The day of joy returns, Father in Heaven, and crowns another year with peace and good will.
Help us rightly to remember the birth of Jesus, that we may share in the song of the angels, the gladness of the shepherds, and the worship of the wise men.
Close the doors of hate and open the doors of love all over the world.
Let kindness come with every gift and good desires with every greeting.
Deliver us from evil, by the blessing that Christ brings, and teach us to be merry with clean hearts.
May Christmas morning make us happy to be your children,
And Christmas evening bring us to our bed with grateful thoughts, forgiving and forgiven for Jesus’ sake. Amen.

WE WISH ALL OUR PARISHIONERS AND THEIR FAMILIES A BLESSED CHRISTMAS!! The Clergy and Staff
Applications are available for this inspiring Parish Retreat! Treat yourself to a joy-filled weekend with fellow parishioners or give the gift of a retreat to someone you love!

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

MEMORIES AND DREAMS

Throughout our lives, we retain the language and habits of our native region and family of origin. Should we return to our home after a long absence, we quickly revert to its familiar speech and practices. Our deep memory is reflected in old stories and words and speech patterns. This familiarity runs like an underground river and accompanies us wherever we go.

Not only do we remember, we are incorporated into and made part of a greater memory. In remembering and recollecting, we are in turn gathered up and re-collected.

Today we remember Mary, a small figure travelling the country roads to visit Elizabeth. All the great pronouncements and dreams of the prophets point to this time when the Lord’s words to Mary would be gathered and fulfilled. The memories of her people are alive in her, and memories of her nourish our own living faith.

To prepare for the Readings of December 29/30

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

- First Reading — Hannah conceived, and at the end of her term bore a son whom she called Samuel (1 Samuel 1:20-22, 24-28) or Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14.
- Psalm — Blessed are they who dwell in your house, O Lord (Psalm 84) or Psalm 128.
- Second Reading — See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God (1 John 3:1-2, 21-24) or Colossians 3:12-21 [12-17].
- Gospel — The boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. They found him in the temple, in the midst of the teachers (Luke 2:41-52).
All I Want for Christmas is Christ…for Me and YOU

When we were young, we were asked to prepare a Wish List for Santa Claus. On our wish list, we might put toys or games, or maybe even a Red Ryder BB gun. Christmas morning found us in a pile of wrapping paper and bows, flitting from one toy or game to another. However, in a few short weeks (or sometimes days), we had used up all the fun from them and they became just another item to clutter our bedroom.

As we grow older, our “wish list” contains larger and more expensive items, like electronics and fancy clothes. But even those items seem to lose their luster in a short while. (What ever happened to my Palm Pilot?) They all have an expiration date, don’t they? Even the items that we wish for today will seem like old hat in just a short amount of time. The planned obsolescence of today is not just planned by manufacturers and retailers, but it’s planned by us too. (I can’t use that any longer, it’s last year’s model.) Sure, we’re grateful for the gifts that we receive, but our real gratitude is due to the thoughtfulness and generosity of the giver.

So where do we find a Christmas gift for ourselves or for someone else that won’t expire? How do we give someone a gift that will truly last? There is one, and it is the gift that was given to us before we were even born. It is the gift that God the Father gave us over 2000 years ago. It is the gift of Jesus. Besides the generosity of the giver, we are grateful for the gift of Christ Himself. Jesus freed us from slavery to sin. He showed us the way to return to God and taught us about God’s love and mercy.

Now, here’s the really fantastic part. We are not just receivers of this great gift; we can also be givers. Jesus, in His commandments to us, told us that we needed to love God and also to love one another. When we share love with one another, we are sharing God, for God is love. What’s the greatest gift you can give to another? It is love. True love has no cost. True love has no expiration date. True love lasts. True love is Christ.

How can you give this kind of love this Christmas? It’s not about what we buy for people; it’s about what we do for and with them. For example, can you spend a little extra time talking to your kids? Or your parents? Can you finally work on forgiving the grudge you’ve had with a brother or sister? Can you be the first one who puts her pride aside and reaches out? Can you share some time playing with your grandchildren? Can you really listen to that story about “when I was young,” instead of just pretending to hear? Can you put down that phone or tablet and engage with the person who is sitting right in front of you? I promise you that this type of gift will mean more than anything you can wrap.

So what is my wish for you this Christmas? My wish is love. My wish is that you receive God’s love for you and that you share it with another. And, as I said above, when we receive and give love, we receive and give Christ. So, yes, it’s true: All I want for Christmas is Christ… for me and YOU.
