Life in Christ – Part 6: Gluttony – Oh, I Am SO Full!

For the last couple of weeks, we have been discussing the disordered affections that emanate from the Capital Sin of Avarice. These disordered affections pertain to the unhealthy desire for the blessings of this world. Last week, we explored the disordered affection for another person, which we describe as the Capital Sin of Lust. This week, we will focus on another related sin, which pertains mostly to the disordered affection for food and drink, known as the Capital Sin of Gluttony.

Let’s begin with a definition of gluttony. The Merriam-Webster Dictionary defines Gluttony as “excess in eating or drinking” and “greedy or excessive indulgence.” We can see from this definition that even secular sources, like Merriam-Webster, relate Gluttony and Greed (Avarice). As we learned in our discussion of Avarice, one of the sources of Avarice is a philosophy of scarcity. [cf. Looking Through Stained Glass, Life in Christ – Part 4: Avarice – Greed is NOT Good, Mar. 17, 2019] When one believes that there is not enough to go around, one might try to take more than her share. There is a story in Exodus about manna that demonstrates this issue of the fear of running out. In Exodus 16, God rained down manna for the people. They were commanded by God to take just enough for the day. Some gathered more than they should and saved the extra for the next day. What they saved turned bad and was full of maggots by morning. [EX 16:13-27]

We can see from this example that Gluttony is a sin against God, because it denies trust in God. Remember that we pray in the Our Father, “Give us THIS day our DAILY bread.” In his letter to the Philippians, St. Paul goes so far as to say, “For many, as I have often told you and now tell you even in tears, conduct themselves as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction. Their God is their stomach; their glory is in their ‘shame.’ Their minds are occupied with earthly things.” [Phil 3:18-19]

In addition, Gluttony is a sin against the love of neighbor. In the Catechism of the Catholic Church [CCC], we see the definition of all sin, which certainly applies to the sin of Gluttony, “Sin is an offense against reason, truth, and right conscience; it is failure in genuine love for God and neighbor caused by a perverse attachment to certain goods. It wounds the nature of man and injures human solidarity.” [CCC, 1849] Gluttony stems from the sin of Pride, which we have learned fools us into believing that we are more entitled to blessings than our neighbor. [cf. Looking Through Stained Glass, Life in Christ – Part 2: Pride – Good For You?, Feb. 24, 2019]

How do we counter the effects of Gluttony? We do so by the Lenten practices of fasting and almsgiving. Fasting helps us to learn self-control. It helps us to put the blessings of this life in perspective. We learned from St. Paul above that for gluttons, “their God is their belly.” Fasting helps us to get our disordered appetites back in order, so that the one true God can be our God again. Almsgiving can also help us to counter the effects of Gluttony, teaching us that the philosophy of scarcity is a farce. In reality, there is plenty for all of us. Through Almsgiving, we contribute to the just distribution of resources. Almsgiving also teaches us to trust in God, rather than our own store of material goods.

Next week, we will explore our final Capital Sin, Sloth.
The Sacred Triduum refers to the three days before Easter. They include Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. On Holy Thursday, we commemorate the last Supper and Christ’s Passion and approaching Crucifixion. Good Friday is a solemn time in which we remember the suffering and death on the Cross of Jesus Christ. On Holy Saturday we observe the Easter Vigil and anticipate Christ’s triumphant Resurrection from the dead. The Sacred Triduum is the summit of our liturgical year, its glorious fulfillment.

Let us observe these days as a special time of prayer and meditation.

BECOMING A MAN AFTER GOD’S OWN HEART

Option For and With The Poor
"The morality of society is judged by how well our most vulnerable members are faring. Just as a parent gives more care and resources to a sick child, in order that the child might become healthy, so we as Christians are called to put the needs of the poor and vulnerable first. Those with the greatest need require the greatest response. In a society marked by the deepening divide between rich and poor, the gospel calls us to radical and self-giving love—to meet the needs of the poor and vulnerable and to oppose the structures that perpetuate poverty and abuse the vulnerable.”
USCCB.org

Challenge Question: Do I consider our national budget, a "moral document"? If so, who might be "slipping through the cracks" in society today?

Thank you Fr. Tom McCarthy, for a beautiful mission. You have given a true blessing to our parish. Thank you for calling us to a greater understanding of the sacraments and seeing them from a different angle!

We wish you well in your ministry. May God always bless you.

To celebrate our new Deacon Robinson Aza will be ordained a Deacon on Saturday, April 6th. After his ordination, Robinson will assist in a Mass of Thanksgiving on Sun., April 7th at 5 p.m. in our Church. Reception to follow.

THANK YOU!

Ever wonder what the Church's teaching on cremation is? Do you know how to plan a cost-effective funeral? Would you like to learn from the experts?

Many of our parishioners have relocated to Florida from other parts of the country and retired here. Many have thoughts, or even plans, for being buried in their former hometowns. Most people do not understand the ins and outs of planning a funeral; especially one that requires special travel logistics.

The Parish of St. Paul of the Cross Catholic Church has arranged to bring together a panel of experts, including funeral directors, a cemetery director, a Knights of Columbus Field Agent, and our own Fr. Tom Lafreniere to answer some common questions about funeral planning. An emcee will ask the panel questions and take questions from the audience.

The event will be held Sunday, April 7 at 1:00 p.m. in the St Joseph Hall.

Light refreshments will be served before and after the panel discussion.

Hosted by the Knights of Columbus Council 12322.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Confort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
