THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

REASON TO REJOICE

Dark violet is used throughout Advent to express its character as a season of spiritual preparation for Christmas and “the coming of the Lord.” But on the Third Sunday of Advent, formerly known as Gaudete (Latin for “rejoice”) Sunday, rose may be added to the liturgical environment. The entire liturgy is infused with a spirit of rejoicing.

Today’s first reading and Gospel proclaim the reality of God’s saving work in our midst. Isaiah exuberantly describes the idyllic transformation of all creation as a result of God’s presence in the midst of the people. In the Gospel, Jesus connects Isaiah’s prophecy with what is happening in his own ministry. In addition to the list of healings from Isaiah (the blind, the lame, lepers, and the deaf), Jesus’ presence brings two other reasons for rejoicing: “The dead are raised, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them” (Matthew 11:5).

To prepare for the Readings of Dec. 21/22

First Reading — You will be given this sign: The virgin shall conceive and bear a son (Isaiah 7:10-14).
Psalm — Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory (Psalm 24).
Second Reading — God has called us to belong to Jesus Christ (Romans 1:1-7).
Gospel — The son born of Mary shall be called Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins (Matthew 1:18-24).
Our Boy is Special! He’s Going to be... The Messiah!

Last week, we explored how the prophets Isaiah and John the Baptist anticipated the Messiah and helped the world to prepare for His coming. However, there were two special people who looked forward to Jesus’ coming in a unique way – His Family, Mary and Joseph. In this column, we will explore the readings of Advent to see how Mary and Joseph can help us prepare for Jesus’ coming.

Perhaps the best way for us to examine the ways that Mary and Joseph look forward to Jesus’ coming is to look at the Annunciations of Jesus’ birth to Mary and Joseph. In Luke’s Gospel, he relays the Annunciation to Mary. The angel Gabriel comes to Mary to tell her how she will become the mother of Jesus, and will be known as the Mother of God. “Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father, and he will rule over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end. […] The holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God.” [LK 1:31-33, 35] When Mary heard the words of the angel, she must have been amazed and maybe a little worried, after all she was an unmarried virgin. However, Mary trusted in God – not only that He would do what He said, but also that He would make it alright.

In the Annunciation to Joseph, found in Matthew’s Gospel, we begin to see how God intends to “make it alright.” An angel comes to visit Joseph in a dream to announce the birth of Jesus. “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.” [MT 1:20-21] Not only does the angel repeat a similar message to Joseph, but the angel puts Joseph in charge of Mary and her expectant child Jesus. In putting them into Joseph’s charge, God was helping to “make it alright.” Joseph too must have been amazed and a little bit worried, but the message of the angel came as reassurance that he and Mary were doing the right thing. Joseph trusted in God’s message. Joseph loved Mary and he would learn to love the child that they were about to welcome.

So what lessons can we learn from Joseph and Mary that will help us this Advent. We know from these Annunciations that God has a plan. We know also that we can trust in that plan, even if it seems overwhelming. There may be some hard times, but God is always there with us. We also can learn that God intends for us to journey along His plan together with others. He will always put people in our lives that will help us. Trust in God and His plan for your life, and love one another. These are just two of the Advent lessons that we can learn from Mary and Joseph.

Fourth Sunday of Advent December 22nd
Advent Wreath Prayer
The fourth candle reminds us of the star that guided the Magi to the stable where Jesus lay. Read Matthew 2:1-12
As you light the fourth candle, pray...
Dear God, we thank you for sharing Jesus with all the world. Please help us to care about and befriend those who might be different from ourselves. Help us, too, to remember that the gifts we share with each other at Christmas are reminders of the gift that Jesus is to us. Amen.

Family Advent Activity Make a list of people at home, school, and church who do essential tasks behind the scenes. Put the list in the center of your advent wreath and light the candles in a prayer of tribute to them.
Then make a donation to a food bank, toy drive or a giving tree collection in their honor.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
