OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE OF KINGS AND KINGSHIP

Americans have an uncomfortable relationship with kings. The American Revolution was fought for independence from King George, after all. Nonetheless, today every Catholic church around the world celebrates the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Today’s feast invites us to look beyond our national loyalties and rejoice in our primary identity. We are children of God in Jesus, Christ the King. Our readings help us consider what it’s like to belong to God’s kingdom. The book of Samuel captures the deep longing of the Israelites for a king to shepherd them. Saint Paul reminds the Colossians that we belong to the kingdom of Christ, whose power he praises in a beautiful hymn. Finally, Luke’s Gospel calls to mind the kind of king Jesus chooses to be—a suffering servant, a man for others. By sacrificing his life for us, Jesus throws open the gates of Paradise.

Through One Baptism, We Become Church

In our last column, we explored the four marks of the Church. We believe that the Church is one, holy, catholic, and apostolic. Now, we turn our attention to the Sacrament that incorporates us into that one Church – Baptism. In fact, what we believe about the Church, we also believe about ourselves, and it is the Sacrament of Baptism that helps to make us one, holy, Catholic, and apostolic.

We have discussed the Sacrament of Baptism in detail in a previous column, during our exposition of each of the sacraments. [cf. Looking Through Stained Glass, “I Baptize You Priest, Prophet and King”, July 22, 2018] In that column, we spoke of the three effects of Baptism by quoting from the Catechism: “Through Baptism we are freed from sin and reborn as [children] of God; we become members of Christ, are incorporated into the Church and made sharers in her mission…” [CCC 1213] From this quote, we realize that Baptism “washes away our sin; incorporates us into the Body of Christ, the Church; and makes us sharers in the mission of Christ.” [Stained Glass, July 22, 2018] These effects can help us realize how Baptism makes us one, holy, Catholic, and apostolic.

Baptism incorporates us into the one Body of Christ. Baptism is singular in a number of ways. Baptism cannot be repeated; we are only baptized once. [cf. CCC 1246] Also, there is only one Baptism; all those who were baptized using the Trinitarian formula given by Christ [cf. MT 28:19] have the fullness of the Sacrament, and are incorporated into the one Body of Christ, the Church.

Since Baptism is done in “the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit,” it incorporates us into the Trinity, as well as the Church. This incorporation into the life of the Trinity is what makes us holy. However, in order to be holy, we must be cleansed of all sin. In the Creed, we say that we “confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins” for exactly this reason. We learned in the previous column on Baptism, that one of its effects is to “[wash] away our sin.” Baptism cleanses the individual of both original sin and all personal sin. According to the Catechism, “When we made our first profession of faith while receiving the holy Baptism that cleansed us, the forgiveness we received then was so full and complete that there remained in us absolutely nothing left to efface, neither original sin nor offenses committed by our own will, nor was there left any penalty to suffer in order to expiate them....” [CCC 978] At that moment, we are holy, and God calls us through our Baptism to remain holy.

As we learned in our last column, the Church is catholic “because Christ is present in her” [CCC 830] and “because she has been sent out by Christ on a mission to the whole of the human race.” [CCC 831] If Baptism incorporates us into the Church, then we too are catholic in the same two senses. Also, as we learned in that previous column on Baptism quoted above, Baptism “makes us sharers in the mission of Christ.” When we receive the mission of Christ in Baptism, we too can be called apostolic, as is the Church, by following the Tradition and mission that Christ gave to us through the Apostles.

Our final column on the Creed will examine our beliefs in both “the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.”

CATHOLIC SOCIAL

Continuing our exploration of the USCCB Document, "The Challenge of Faithful Citizenship" as we head into an election year, we prayerfully reflect on this quote:

"Practicing global solidarity addresses overcoming hunger and global poverty, reducing debt and promoting development, responding to the needs of immigrants and refugees, pursuing peace, and reducing regional conflicts in the Middle East, Africa and other parts of the world.” "The Challenge of Faithful Citizenship" www.usccb.org

Challenge Question: Am I committed to forming my conscience on all the issues I am called to consider, as we head into an election year?

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
