest in God’s Peace!

STORY KEEPERS
Children infants to age 5 are welcome to come to the Parish Center during the 9 AM Sunday Mass. This program is ongoing and free of charge. Hope you can join us!
The prophet Jeremiah prophesies the end of the Babylonian exile. He describes how the weak and sorrowful people now return with joy. These are the scattered people of God: the blind and the lame, the mothers and pregnant women. They shall be led along an easy road so that no one will stumble. The Lord’s kindness and mercy are on all these weak and broken people. Here and in Psalm 126 we find the most lovely poetic images of God’s love and care for us. “Those that sow in tears / shall reap rejoicing. Although they go forth weeping, / carrying the seed to be sown, / they shall come back rejoicing, / carrying their sheaves” (Psalm 126:5–6). Although God had to punish Israel for their many sins, God never forgot them, scattered as they were, and brings them all back to the land of their ancestors, there to flourish and be joyful again. We can see in this the hope and the promise of our own redemption, gathered from the far corners of the earth into the great banquet of God.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. May, help of Christians, pray for us.
