“Where All God’s Children are Honored”
FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
AN ONGOING MISSION

In his hometown synagogue, Jesus’ neighbors are amazed by his words. Nevertheless, they remind each other, “Is this not Joseph’s son?” Surely the people know who he is. The carpenter’s son. The young man who had learned in this very synagogue. The boy down the street.

Conflict arises as Jesus begins to define himself in a new way. When he compares himself to the ancient prophets Elijah and Elisha the tensions grow. The tensions multiply when Jesus begins to tell of a new mission for God’s people: the good news of the scriptures is intended for all.

In his famous passage from the First Letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul reminds us of the eternal nature of love. Love does not come to an end. In today’s readings, we are reminded that, like love, Jesus’ mission cannot be contained. Jesus slips through the crowd of persecutors and moves on to new challenges. We are called to this same perseverance in the name of love.

Readings for the Week

Monday: Heb 11:32-40; Ps 31:20-24; Mk 5:1-20
Tuesday: Heb 12:1-4; Ps 22:26b-28, 30-32; Mk 5:21-43
Wednesday: Heb 12:4-7, 11-15; Ps 103:1-2, 13-14, 17-18a; Mk 6:1-6
Thursday: Heb 12:18-19, 21-24; Ps 48:2-4, 9-11; Mk 6:7-13
Friday: Heb 13:1-8; Ps 27:1, 3, 5, 8b-9; Mk 6:14-29
Saturday: Heb 13:15-17, 20-21; Ps 23:1-6; Mk 6:30-34

To prepare for the Readings of February 9/10
First Reading — Isaiah is called to be a messenger for the Lord and responds, “Send me!” (Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8)
Psalm — In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord (Psalm 138).
Second Reading — Paul reminds us of the gospel he preached through which we are saved, if we believe it (1 Corinthians 15:1-11 [3-8, 11]).
One Small Way to Make a Big Difference

Last year, in our parish, we started a new campaign. It was the inspiration of one of our parishioners. He had seen this special tool for the preservation of the Church used in another parish of which he had been a part, and he thought it might be useful here. With a little fine tuning for our parish, the Vocations Chalice Program was born!

As a former Director of Vocations for the Diocese of Palm Beach, I was excited to have our parish participate in this program. I know that the two greatest factors for increasing vocations are (1) prayer and (2) encouragement from one’s family and community. In the parish in Connecticut where I grew up, we would pray for vocations weekly and these prayers were answered with at least 4 men becoming priests or deacons. I believe we also had at least one woman join a religious order. And this from a parish with only a few hundred families. Our parish is four times the size of that parish. Thankfully, we have had a couple vocations from our parish. I truly believe that if we all ardently pray for an increase in vocations to priesthood, diaconate and religious life, we will see an increase.

So here’s how the program works. Each week, one family in our parish gets the opportunity to take home a priest’s chalice and pray for more people to respond to God’s call to be priests, deacons and religious brothers and sisters. The family will be called forward at the end of Mass to receive the Chalice. When they receive the Chalice, the parish will join them in prayer as we all pray the Diocesan Prayer for Vocations. Each day during the week, they follow the prayers contained in Vocations Chalice Program Book, which will also be given to them at Mass. At the end of the week, they return the materials to the Church, so the Chalice can be given to the next family. So far, the Chalice has been distributed at the 9 AM Mass, but families from every Mass are welcome to be a part of this program. If you would like your family to be a part of this program too, please give your name at the Welcome Desk after Mass, or you can contact the Parish Office.

So far, we have had 25 families in our parish receive the Vocations Chalice. At the end of the week of prayer, they make comments like, “It was such a privilege to have the chalice in our home,” “We felt honored to pray for vocations this week,” “I really felt the spirit at work, while praying,” and “I couldn’t help but think about the young people who God is calling to serve Him.”

By the way, there are collateral benefits to all these families praying for vocations. First, it helps them to pray together as a family, which is always good for the family. Their prayers also can help them up to see the honor of having a religious vocation in their own family. Finally, these prayers will help us all to look for and encourage vocations from our parish.

Every week, we include a prayer intention in our Prayers of the Faithful for an increase in vocations. Now, we have added the Vocations Chalice Program. However, we encourage everyone to join in prayer for an increase in vocations by praying the Diocesan Prayer for Vocations, which you will find in the bulletin. Your prayers are “one small way to make a big difference” for our Church.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
