OPEN HOUSE

“Where All God’s Children are Honored”
SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT
AWAITING THE SALVATION OF GOD

The world does not seem big enough to contain the jubilation of the first reading. In the Gospel reading, the Roman empire isn’t big enough, either. The great powers of Rome are named and made to stand waiting for the arrival of God’s salvation. And we find Paul meditating joyfully on what really matters.

According to Baruch, the city of Jerusalem is like a person standing on tiptoe looking for God’s salvation, which is coming from the east. Those who were led away on foot, heads down, now come back, a proud people. Why, the very way is smoothed out. The path is lined with fragrant, lush trees.

It can’t get any better than this, can it? Well, yes, it can. For a voice calls out in the desert. Here is the beginning of the salvation of God.

Loving God, turn your ear to the cries of your sons and daughters who seek healing for Your Church. We are heartbroken. We are bruised. We are hurting.

In these days we again wrestle with understanding the heinous acts of abuse by those entrusted with shepherding Your flock. Ease our troubled hearts. Mend our broken spirits. Be “ever present in our distress.”

Merciful Lord, send Your Healing Spirit to our brothers and sisters who have endured pain and abuse physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. Comfort their weary spirits. Soothe their pain. Grant them justice. May our eyes be opened to see Your image in these wounded members of Your Church.

Shepherd of Souls, make Your presence known to us that these wrongful acts will be addressed. Inspire our leaders of the Church to seek new and effective paths to keep safe the flock they shepherd.

Give us all courage to act and speak up on behalf of the most vulnerable. Rush the winds of the Spirit to scatter the darkness of sin. Pour forth Your healing Spirit to renew our trust and hope in You, who are our refuge and our strength. We pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.

To prepare for the Readings of December 15/16
Third Sunday of Advent

First Reading — Your God will sing joyfully because of you, as one sings at festivals (Zephaniah 3:14-18a).
Psalm — Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel (Isaiah 12:6).
Second Reading — Rejoice in the Lord always. I shall say it again: rejoice! (Philippians 4:4-7).
Gospel — Whoever who has two cloaks should share with the person who has none. Whoever who has food should do likewise (Luke 3:10-18).

As we continue our discussion of the Mass, and particularly the Liturgy of the Eucharist, we have come to the most amazing, the most powerful, and the greatest mystery of the Mass – the consecration of the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. This consecration specifically takes place during the Eucharistic Prayer.

The Eucharistic Prayer is the central prayer of the Mass and the prayer that re-presents the Last Supper of Jesus, where He gave Himself to His apostles and now to us. In order to prepare ourselves for this most important of prayers, the priest leads us in the Preface, which expresses our thanksgiving and praise to God, as we are united “with [angels and saints], as without end we proclaim” the Sanctus, or “Holy, Holy, Holy.”

The Eucharistic Prayer then continues with the Epiclesis, where “the Church implores the power of the Holy Spirit that the gifts offered by human hands be consecrated.” [General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), 79c.]

Following the epiclesis are the Institution Narrative and Consecration, where the priest repeats “the words and actions of [that] Christ himself instituted during the Last Supper, when he offered his Body and Blood under the species of bread and wine, gave them to the Apostles to eat and drink, and [left them] the command to perpetuate this same mystery.” [GIRM, 79d.] (By the way, the phrase “hocus pocus” may have come from a parody of this portion of the Mass, when the Mass was proclaimed in Latin. The Latin phrase, “hoc est corpus meum” means “This is my body.” To ridicule Catholics, the term “hocus pocus” was used to describe the “magic” of bread and wine becoming the Body and Blood of Christ.)

Just as the Passion of our Lord followed quickly on the heels of the Last Supper, our Anamnesis, or recalling of the core of our faith – His Passion, Death and Resurrection, follows the institutional narrative and consecration. During the anamnesis, we answer the call of the priest, “The mystery of faith,” with a statement about that mystery, such as, “We profess your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.”

Next, during the Oblation, “the Church, […] gathered here and now, offers the unblemished sacrificial Victim [Jesus] in the Holy Spirit to the Father. The Church’s intention, indeed, is that the faithful not only offer this unblemished sacrificial Victim but also learn to offer their very selves.” [GIRM, 79f.]

As we do in many of our prayers, we offer Intercessions (prayers for ourselves and others) during the Eucharistic Prayer. For example, it is during this portion of the prayer that we pray for ourselves, the Church and the deceased.

The Eucharistic Prayer is concluded as all good prayers are – with a Doxology, or statement “by which the glorification of God is expressed and which is affirmed and concluded by the people’s acclamation Amen.” [GIRM, 79h.]

After the Eucharistic Prayer, the Body and Blood of Christ are ready to be distributed to all the faithful. Next week, we will discuss the Communion rite, by which we make our final preparations and receive this most awesome gift.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
