DONATIONS ACCEPTED, VOLUNTEERS WELCOME!!
Our readings today ponder two powerful truths: God is infinitely greater than we are; and God provides every kind of help so we can discover and share in God’s glory. The reading from Wisdom reminds us that we are tiny compared to “the Lord of the whole universe.” Nevertheless, God preserves and nurtures us out of perfect love. If we feel tiny, weak, and sinful compared to God, we are blessed! God’s greatness sustains and strengthens us. Saint Paul encourages the Thessalonian Christians with the same message. He reminds them that God alone makes the Church holy. He prays that everything they undertake will be for the glory of God. Luke’s Gospel shows us what this looks like in real life: Zacchaeus, feeling small and excluded, looks for Jesus. Jesus finds him and gives him the strength he needs to repent of his sins and glorify God.
Christ Has Died, Christ is Risen, Christ Will Come Again

So far, we have explored Christ’s earthly life and ministry, as well as His Passion, Death, Resurrection and His Ascension. In our last column, we discovered that the Ascension of Jesus was the “inauguration of the Messiah’s kingdom.” [CCC 664] In this column, we will examine how His Kingdom is never ending. We will also discuss Jesus’ Return.

The two lines of the Creed that pertain to this week’s column are as follows: “He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His Kingdom will have no end.” What does it mean that Jesus will come again in glory and that His Kingdom will have no end?

Jesus has already been glorified in His Death, Resurrection and especially in His Ascension, as we discussed in our last column. His Kingdom gives Him His glory; however, the glorification of Jesus is not complete until all things are subject to Him. In Paul’s First Letter to the Corinthians, he expresses how Jesus’ Kingdom will grow: “For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ the first fruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death, for ‘he subjected everything under his feet.’” [1 Cor 15:22-27a]

From the above quote, we can see that Jesus’ Kingdom continues until all things are subject to Him; however, we can also see that it will take time. We are currently in the middle of this process, and will be, until Jesus’ return. The Catechism states: “According to the Lord, the present time is the time of the Spirit and of witness, but also a time still marked by ‘distress’ and the trial of evil which does not spare the Church and ushers in the struggles of the last days. It is a time of waiting and watching.” [CCC 672] Despite the “distress and the trial of evil,” we still have hope because the result of this trial is the glory of Jesus and the fulfillment of His Kingdom.

According to our Catholic faith, we believe that this time of trial will continue until the final judgement of the living and the dead. The Catechism reminds us that “God’s triumph over the revolt of evil will take the form of the Last Judgement after the final cosmic upheaval of this passing world.” [CCC 677] As mentioned in the quote from our Creed above, that judgement will be reserved for Jesus. “Christ is Lord of eternal life. Full right to pass definitive judgement on the works and hearts of men belongs to him as redeemer of the world. He ‘acquired’ this right by his cross. The Father has given ‘all judgement to the Son.’ Yet the Son did not come to judge, but to save and to give the life he has in himself.” [CCC 679] Jesus is the reason for our hope, because His aim is to save everyone, if we will only accept His saving wish for us – life in Him!

Until that final judgement, Jesus will remain with us through His Spirit, and it is that reality that we will explore in our next column.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) is the national anti-poverty program sponsored by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). The CCHD strives to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ “to bring good news to the poor ... release to captives ... sight to the blind and let the oppressed go free.” (Luke 4:18). Next weekend, the Diocese of Palm Beach will participate in a special collection to provide financial assistance for these worthwhile programs.

The CCHD attempts to address the poverty at its root by empowering individuals and families and giving them the tools necessary to make effective changes in their lives, their families and their communities. Working on the margins, CCHD defends human life and dignity every day, in countless ways, across our nation.

As Pope Francis said in his address to Jesuit Refugee Services, “Charity that leaves the poor person as he is, is not sufficient. True mercy, the mercy God gives to us and teaches us, demands justice, it demands that the poor find the way to be poor no longer” (Sept. 10, 2013).

Your spiritual and financial support of the CCHD is an act of solidarity with our brothers and sisters in need. May God bless you with every grace and peace and may our Blessed Mother always intercede for you.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

Next Breakfast on Sunday, November 17th after the 9 AM and 10:45 AM Masses.

As we head into an election year, our US Bishops continue to challenge us to dig deeper into the many issues that impact the dignity of human life, for our reflection in developing our conscience as voters.

“How protecting human life begins with our opposition to abortion and euthanasia, which are pre-eminent threats to human life and dignity, and extends to our opposition to cloning, assisted suicide, and the death penalty, and our efforts to pursue peace.”

Family Promise... a ministry for Me?
On November 1, 2003, the Dedication of All Saints Catholic School in Jupiter took place. The school continues to be under the auspices of the pastors of six local parishes: St. Paul of the Cross, St. Christopher, St. Jude, St. Patrick, St. Peter, and the Cathedral of Ignatius Loyola. The school serves Pre-K4 through Eighth Grades.

Mark your calendar for these events taking place during our 50th Anniversary year:

Nov. 22—Concert in Church
Dec. 6—Ministries Dinner
Jan. 25, 2020—Neapolitan Knight
Feb. 22—5pm Mass & Celebration
March 28/29—Ministries Fair
Golf Tournament—TBA
June 6—Renewal of Vows

We are creating a Memory Book to commemorate our 50th Anniversary. It will be filled with photographs and memories of the past fifty years of our parish. The memory book will be distributed to those who attend our Anniversary Gala on February 22, 2020, as well as to everyone who places an advertisement, best wishes, or memorial in the book. If you wish to participate in this Memory Book, please find a form at the Welcome Desk or in The Parish Office. If you have any questions, please contact The Parish Office.
Whether or not we are present at Church, we remain one in the Lord. Please keep the following members of our parish family in your prayers: Trina Bratten, Sr. Maria Gabrielle, Patrice & Frank Dingliano, John Ginobarti, Mike Graham, Carol Heck, Jerry March, Maria Reuppke, Jennifer Rodrigues, and Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do You will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen.
