A jar of honey lasts practically forever. The oldest jar of honey ever discovered was over five thousand years old. Honey is quite different from market-fresh produce, then; because most fruits and vegetables last only a few days, we treat them carefully. At this time of summer, we rush to find recipes for cherries and cucumbers so we won’t waste a single one. We wouldn’t feel that same urgency about honey.

In our own way, we are as delightful and fragile as ripe produce. Today’s readings urge us not to spoil, but to make good use of our limited time on earth. Ecclesiastes reminds us that because God provides for us now and always, we can manage our daily affairs without anxiety. Saint Paul encourages the Colossians to keep thoughts of heaven in everything they do, and Jesus himself asks us to treasure not earthly wealth, but God alone. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Fruits of the Holy Spirit – Shop at God’s Green Market

“For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: immorality, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, hatreds, rivalry, jealousies, outbursts of fury, acts of selfishness, dissensions, factions, occasions of envy, drinking bouts, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. In contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.” [Gal. 5:17, 19-23a]

From the above quote from Paul’s Letter to the Galatians, we can see that the Fruits of the Holy Spirit are the manifestations of the Spirit in our lives. (To this list, the Catholic Church adds the Fruits of Goodness, Modesty and Chastity. [cf. CCC, 1832]) When we stay connected to the Holy Spirit, our lives are filled with these virtues. When we compare this list of Fruits of the Holy Spirit to the “works of the flesh,” we can see that without the Holy Spirit’s influence in our lives, we may experience more sinful actions – the kinds of things that divide us instead of those that unite us. More strikingly, Paul says above that “those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.”

In His Sermon on the Mount, Jesus also speaks of fruit when He says, “Just so, every good tree bears good fruit, and a rotten tree bears bad fruit. A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a rotten tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire. So by their fruits you will know them.” [MT 7:17-20] Jesus was speaking of “false prophets” in this passage, but it makes us ask ourselves, “To whom are we listening?” If we are listening to the voices of this world, the fruits of their “wisdom” are the “works of the flesh” that Paul lists above. We can certainly see many of these “works” evident in our current society, such as immorality, fury, hatred, factions and selfishness.

If, however, we listen to and follow the promptings of the Holy Spirit instead, we are promised the virtues that we call the Fruits of the Holy Spirit. The Catechism tells us that “the fruits of the Spirit are perfections that the Holy Spirit forms in us as the first fruits of eternal glory.” [CCC, 1832] From this statement, we know that the Spirit is trying to lead us to life with God in Heaven and to help us experience the benefits of that life here on earth.

Next week, we will take a short departure from our usual Catechetical studies for a special column.
Please join us as we embark on a Spiritual Pilgrimage to the Shrines of Italy Hosted by Fr. Tom. Even if you have been to Italy before, you will experience a new spiritual journey!

Care For God’s Creation

“On this earth there is room for everyone: here the entire human family must find the resources to live with dignity, through the help of nature itself—God’s gift to his children—and through hard work and creativity. At the same time we must recognize our grave duty to hand the earth on to future generations in such a condition that they too can worthily inhabit it and continue to cultivate it.”

Challenge Question: How is the call to care for God’s creation connected with our concern for the life and dignity of every person—both at home and around the world, now and in future generations?

Do you want to learn more about the Mass — the source and summit of our faith?

Fr. Tom will be facilitating a new study, called A Biblical Walk Through the Mass. This study will feature videos from Dr. Edward Sri, who will explore the roots of the words and gestures we experience at Mass and will explain the rich meanings behind why we say what we say and do during the Liturgy. In this study, you will come to know and understand the Mass as never before, leading you to a richer, more fruitful worship experience.

St. Paul of the Cross will be hosting A Biblical Walk Through the Mass in the Ave Maria Banquet Hall beginning August 21 at 7 PM and continuing for five (5) Wednesdays. For more information or to register for the study, sign up at the Welcome Table, call the Parish Office, or send us an email: office@paulcross.org.

St. Mary Church in Pahokee, composed of primarily migrant families, needs our help! Because of your generosity in previous years Fr. Raul Cardenas, the Pastor, is asking again for any donations that will help them to raise funds for the Catechism Ministry.

More than 270 young people participate in the Religious Education program; 75 adolescents in the Youth ministry and 194 children in the catechism classes. Their need is for a part time salary for the catechism director and her assistant along with books and supplies.

What a blessing to be able to help a sister parish in our own Palm Beach Diocese! The second collection for the weekend of August 17 & 18, will benefit St. Mary’s Religious Education Program. You may also drop off your contribution at the parish office.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:
On August 10 and 11, our Diocese will have a special collection to benefit the Church in Africa and Latin America.

Despite many challenges in Africa, including poverty, disease, food shortages, and lack of resources to meet many pastoral needs, the Church is growing. Today’s collection to the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa will help meet the needs of those facing these challenges and build lasting foundations of faith, peace and reconciliation.

For many living in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, rural terrain and a shortage of ministers make it difficult for people to practice the faith. Your donation to this collection will help fund catechesis, marriage and family life programs, and seminarian and religious formation so people can grow closer to Jesus Christ.

Because of your generosity, our brothers and sisters in Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean will have the opportunity to grow in faith and answer the call of God. Through your financial gifts, as well as your prayerful remembrance, we join as one family of faith in making the Gospel of Jesus Christ known around the world.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am
Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach
CELEBRATE WITH US
THE OPENING OF OUR 50th ANNIVERSARY
YEAR AT ALL MASSES ON SUNDAY, AUGUST 10th & 11th.
Join us for receptions in St. Joseph Hall after all weekend Masses.

Our first Mass began with a Passionist priest, Fr. Charles Sullivan, as Pastor. It was celebrated in the Juno Beach Fire Hall with 35 people in attendance, on property where the Benjamin School basketball court is now located. Masses continued to be celebrated there and at various times at the Village Funeral Home, Juno Beach Methodist Church, and Christopher’s Bar when the Fire Hall wasn’t available. On August 11, 1973, Saturday evening Masses were moved to Faith Lutheran Church in North Palm Beach, the beginning of a long relationship with that faith community. This cross of Christ the King which hangs in St. Joseph Hall was a gift from Faith Lutheran many years ago.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all.

This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
