Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity, one of the most confounding mysteries of our faith. Through this mystery we experience our relationship to God: Creator, Savior, and Holy Spirit. This relationship is not easy to understand or to describe. It does not become clearer through analysis. Its complexity mirrors the complexity of all our relationships. We understand our relationships with our spouses, our children, our parents, and our friends only through daily give-and-take, annual rituals, and the life-changing moments we share. We understand our relationships only as we live them. The relationships we have with those we love, and who love us, sustain us through an uncertain and difficult life. This is the Holy Trinity.

What is striking about today’s readings is that each is incomplete. What they do offer is a description of a moment in our relationship, a memory of a time and an event when our relationship made sense even though that sense may be beyond our ability to describe fully. Often that is all that our faith offers, that is, a memory of what is possible, what is promised, what has been given. A memory of eternity, of love beyond understanding is to be cherished and nurtured even if not fully understood. This is the Holy Trinity.

To prepare for the Readings of June 22/23

First Reading — Melchizedek brought out bread and wine and blessed Abram (Genesis 14:18-20).

Psalm — You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek (Psalm 110).

Second Reading — Paul gives his description of the institution of the Eucharist (1 Corinthians 11:23-26).

Gospel — Jesus spoke to the crowd about the kingdom of God and then fed them with five loaves and two fish (Luke 9:11b-17).

During the season of Easter, we explored the various Theological and Cardinal Virtues. These Virtues were expressed as part of our Life in Christ. It is, after all, Christ who epitomizes all of the Virtues. As we move now to the period of time after Pentecost, it is appropriate to begin to discuss Life in the Holy Spirit. As God is One and the Holy Spirit is also known as the Spirit of Christ, we are actually just adding to our discussion of Life in Christ with this discussion of Life in the Spirit. In fact, the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) says, “[The Gifts of the Holy Spirit] belong in their fullness to Christ, Son of David. [cf. IS 11:1] They complete and perfect the virtues of those who receive them.” [CCC, 1831]

According to the Catechism, “The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety, and Fear of the Lord.” [Ibid, cf. IS 11:2] Since these gifts are gifts from God, they help us to participate in the Divine Life, just as the Virtues do. Also, because these gifts are from God, they have a theological purpose and definition. In other words, we may find, as we did for the Virtues, that the common definitions of these words differ from the theological and Catechetical definition.

Wisdom is known as the first and highest of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. The rest of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit point to or spring from Wisdom. The source of Wisdom is of course God, and any wisdom that human beings possess comes from God. We have several examples of Wisdom given from God in the Scriptures, but perhaps the most famous is the Wisdom of Solomon. “Moreover, God gave Solomon wisdom, exceptional understanding, and knowledge, as vast as the sand on the seashore.” [1 Kings 5:9. See also 1 Kings 3:5-14]

The common definition of “wisdom” is “good sense or judgment.” [Merriam-Webster Dictionary, “Wisdom”] However, the Catholic definition of Wisdom is not a matter of the mind, but instead it is a matter of the heart. The Gift of Wisdom affects moral discernment, as well as simple “good sense.” We know from previous studies that when we speak about the moral life and the virtues associated with it, we are speaking above all about love. Therefore, Wisdom is more than “good sense or judgment.” It is a Gift from God out of His Love. Wisdom, therefore, draws us back to God, and to His Love. When we judge Wisdom based on love, we are judging Wisdom in the same way that God does, instead of how human beings do. In his First Letter to the Corinthians, Paul writes of the wisest act of God (the Paschal Mystery) when he says, “[We] proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.” [1 Cor 1:23-25] God’s wisdom is love, so the Gift of Wisdom is a gift of love.

Next week, we will examine the related Gift of Understanding.
CATHOLIC SOCIAL

Justice in the World
(Synod of Bishops, 1971)

“Christian love of neighbor and justice cannot be separated. For love implies an absolute demand for justice, namely a recognition of the dignity and rights of one’s neighbor” (No. 34).

Challenge question: On this Trinity Sunday, when we explore the very nature of God as a Community of Love: Father, Son, and Spirit, we must ask ourselves again and again, who is my neighbor? Is there anyone beyond the reach of my loving embrace?
Father’s Day Prayer

God our Father,
You govern and protect your people and shepherd them with a father’s love. You place a father in a family as a sign of your love, care, and constant protection.

May fathers everywhere be faithful to the example shown in the Scriptures: steadfast in love, forgiving transgressions, sustaining the family, caring for those in need.

Give your wisdom to fathers that they may encourage and guide their children. Keep them healthy so they may support a family.

Guide every father with the Spirit of your love that they may grow in holiness and draw their family ever closer to you. Amen.

Dear Father Tom Lafreniere, Staff, Organizations, Ministries, and Parishioners of St. Paul of The Cross Church,

I am truly grateful for your kindness in allowing me to preach at your church during the weekend of June 29-30, 2019, to support my parish, St. Francis of Assisi Church, as part of the Mission Co-Op Plan.

I am looking forward to returning to the altar of St. Paul of The Cross, where I was Parochial Vicar from 1999-2002, under Fr. Arthur Venezia.

St. Francis of Assisi, which is located in a neighborhood of low-income families in Riviera Beach, faces many challenges. In order to continue to respond to the needs of the people in its community, the church requires additional security and surveillance equipment, including cameras and fencing.

Thank you for granting me this opportunity to help support my parish in its mission of faith, hope and charity for the glory of God’s kingdom.

Fr. Peter T Truong, Pastor of St. Francis of Assisi

KAIROS THANKS YOU!

The KAIROS Team for Okeechobee Correctional Institution (OCI) #79 expresses their deep appreciation for the generous support from you, the Saint Paul Of The Cross parishioners, for our June 6-9 weekend inside with the prison inmates.

Your generous support of the meal tickets assured that all the meals and snacks provided to the forty-two men were covered. In addition, your prayer support tabs were linked into a chain from other churches and individuals that resulted in a chain that encircled the meeting room twice........about 2,100 links in the chain! The weekend was transformational for the men in blue. Your examples of unconditional Christian love (Agape) and caring was an integral part of their transformation.

Wishing you Christ’s continued blessings,
Kevin Washington & Dave Tabony
OCI #79 Agape Co-coordinators

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM STORMS

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons.

Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind, and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety.

Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge.

We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
