“Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it.” Then he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them. Mark 10:14-16

In light of all that is happening in our Church, we hope that you will join us in prayer for Healing and Reconciliation. We will be offering a Novena of Masses for this purpose.

The Masses will take place in the Church at 12:00 Noon, for nine Mondays; the fourth Mass is on November 5th. The prayer intention for this Mass is for Church Unity. You are invited to pray the Rosary communally immediately following the Mass.

If you are unable to join us for the Masses, please join us in prayer. We are offering the following prayer for you to pray during the novena:

Loving God, turn your ear to the cries of your sons and daughters who seek healing for Your Church. We are heartbroken. We are bruised. We are hurting.

In these days we again wrestle with understanding the heinous acts of abuse by those entrusted with shepherding Your flock. Ease our troubled hearts. Mend our broken spirits. Be “ever present in our distress.”

Merciful Lord, send Your Healing Spirit to our brothers and sisters who have endured pain and abuse physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. Comfort their weary spirits. Soothe their pain. Grant them justice. May our eyes be opened to see Your image in these wounded members of Your Church.

Shepherd of Souls, make Your presence known to us that these wrongful acts will be addressed. Inspire our leaders of the Church to seek new and effective paths to keep safe the flock they shepherd.

Give us all courage to act and speak up on behalf of the most vulnerable. Rush the winds of the Spirit to scatter the darkness of sin. Pour forth Your healing Spirit to renew our trust and hope in You, who are our refuge and our strength. We pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.

Interfaith Thanksgiving Service
Scripture, Prayer & Praise
Tuesday, Nov. 20, 2018
7:00 pm in the Church

Happy Thanksgiving
Some weeks ago, we introduced the Mass by comparing it to a formal dinner party that one might attend. [cf. Looking Through Stained Glass, “The Mass, Part 1 – The Everlasting Banquet,” Sept. 16, 2018] In that column, we suggested that, like a banquet, there are four basic parts to the Mass. Those parts are the “greeting,” the “getting to know one another,” the “meal proper,” and the “farewell.” Today, we will begin our examination of these four parts by exploring the greeting, or Introductory Rites.

At a banquet, the greeting includes welcoming people and inviting them in, and making them feel comfortable. In the Mass, the Introductory Rites have the same purpose. According to the General Instructions of the Roman Missal (GIRM), “[The purpose of the Introductory Rites] is to ensure that the faithful, who come together as one, establish communion and dispose themselves properly to listen to the Word of God and to celebrate the Eucharist worthily.” [GIRM, 46]

First, I would like to suggest that we have both formal and informal Introductory Rites. The “formal” rites are those that are designated by the Church and/or required for the Mass. The “informal” rites are those that are more customary and perhaps more specific to our parish. For example, within the last few years, we started a new ministry, the Welcome Ministry. People who are involved in this ministry greet people as they enter through the various doors to the Church. In fact, some of the Ushers, and even the clergy, have been getting involved in this ministry too. We also greet people through the parish announcements.

The formal Introductory Rites begin with the Processional (or Opening) Song. According to the GIRM, “the purpose [of the Processional Song] is to open the celebration, foster the unity of those who have been gathered, introduce their thoughts to the mystery of the liturgical time or festivity, and accompany the procession of the Priest and ministers.” [GIRM, 47]

Once assembled, we are greeted by our “host,” Jesus Christ, who is represented by the priest celebrant. The celebrant begins with the Sign of the Cross and words of greeting, such as, “The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.” Some of our priests will add another “informal” rite here and ask the congregation to greet one another, so that everyone feels more comfortable and welcome.

Following the greeting, the priest (and deacon) leads us in the Penitential Rite. We must remember that not only are we greeting one another, we are also greeting the Lord. We are preparing ourselves for being in the presence of the Lord. During the Penitential Rite, we seek God’s mercy, His willingness to bring us into His house and allow us to join in the celebration, even though we are sinners and are not worthy of so great an honor. As a response to God’s mercy and in recognition that God does indeed want us to be part of this celebration, we sing the “Gloria,” the great song of thanks and praise to God.

Finally, the celebrant leads us in the Collect, or Opening Prayer, which helps us prepare for the core parts of the Mass – the Liturgies of the Word and the Eucharist.

Next week, we will continue our discussion of the parts of the Mass with the Liturgy of the Word.
Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Pope Francis, in his message for the Second World Day of the Poor (33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time), writes:

When we find ways of drawing near to the poor, we know that the primacy belongs to God, who opens our eyes and hearts to conversion. The poor do not need self-promoters, but a love that knows how to remain hidden and not think about all the good it has been able to do. At the centre must always be the Lord and the poor. Anyone desirous of serving is an instrument in God’s hands, a means of manifesting his saving presence (7).

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) seeks to serve the disadvantaged by funding initiatives that strive to break the cycle of poverty that plagues so many in our community and nation. Next weekend the Diocese of Palm Beach will take part in the annual collection to benefit the programs and services of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) as we anticipate the commemoration of the World Day of the Poor on November 18th.

Your spiritual and financial support of the CCHD helps those in need to better themselves, their families and their community. May God bless you with every grace and peace and may our Blessed Mother always intercede for you.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am
Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach
THIRTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOD’S LAWS

God’s laws are not intended to burden or torment us. Instead they are guideposts that point us in the direction of good living. Accordingly, good living requires loving God and loving one another. We should not follow God’s laws out of fear of what might happen if we don’t, but rather view them as a foundation for building relationships and trust with one another and with God.

The Shema prayer of Orthodox Jews is based on the reading from Deuteronomy today, “Hear, O Israel.” Every morning people recite the prayer as a profession of their love for God and pledge their obedience to God throughout the day. They pass on their love of God to their children, from one generation to the next.

Readings for the Week

Monday: Phil 2:1-4; Ps 131:1bcde-3; Lk 14:12-14
Tuesday: Phil 2:5-11; Ps 22:26b-30ab, 30e, 31-32; Lk 14:15-24
Wednesday: Phil 2:12-18; Ps 27:1, 4, 13-14; Lk 14:25-33
Thursday: Phil 3:3-8a; Ps 105:2-7; Lk 15:1-10
Friday: Ez 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; Ps 46:2-3, 5-6, 8-9; 1 Cor 3:9c-11, 16-17; Jn 2:13-22
Saturday: Phil 4:10-19; Ps 112:1b-2, 5-6, 8a, 9; Lk 16:9-15

To prepare for the Readings of November 10/11

First Reading — The widow of Zarephath had only a handful of flour and a little oil, but made a little cake for Elijah (1 Kings 17:10-16).
Psalm — Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146).
Second Reading — Christ will appear a second time to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him (Hebrews 9:24-28).
Gospel — This poor widow put in more than all the other contributors (Mark 12:38-44 [41-44]).

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children.Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
