Today’s readings celebrate God’s providence. No matter how wonderful (or heartbreaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does.

Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us “as a mother comforts her child.” The prophet describes us not as the usual “children of God,” but as “babies.” We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God’s care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother. Saint Paul’s trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can “make troubles” for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus. And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide.

To prepare for the Readings of July 12/13

First Reading — The word of the Lord is very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts (Deuteronomy 30:10-14).

Psalm — Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live (Psalm 69) or Psalm 19.

Second Reading — Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God (Colossians 1:15-20).

Gospel — The Samaritan traveler was moved with compassion at the sight of the man stripped and beaten by robbers (Luke 10:25-37).
Gifts of the Holy Spirit – Part 4: Counsel – The Best Counsel Comes from God

In our first column on the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, we learned that the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) says, “[The Gifts of the Holy Spirit] complete and perfect the virtues of those who receive them.” [CCC, 1831; cf. Looking Through Stained Glass, “Gifts of the Holy Spirit – Part 1: Wisdom – Knowledge Speaks, but Wisdom Listens”, June 16, 2019] The first three Gifts that we explored – Wisdom, Understanding and Knowledge – were all related to the Theological Virtue of Faith. In this column, we will examine the Gift of Counsel, which is the perfection of the Cardinal Virtue of Prudence.

You may remember from our column on Prudence that it is “the virtue that disposes practical reason to discern our true good in every circumstance and to choose the right means of achieving it; […]. Prudence is ‘right reason in action,’ writes St. Thomas Aquinas.” [CCC, 1806] The Gift of Counsel perfects this Virtue by making the right choice almost through intuition. We might say that Prudence helps us determine the right choice by reason; however, Counsel relies on the Holy Spirit’s guidance to help us make the choice based on God’s Will for us.

In our column on Wisdom, we stated that all of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit spring from Wisdom. This is certainly true of Counsel. If Wisdom helps us to seek God and to draw closer to Him, Counsel helps us to choose between right and wrong, based on what will draw us closer to God.

Counsel is also related to Knowledge, but different from Knowledge in its particularity. Knowledge helps us to see the path that leads to God, whereas Counsel helps us take the next step on that path. If we were to expand on the illustration regarding mortal sin that we used in our last column on Knowledge [cf. Looking Through Stained Glass, “Gifts of the Holy Spirit – Part 3: Knowledge – I Know, I Know, It’s Off to Work I Go”, June 30, 2019], we might say that Knowledge helps us to know what our faith teaches about sin and Counsel helps us make specific choices that keep us from sin.

At this point in our study of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, we can begin to see that each of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit is dependent on the others and that they build on one another. There is a harmony in the Gifts of the Holy Spirit as they draw us closer to God and His Will for our lives.

Next week, we will explore the Gift of the Holy Spirit most closely related to Counsel, and that is the Gift of Fortitude.
Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Next weekend (July 13th and 14th), our diocese will have a second collection for Catholic Relief Services (CRS). Since 1943, the international humanitarian aid agency of the United States Catholic Church has provided much needed assistance and support to those most in need. Thanks to your generosity, Catholic Relief Services has reached more than 130 million people in more than 100 countries on five continents.

CRS, responding to the Gospel of Jesus Christ, seeks to ease suffering, provide development assistance and foster charity and justice. Through the global Catholic Church, CRS is afforded access to remote locations where no other organizations serve, yet where some of the world’s most vulnerable populations live.

This agency helps those within our United States and beyond. CRS seeks to meet the immediate needs for food, water and shelter before transitioning to rebuilding and reconstruction, supporting the survivors of natural disasters and chronic emergencies in reclaiming their lives. Within the U.S., CRS carries out the social mission of the Church with 8.5 million Catholics in 14,337 parishes, dioceses and schools.

Thank you for all that you have done and continue to do to be the face of Christ for so many of our brothers and sisters around the world. Through your financial gifts, as well as your prayerful remembrance, we join as one family of faith in making the Gospel of Jesus Christ known around the world.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

Challenge question: When I see the plight of peoples around the world and within my own country, am I moved to a level of compassion that leads me to want to learn more about their plight? What does Pope St. John Paul II mean by "committing oneself to the common good"?

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
