Today’s readings take a fearless look at reality and reach a conclusion that we all know: life is hard. The prophet Malachi preaches fire and brimstone, warning us that evildoers will perish in flames. Saint Paul offers his own warning to the Thessalonians: keep busy, but never become a busybody. He reminds Christians that the apostles themselves worked in “toil and drudgery” as a model for how we ought to contribute to our community. The Gospel returns to the apocalyptic tone of Malachi, describing the utter chaos of the end-times. We will know the end is near when violence, catastrophe, and hatred dominate the earth. But we must not fear! God’s saving plan brings peace to our hearts. Malachi speaks of the sun’s “healing rays,” and Jesus himself promises to protect every hair on our heads.

How Do We Know The Church?
By Its Marks.

After learning about the Trinity, it is logical that we should turn our attention next to the Church that was founded by the Trinitarian God. The Church that the Father intended when sending His Son into the world, that Jesus developed during His ministry, that He instituted through His Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection, that He commissioned as He Ascended, and that bloomed through the Holy Spirit at Pentecost is the Church that we have today. This is the Church that today we profess in our Creed as “one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.” These four adjectives are traditionally known as the four “marks” of the Church. Let’s take a look at these four marks of the Church.

What does it mean that the Church is one? Just as the Trinity is One, the Church is one because it is the Church that God established. The Catechism states this reality, “The Church is one because of her source: ‘the highest exemplar and source of this mystery is the unity, in the Trinity of Persons, of one God, the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit.’” [CCC, 813] The Church is also one because the Church is the Body of Christ. The Church, the Body of Christ, is united under her one Head, Jesus Christ.

In much the same way that the Church finds her unity in God, she also finds her holiness in God. “United with Christ, the Church is sanctified by him; through him and with him she becomes sanctifying. ‘All the activities of the Church are directed, as toward their end, to the sanctification of men in Christ and the glorification of God.’ It is in the Church that ‘the fullness of the means of salvation’ has been deposited. It is in her that ‘by the grace of God we acquire holiness.’” [CCC, 824]

It seems rather intuitive that we should call the Church “catholic,” since it is the Catholic Church, but what do we mean when we use the term “catholic” to describe the Church? “The word ‘catholic’ means ‘universal,’ in the sense of ‘according to the totality’ or ‘in keeping with the whole.’ the Church is catholic in a double sense: First, the Church is catholic because Christ is present in her. […] Secondly, the Church is catholic because she has been sent out by Christ on a mission to the whole of the human race…” [CCC, 830-831]

Finally, the Church is described as “apostolic,” because Christ handed on the Church to the Apostles in order that the Church might carry on His mission through the Apostles and their successors. According to the Catechism, “The Church is apostolic because she is founded on the apostles, in three ways: [1] she was and remains built on ‘the foundation of the Apostles,’ the witnesses chosen and sent on mission by Christ himself; [2] with the help of the Spirit dwelling in her, the Church keeps and hands on the teaching, the ‘good deposit,’ the salutary words she has heard from the apostles; [3] she continues to be taught, sanctified, and guided by the apostles until Christ’s return, through their successors in pastoral office: the college of bishops, ‘assisted by priests, in union with the successor of Peter, the Church’s supreme pastor.’” [CCC, 857]

Having examined what we believe about the Church, next week we will explore the Sacrament that incorporates us into the Church, Baptism.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL

We pray and reflect on today’s Psalm,
"The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice"
Psalm 98
"Pursuing social justice requires working for a more just economic life with decent jobs and just wages, providing adequate assistance to poor families, overcoming a culture of violence, combating discrimination, and defending the right to quality health care, housing, and food.” "The Challenge of Faithful Citizenship” www.usccb.org

Challenge Question: Catholics who adhere to the full spectrum of Catholic Teaching, often find no real home in our two party political system. Why is forming my conscience for Faithful Citizenship so important?

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Since 1954, Veterans Day has been observed in our country on November 11th to honor those men and women who have served the nation in the military services. We are blessed in the Diocese of Palm Beach by the presence of so many veterans among the faithful in our diocesan family and we are grateful to them for their selfless act of service to the nation, to our brothers and sisters and for the ideals we hold so dear.

To better assist the needs of the Catholic faithful in our military services, the Archdiocese of the Military Services (AMS) was formed in 1986 by Pope Saint John Paul II and is responsible for the pastoral care of all uniformed personnel stationed on military bases, both domestically and abroad, and all those serving in embassies, consulates and diplomatic missions.

The AMS provides the sacraments, faith formation and other ministries to the more than 1.5 million Catholics currently serving in the armed forces, their families, those studying at the military academies and those cared for at Veterans Administration Medical Centers around the country. To assist the ministry of the AMS, a special collection is taken every three years to help with ministry costs and will be taken this weekend, November 16th and 17th.

Your financial contribution to the AMS helps the Church to continue the great work of evangelization and pastoral formation with the young men and women who generously give of themselves in service to our nation. Thank you for your spiritual and financial generosity.

With gratitude for your generosity and every prayerful wish, I am
Sincerely yours in Christ, Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito  Bishop of Palm Beach

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do You will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
