God bless you and thank you for your generosity in supporting your church!
“Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it.” Then he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them. Mark 10:14-16

In light of all that is happening in our Church, we hope that you will join us in prayer for Healing and Reconciliation. We will be offering a Novena of Masses for this purpose.

The Masses will take place in the Church at 12:00 Noon, for nine Mondays; the sixth Mass is on November 19th. The prayer intention for this Mass is for Bishops. You are invited to pray the Rosary communally immediately following the Mass.

If you are unable to join us for the Masses, please join us in prayer. We are offering the following prayer for you to pray during the novena:

Loving God, turn your ear to the cries of your sons and daughters who seek healing for Your Church. We are heartbroken. We are bruised. We are hurting.

In these days we again wrestle with understanding the heinous acts of abuse by those entrusted with shepherding Your flock. Ease our troubled hearts. Mend our broken spirits. Be “ever present in our distress.”

Merciful Lord, send Your Healing Spirit to our brothers and sisters who have endured pain and abuse physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. Comfort their weary spirits. Soothe their pain. Grant them justice. May our eyes be opened to see Your image in these wounded members of Your Church.

Shepherd of Souls, make Your presence known to us that these wrongful acts will be addressed. Inspire our leaders of the Church to seek new and effective paths to keep safe the flock they shepherd.

Give us all courage to act and speak up on behalf of the most vulnerable. Rush the winds of the Spirit to scatter the darkness of sin. Pour forth Your healing Spirit to renew our trust and hope in You, who are our refuge and our strength. We pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.

Scripture, Prayer & Praise
Tuesday, Nov. 20, 2018
7:00 pm in the Church
As you go to Mass every week, you may notice certain differences throughout the year. One of the most obvious differences would be the color vestment that the priest wears. Perhaps you wondered to yourself, “I guess Father is in a green mood today.” The reality is that even the vestments that the priest wears are symbols of something more.

You may have also noticed some other changes in the environment as we progress through the Church year. Like the seasons of the natural world, the Church has seasons as well. However, the difference is that the seasons of the Church are reflective of the life of Jesus. In each year, we relive the life and ministry of Jesus as we move through the year.

In order to determine the seasons of the year, we begin with the two main events of Jesus’ life and ministry – His Incarnation (birth) and His Passion, Death and Resurrection. Therefore, our Church year is anchored with Christmas and Easter. As you well know, we commemorate Jesus’ birth with Christmas, which we celebrate on December 25 each year. Easter, on the other hand, is a movable feast. Because Jesus linked his Paschal event (Passion, Death and Resurrection) to the Jewish feast of Passover, we celebrate Easter based on a similar lunar (vs. our solar) calendar. Since the Council of Nicaea in 325 AD, the feast of Easter has been set as the first Sunday following the first full moon on or after the vernal equinox. (Whew, that’s a mouthful!) Therefore, Easter can occur anywhere between March 22 and April 25. (In 2019, it is April 21.)

First, the Church celebrates Christmas Day and Easter Day for eight days each, as an octave. In addition, both Christmas and Easter are seasons. Christmas season ends with the Baptism of the Lord, which is usually the third Sunday after Christmas. Easter season ends with Pentecost, the eighth Sunday of Easter. These are the festival seasons and the color for them is generally white, which represents joy, glory and triumph. It is for this reason that white is also worn on many saints’ feast days, as well as for weddings and funerals.

The Church, in her wisdom, gave us seasons of preparation for each of our major festivals – Advent to prepare for Christmas and Lent to prepare for Easter. The seasons of preparation evoke a spirit of repentance and humility, so the color violet is used.

The days outside of these four major seasons are called Ordinary Time. They are called “ordinary,” not because they are unimportant, but because the weeks are numbered, first through thirty-fourth. The word “ordinary” comes from the Latin ordinem, which means pattern or series. During ordinary time, the color green elicits the ideas of life and hope.

There are three other liturgical colors that are sometimes used as well. Rose-colored vestments are worn on the Third Sunday of Advent and the Fourth Sunday of Lent to bring a little joy into these otherwise penitent seasons. Red symbolizes the Holy Spirit, the Passion and martyrdom, so it used on feast days of martyrs, as well as for Pentecost and Good Friday. Finally, although they are rarely used, black vestments can be worn on All Souls’ Day and for funerals.

Next week, we will take a break from our discussion of the Mass for a special Thanksgiving edition of Looking Through Stained Glass.

Parish Family Vocations Chalice Program
Sponsored by The Knights of Columbus Council 12322
Thank you to this week’s family:
The Ellis Family
Each week at the end of Communion, a volunteer family (family includes those with children, couples without children, grandparents and single people) will be called to the steps of the Sanctuary to receive a book of prayers and a Chalice to be used as a focal point. The family will take these materials home and pray for vocations using the daily prayers provided in the book. These materials are returned to church the following Sunday to be distributed to another family. Please call the office to sign up for a weekend.

This Sunday’s Gospel is our final selection from Mark for this liturgical year. It is taken from the end of Jesus’ teaching in Jerusalem immediately preceding the account of his arrest and passion. In it Jesus gives his disciples hope to sustain them through his passion and death and any persecution or suffering that they would encounter after his resurrection.

The words from the book of Daniel also provided hope and encouragement to the people of Daniel’s time. Set in the rich context of Jesus’ life, Matthew shows us who Jesus is and what His life and teachings mean for us today.

Please call the Parish Office for a schedule - facilitated by Fr. Tom William Anthony Schmitt son of Matthew & Leanne Sophia Elina Anne Paparo Daughter of Michael & Alexis WELCOME!

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Encouragement

This Sunday’s Gospel is our final selection from Mark for this liturgical year. It is taken from the end of Jesus’ teaching in Jerusalem immediately preceding the account of his arrest and passion. In it Jesus gives his disciples hope to sustain them through his passion and death and any persecution or suffering that they would encounter after his resurrection.

The words from the book of Daniel also provided hope and encouragement to the people of Daniel’s time. The encouragement in these scriptures is meant for us as well, for none of us will escape tribulation in our lives. Followers of Jesus will be able to endure suffering with joyful hope, knowing that Christ’s love will lead us along the way of discipleship and give us eternal life with God.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
