Jesus observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents.

...“Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it.” Then he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them. Mark 10:14-16

In light of all that is happening in our Church, we hope that you will join us in prayer for Healing and Reconciliation. We will be offering a Novena of Masses for this purpose.

The Masses will take place in the Church at 12:00 Noon, for nine Mondays; the fifth Mass is on November 12th. The prayer intention for this Mass is for The Pope. You are invited to pray the Rosary communally immediately following the Mass.

If you are unable to join us for the Masses, please join us in prayer. We are offering the following prayer for you to pray during the novena:

Loving God, turn your ear to the cries of your sons and daughters who seek healing for Your Church. We are heartbroken. We are bruised. We are hurting.

In these days we again wrestle with understanding the heinous acts of abuse by those entrusted with shepherding Your flock. Ease our troubled hearts. Mend our broken spirits. Be “ever present in our distress.”

Merciful Lord, send Your Healing Spirit to our brothers and sisters who have endured pain and abuse physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. Comfort their weary spirits. Soothe their pain. Grant them justice. May our eyes be opened to see Your image in these wounded members of Your Church.

Shepherd of Souls, make Your presence known to us that these wrongful acts will be addressed. Inspire our leaders of the Church to seek new and effective paths to keep safe the flock they shepherd.

Give us all courage to act and speak up on behalf of the most vulnerable. Rush the winds of the Spirit to scatter the darkness of sin. Pour forth Your healing Spirit to renew our trust and hope in You, who are our refuge and our strength. We pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.

The Mass, Part 8 – Thy Word is a Lamp unto My Feet
This week, we continue our discussion of the Mass as a banquet. Last week, we talked about the “greeting,” or Introductory Rites. This week, we move on to the “getting to know you” section of the Mass banquet. This section of the Mass is known as the Liturgy of the Word, for it is through His Word that we get to know the Lord best.

The Liturgy of the Word is one of the two core parts of the Mass, along with the Liturgy of the Eucharist. The Liturgy of the Word generally includes the following elements: a reading from the Hebrew Scriptures (the Old Testament), a Psalm response (which is often sung), a reading from the Epistles (or letters) in the New Testament, a reading from one of the four Gospels, the Homily, the Profession of Faith and the Universal Prayer (the Prayer of the Faithful). Obviously, the main elements of this Liturgy are the readings from Scripture. The General Instructions of the Roman Missal (GIRM) remind us, “When the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church, God himself speaks to his people, and Christ, present in his word, proclaims the Gospel.” [GIRM, 29]

Our Sunday readings are organized in such a way that they follow a three-year cycle. Year A focuses on Matthew’s Gospel, Year B (our current year) is mostly from Mark, with some supplementation from John. Year C is centered on Luke’s Gospel. The first reading from the Hebrew Scripture complements the Gospel. The Psalm is a response to the first reading. During special seasons of the year, such as Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter, the second reading also complements the other two readings. In ordinary time, we have a continuous reading of certain Epistles instead. (For example, we have been reading from the Letter to the Hebrews over the last few weeks.) [N.B There are some exceptions to this general structure, such as having only one reading on weekdays.]

Following the readings, the priest or deacon will give a homily. According to the GIRM, the homily “should be an explanation of some aspect of the readings from Sacred Scripture […] and should take into account both the mystery being celebrated and the particular needs of the listeners.” [GIRM, 65] The difference between a homily and a sermon is that a homily has a specific focus on the readings of the day, whereas a sermon can be based on whatever topic the preacher decides. The homily should be not only a reflection on the readings, but also give the listeners a better understanding of an aspect of our faith and how to apply it in our daily lives.

Following the homily, we stand and profess our faith. Our Profession of Faith, or Creed, reminds us of the core of our faith. In it, we “honor and confess the great mysteries of the faith….” [GIRM, 67] We conclude the Liturgy of the Word by offering God our prayers in the Universal Prayer. “In the Universal Prayer or Prayer of the Faithful, the people respond in some sense to the Word of God which they have received in faith and, exercising the office of their baptismal Priesthood, offer prayers to God for the salvation of all.” [GIRM, 69] We offer prayers for ourselves, our Church, and our world.

Since we have mentioned Church seasons above, we will further elaborate on that discussion next week.
FAITH FORMATION

Parish Family Vocations Chalice Program

Sponsored by The Knights of Columbus Council 12322

Thank you to this week’s family: The Varona Family

Each week at the end of Communion, a volunteer family (family includes those with children, couples without children, grandparents and single people) will be called to the steps of the Sanctuary to receive a book of prayers and a Chalice to be used as a focal point. The family will take these materials home and pray for vocations using the daily prayers provided in the book. These materials are returned to church the following Sunday to be distributed to another family. Please call the office to sign up for a weekend.

A BIBLE STUDY FOR ALL PARISHIONERS!

There is still time to join the study of Matthew

Returns WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 28TH AT 7 PM IN THE AVE MARIA HALL.

What was Christ’s mission, really, and what does He mean when He talks about the “Kingdom of Heaven”?

Join us for Matthew: The King and His Kingdom, a Bible study that dives into the personhood and kingship of Christ. You will see Jesus as the awaited Messiah who fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament, establishes the New Law, and inaugurates the Kingdom of Heaven. Set in the rich context of Jesus’ life, Matthew shows us who Jesus is and what His life and teachings mean for us today.

PLEASE CALL THE PARISH OFFICE for a SCHEDULE

THIRTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
THE CALL TO DISCIPLESHIP

The core vocation in the Gospel of Mark is the vocation, or call, to discipleship. Today’s Gospel passage provides us with one last example of what the vocation to discipleship means, and one example of what it doesn’t mean. A destitute widow shows us that discipleship means following Jesus’ way of service, even if it requires giving one’s livelihood (or life). The scribes show us by their bad example that discipleship should entail a vocation to extend God’s care to those who are most in need.

In our reading from the book of Kings another widow and her son are close to death. They too give what little they have, but they are rewarded by Elijah with food enough for a year. And the reading from the Letter to the Hebrews reminds us that Jesus sacrificed his life “to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him” (Hebrews 9:28).

Readings for the Week

Monday: Ti 1:1-9; Ps 24:1b-4ab, 5-6; Lk 17:1-6
Tuesday: Ti 2:1-8, 11-14; Ps 37:3-4, 18, 23, 27, 29; Lk 17:7-10
Wednesday: Ti 3:1-7; Ps 23:1b-6; Lk 17:11-19
Thursday: Phlm 7-20; Ps 146:7-10; Lk 17:20-25
Friday: 2 Jn 4-9; Ps 119:1-2, 10-11, 17-18; Lk 17:26-37
Saturday: 3 Jn 5-8; Ps 112:1-6; Lk 18:1-8

To prepare for the Readings of November 17/18

First Reading — Those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever (Daniel 12:1-3).
Psalm — You are my inheritance, O Lord! (Psalm 16).
Second Reading — Where there is forgiveness, there is no longer offering for sin (Hebrews 10:11-14, 18).
Gospel — Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away (Mark 13:24-32).

PLEASE PRAY for the men and women in our armed forces stationed overseas, for the military commanders who lead them, for President Trump and his advisors and for...

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do You will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
