THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

Today’s readings invite us into prayer, into relationship with God. Because relationships feel more natural when we know one another well, Sirach encourages us to know God better. In his wisdom, Sirach tells us what God is like: fair, open-minded, compassionate, and attentive. “The Lord will not delay,” he says. Knowing that God’s help comes right on time, whenever we need it, calms our hearts and helps us trust the Lord. In his second Letter to Timothy, Saint Paul demonstrates his own trust in God. Despite the grueling struggles Saint Paul has faced because of his Christian faith, he praises the Lord for rescuing him time and again. Today’s Gospel draws us close to Jesus too, revealing his special love for the poor and humble. As Jesus tells his parable about the prayer habits of a Pharisee and a tax collector, our hearts long to become as gentle as Christ’s.

Readings for the Week

Monday: Eph 2:19-22; Ps 19:2-5; Lk 6:12-16
Tuesday: Rom 8:18-25; Ps 126:1b-6; Lk 13:18-21
Wednesday: Rom 8:26-30; Ps 13:4-6; Lk 13:22-30
Thursday: Rom 8:31b-39; Ps 109:21-22, 26-27, 30-31; Lk 13:31-35
Friday: Rv 7:2-4, 9-14; Ps 24:1-6; 1 Jn 3:1-3; Mt 5:1-12a
Saturday: Wis 3:1-9; Ps 23:1-6; Rom 5:5-11 or 6:3-9; Jn 6:37-40, or any readings from no. 668 or from the Masses for the Dead, nos. 1011-1016

To prepare for the Readings of Nov. 2/3

First Reading — Lord, you love all things that exist (Wisdom 11:22 — 12:2).
Psalm — I will praise you name for ever, my king and my God (Psalm 145).
Second Reading — May the name of Christ be glorified in you and you in him (2 Thessalonians 1:11 — 2:2).
Gospel — Today salvation has come to the tax collector Zacchaeus’ house (Luke 19:1-10).
The Ascension

If you were not aware that the majority of the Nicene Creed elucidates the mysteries of Jesus the Son of God, hopefully you have been coming to that realization in the last few weeks. In recent columns, we have discussed the consubstantiality of the Son of God, His extra-temporality (the Son of God has always existed, even before time), His Incarnation, His Passion and Death, and His Resurrection. In our next two columns, we will explore His Ascension and His Return.

This week, we will explore the next two lines of our Creed: “He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.” These lines echo the end of Mark’s Gospel where he writes, “So then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God.” [MK 16:19]

After Jesus’ Resurrection, He did not immediately ascend into Heaven. He spent some time with His disciples. In fact, Luke tells us that He spent forty days with His disciples teaching them. One might think of this time as a final, capstone class on the true Kingdom of God. Once the disciples had seen the full reality of the mystery of Jesus’ Death and Resurrection, they were ready to learn the rest of what they needed to spread the Kingdom to the “ends of the earth.” “[Jesus] presented himself alive to them by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. [...He told them,] ‘But you will receive power when the holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.’” [Acts 1:3,8] Just prior to His Ascension, Jesus commissions His disciples to carry on His mission. “[Jesus] said to them, ‘Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature.’” [MK 16:15] Once that commission has made, Jesus has completed the work that He was given by the Father. Therefore, once Jesus ascended into Heaven, He was “seated at the right hand of the Father.” Only one whose work is complete can be seated.

However, the phrase “at the right hand of the Father” contains another significance – Jesus’ fulfillment of Daniel’s Messianic prophecy. According to the Catechism, “Being seated at the Father's right hand signifies the inauguration of the Messiah's kingdom, the fulfillment of the prophet Daniel's vision concerning the Son of man: 'To him was given dominion and glory and kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed.'” [CCC 664; cf. DN 7:14]

It is from this position “at the right of the Father” that Jesus also fulfills His role as our True High Priest. Through his Ascension and His current position in Heaven, He is best able to intercede for us with the Father. As one who is both God and man, He is the perfect mediator between the two. From His seat at the right hand of the Father in Heaven, “Christ permanently exercises his priesthood, for he ‘always lives to make intercession’ for ‘those who draw near to God through him.’ As ‘high priest of the good things to come’ he is the centre and the principal actor of the liturgy that honours the Father in heaven.” [CCC 662]

In our next column, we will explore Jesus’ Return at the end of time.

Christ Our Hope: In Every Season of Life

“The Lord is a God of justice, who knows no favorites. Though not unduly partial toward the weak, yet he hears the cry of the oppressed. The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint. The one who serves God willingly is heard; his petition reaches the heavens. The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest till it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds, judges justly and affirms the right, and the Lord will not delay.” Sir 35:12-14, 16-18

MUSIC MINISTRY CELEBRATION CONCERT

“YESTERDAY, TODAY AND TOMORROW!”

November 22  7 PM  Concert in the Church

Memorial for St. Cecilia
January 30, 1988

To the People of God at St. Paul of the Cross Church, North Palm Beach, Florida

Dear Parishioners of the 21st century,
We, the clergy of St. Paul of the Cross Church of the 20th century write to you even though you may never actually see this letter. It is being sealed in the cornerstone of the Parish Center building as a memorial to God. It is a sign of our love for Him and all His people near and far, especially His neediest living now and of the generations to come.

We pray that the beautiful familial welcoming spirit of this parish – no one less than the Holy Spirit of God Himself – will continue to motivate, energize and guide all who commit themselves by prayer and ministry to be parishioners of this noble parish family.

May the Holy Spirit of God who has so generously blessed us, the first parishioners of this local Church, bless you too with an abundance of His love, joy and peace. In that way, you, too, in your turn will be able to pass on to many others, the numberless invaluable gifts that we have all received from Our Divine Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

"May the Lord bless you and keep you; May the Lord let His face shine upon and be gracious to you; May the Lord show you His kindness and give you His peace."

Sincerely in Christ,

Alexis Paul, cp

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
