The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God’s law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be intimate with each of us.

God’s passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke’s Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God’s intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.

A Column by Fr. Tom

Gifts of the Holy Spirit – Part 5: Fortitude – Here We Go Again

First, let us return to the basic description of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. When we introduced the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, we quoted the Catechism of the Catholic Church, which says, “[The Gifts of the Holy Spirit] complete and perfect the virtues of those who receive them.” [CCC, 1831] In other words, the Gift of Fortitude completes and perfects the Virtue of Fortitude. Elsewhere in the Catechism, we are told, “Human virtues acquired by education, by deliberate acts and by a perseverance ever-renewed in repeated efforts are purified and elevated by divine grace.” [CCC, 1810] Therefore, the Gift of Fortitude is that grace of God that elevates whatever Fortitude we might achieve of our own merit.

In a previous column, we cited where the Catechism states that “[The Gifts of the Holy Spirit] belong in their fullness to Christ, Son of David.” [CCC, 1831] Using this reality, let us examine the Agony in the Garden of Gethsemane as an example of the difference between the Virtue of Fortitude and the Gift of Fortitude. Any reasonable person would say that Jesus had the Virtue of Fortitude. He was known to persevere through the hardships of His life and did what is right despite the consequences. When He was struggling in the Garden of Gethsemane, His Fortitude was being tested, but because of the Gift of Fortitude (in conjunction with the Gift of Knowledge), He was able to know and accept the Father’s will, and He was both willing and able to endure His Passion to win our salvation.

While it’s true that we are not Jesus, the same interplay of Virtues and Gifts can happen within us. The Catechism states it this way, “It is not easy for [humanity], wounded by sin, to maintain moral balance. Christ’s gift of salvation offers us the grace necessary to persevere in the pursuit of the virtues.” [CCC, 1811] Christ’s gift to us is the Holy Spirit and the corresponding Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

In our last column, we stated that Fortitude is related to Counsel, and we have stated previously that all of the Gifts spring from Wisdom. In the last column, we related Wisdom and Counsel: “If Wisdom helps us to seek God and to draw closer to Him, Counsel helps us to choose between right and wrong, based on what will draw us closer to God.” [Looking Through Stained Glass, “Gifts of the Holy Spirit – Part 4: Counsel – The Best Counsel Comes from God”, July 7, 2019] Now, we can understand that Fortitude is the Gift of the Holy Spirit that gives us the courage and perseverance to choose what is right despite the consequences of that decision.

In the next two weeks, we will move to the final Gifts of the Holy Spirit – Piety and Fear of the Lord – which perfect the Virtues of Faith and Hope.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL

Are you enjoying this Catholic Social Teaching Corner?

If so, please join us on Tuesday evenings in the St. Joseph Hall from 7-8pm beginning on July 23rd, for a 6-week summer educational series called, "CST 101". It's the first series in our parish's commitment to Social Justice Education under the title: "The Common Good: An examination of Church teachings and tradition in creating a just society."

"CST 101" will explore the foundational principles of Catholic Social Teaching through short, engaging videos and group discussions facilitated by Deacon Frank Bandy and parishioner Mary Castronuovo, MPS.

Please sign-up by calling the Parish Office or at the Welcome Desk in the church vestibule.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
