THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER
LIFELONG SERVICE

“I am going fishing.” What an announcement! If asked who made it, and not told it was a Bible quote, we might guess “Grandpa” or “Uncle Fred,” or admit, “I said that last summer!” But it is a Bible quote, from today’s Gospel. The person who said it also once declared, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” Yes, it’s Peter! So today’s announcement seems quite the comedown. Last Sunday Jesus said, “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” But Peter seems determined to return to his pre-apostolic occupation, until Jesus intervenes, making Peter’s later announcement deeper, “Lord, you know that I love you,” and Peter’s apostolic calling clearer, “Tend my sheep.” Peter does so. Acts presents the consequences: Peter declares, “We must obey God rather than men.” As Revelation proclaims, “Worthy is the Lamb”—to receive Peter’s lifelong service, and ours.

MAY 12TH
9:00AM MASS
Life in Christ – Part 10: Faith – I Do Believe; Help my Unbelief

In last week’s column, we introduced the Virtues, both the Theological and the Cardinal Virtues, and in our introduction, we discussed how the Virtue of Love is the basis for all other virtues. Today, we will focus on the Virtue of Faith. It is God’s love for us that gives us a reason for Faith.

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), “The theological virtues dispose Christians to live in a relationship with the Holy Trinity. They have God for their origin, their motive, and their object - God known by faith, God hoped in and loved for his own sake.” Therefore, God instills in us, through the Theological Virtues, the desire to draw closer to Him.

Since Faith originates in God’s love for us, Faith is more than just believing in the existence of God, it is also believing in the God who loves us. In order to assist us in better understanding this God who loves us, God gave us our deposit of faith – namely, the Scriptures and the teaching of Catholic Church, which we call Tradition. From the beginning God reveals His love for us, which we see through the Hebrew Scriptures (what some call the Old Testament). We see God in creation and in the accounts of faith from Abraham and Moses and the prophets. “Then, after speaking in many and varied ways through the prophets, ‘now at last in these days God has spoken to us in His Son’ (Heb. 1:1-2).” Our Faith is fulfilled through Jesus Christ and is continued through the working of the Holy Spirit. “To bring about an ever deeper understanding of revelation the same Holy Spirit constantly brings faith to completion by His gifts.” [DV, 5]

It is Faith that allows us to receive God’s revelation, to strive to know Him better, and to find a relationship with Him, through Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. In his first encyclical, Lumen Fidei or The Light of Faith, Pope Francis explains the greatest benefit of Faith for us: “We come to see the difference, then, which faith makes for us. Those who believe are transformed by the love to which they have opened their hearts in faith. […] The self-awareness of the believer now expands because of the presence of another; it now lives in this other and thus, in love, life takes on a whole new breadth. Here we see the Holy Spirit at work. The Christian can see with the eyes of Jesus and share in his mind, his filial disposition [as a child of God], because he or she shares in his love, which is the Spirit.” [Lumen Fidei, 21] Although God’s love is a free gift of grace, Faith allows us to receive that love, so that we might come to believe and to know the Trinitarian God who loves us.

Next week, we will complete our discussion of the Theological Virtues with an exploration of the virtue of Hope.
The Bread and Wine this week is in loving memory of Mary Gertrude Hayes-Kishel, 10th anniversary deceased by her daughter, Dr. Joan Kishel

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
