SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT
THE LONG-AWAITED ONE

As the Sundays of Advent unfold the scriptures shift focus from the final coming of the Lord to his historical birth. Today’s scriptures blend the two. Isaiah’s disillusionment with the kings of his own day led him to envision an ideal king who would rule with divine approval and be led by divine wisdom. For centuries the Jewish people anticipated the arrival of that Messiah, who would usher in a blessed age when the whole world would finally dwell in justice and peace.

After centuries of such growing expectation, the preaching of John the Baptist about the imminent arrival of the Messiah could not help but provoke intense interest. The Baptist’s message about preparation for “the one who is coming” (Matthew 3:11) makes clear that Jesus is, in fact, the long-awaited one who is ushering in the new age foretold by Isaiah and all the prophets.

To prepare for the Readings of Dec. 14/15

First Reading — The barren deserts will rejoice and flower (Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10).
Psalm — Lord, come and save us (Psalm 146).
Second Reading — Be patient, for the coming of the Lord is as sure as the rain (James 5:7-10).
Gospel — Tell of what you hear and see: The blind regain their vision, the crippled their movement, the deaf their hearing (Matthew 11:2-11).
Prepare Ye the Way of the Lord!

As we enter this Advent season, we enter a season of hopeful expectation for the coming of the Lord. As we look forward to Christmas during this Advent season, we can let some of the key people of the season help us to prepare for Christ’s coming – at Christmas, at the end of time, and into our lives today. When we consider special Advent people, four names come to the forefront: Isaiah, John (the Baptist), Mary and Joseph. Two of these people are prophets and two are part of Jesus’ family. Therefore, let’s take the next two columns to allow each of these groups – prophets and family – to guide us on our Advent journey. In this column, we will focus on the prophets Isaiah and John, and our next column will be about Joseph and Mary.

Isaiah was one of the major prophets of the Jewish faith, along with Jeremiah and Ezekiel (some include Daniel in this list too). John is considered by many scholars as the last of the Old Testament prophets, even though he appears in the Gospels of the New Testament. Both men looked forward to the Messiah’s coming – Isaiah from 700 years before Jesus, and John during the lifetime of Jesus. Both prophets tell us about the Messiah, including what kind of man he will be and what he will bring to the world.

During the four Sundays of Advent, each of the first readings at Mass comes from Isaiah. Through these readings, we learn that the Messiah will teach all nations [First Sunday (IS 2:3a)], he will be a king of peace [First Sunday (IS 2:4c)], he will be a king for all nations in the line of David [Second Sunday (IS 11:1, 10)], and that there will be joy when the Messiah arrives [Third Sunday (IS 35:10)]. Finally, in the fourth week of Advent, the reading from Isaiah prophesies that the Messiah will be born of a virgin. “Therefore the Lord himself will give you this sign: the virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall name him Emmanuel.” [IS 7:14]

In order for the world to get ready to receive the Messiah described above by Isaiah, John the Baptist came and preached about repentance. The ministries of Isaiah and John are tied closely together. In fact, when John’s ministry begins, he is introduced with a quote from Isaiah in Matthew’s Gospel: “It was of him that the prophet Isaiah had spoken when he said: A voice of one crying out in the desert, ‘Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths.’” [MT 3:3, quoting IS 40:3] This quote comes from the Gospel for the Second Sunday of Advent. In the Third Sunday of Advent, Jesus recognizes John as a prophet, when He applies the words of the prophet Malachi to John, “Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way before you.” [Mal 3:1, as quoted in MT 11:10]

Both Isaiah and John the Baptist were looking forward to the coming of the Messiah. They also tried to prepare the world for the coming of the Messiah. As we listen to the readings for Advent, may Isaiah’s and John’s words touch our hearts and help us to prepare for Christ’s coming, not only at Christmas, but into our lives and into our hearts this Advent season.

This Week in 2004

Our beautiful statue of Mary was purchased by Father Art as the centerpiece of our Advent wreath when he was on retreat at the Bethlehem Hermitage in New Jersey. The Hermit Desert Father there ordered her from the Monastic Sisters in France who made the statue from pulverized mountain stone. The unique characteristic of this image of Our Lady is that she is pregnant and awaiting the birth of her Son and she helps us wait in expectant hope for His rebirth in us.

Tickets for our 50th Anniversary Golden Gala are available in the Parish Office.
Like the three wise men who went bearing gifts to the Infant Jesus, please consider joining our parish community in bearing the light of Christ this Christmas through our

Un-trim the Tree Parish Advent Program

We will be distributing about 84 presents to the children at Holy Cross Catholic Preschool; 50 gifts to elderly residents at St. James government-subsidized housing in West Palm Beach; 50 gifts to senior residents at Villa Regina in West Palm Beach and 50 gifts to Villa Franciscan in Riviera Beach, both of which are subsidized by Catholic Charities, 25 or so handicapped people, 78 children through a local church outreach program, 10 to DePorres Place, 25 gifts to Hands Together of the Palm Beaches and some to several families we serve directly.

The presence of our Parish ministering to those who are less fortunate throughout the year, and especially at Christmas, is truly a blessing to them, and to us.

Each parish family may participate in the following way:

1. Take one or more paper ornaments from the Advent Tree in our Sanctuary - each ornament represents an individual from the list above
2. Take a “directions” flyer, which can be found in a basket under the tree.
3. Purchase & wrap the gift and tape the SAME TAG on top.
4. Place the gift under the bare tree no later than Sunday, December 15

Your gift will be delivered during the week before Christmas.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over all our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
