After Jesus was baptized, he came up from the water and behold, the heavens were opened for him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming upon him.

This Sunday’s celebration of the Baptism of the Lord closes the Christmas season. In the scriptures we see one more epiphany, or manifestation, of the Spirit of God in Jesus—but this time it is as an adult, rather than as a child. Jesus’ baptism also serves as the inauguration of his prophetic mission and the messianic age.

Today’s reading from Isaiah describes God’s chosen Messiah, upon whom God’s spirit rests. In the Acts of the Apostles Peter says that “God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power” (Acts 10:38). Finally, in the proclamation from Matthew’s Gospel Jesus’ baptism in water goes almost unnoticed. The crucial moment comes when the Spirit of God comes upon Jesus and a voice from heaven echoes the words of Isaiah: “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased” (Matthew 3:17).

BABY ITEMS NEEDED FOR “THE CHRIST CHILD SOCIETY CRIB DRIVE”

On the anniversary of Roe vs. Wade on January 22nd, we want to make a positive contribution to unmarried, pregnant women, so that we might support them as they prepare for motherhood. In our church, this weekend, January 11-12 and next, Jan. 18-19 you will find a portable crib in which to place the following items needed for layettes: NEW or hand-knitted blankets, NEWBORN size sweaters, NEWBORN caps and booties, NEWBORN onesies, undershirts, hooded towels, receiving blankets, NEWBORN or size 1 disposable diapers and Ivory soap bars. Local members of The Christ Child Society, a national volunteer organization, will make and distribute the layettes to needy mothers. The layette consists of NEW and handmade clothes, diapers and accessories needed by the newborn. Anyone interested in joining the local chapter of The Christ Child Society should call Anne Kroha at 561-694-2697.

St. Paul of the Cross is having another movie night with pizza and refreshments. The movie is ‘Unplanned’.

Unplanned is the inspiring true story of one woman’s journey of transformation. Abby Johnson was one of the youngest Planned Parenthood clinic directors in the nation and she became one of the most ardent pro-life speakers in America. Come and see what changed her mind.

[Please be aware: Due to some graphic content, Unplanned is rated R. Some scenes may be too intense for children and sensitive viewers.]

When: After the 5:00pm Mass, Sun. Jan. 19, 2020
Where: Ave Maria Hall
Pizza and drinks will be provided.

Traffic Is Never Good, But This Traffic Is Heinous

Last week, we began this month’s series on Respect for All Human Life with a column on protecting the lives of our youngest human persons. However, if we are to call ourselves “pro-life,” then we must respect and protect all human life through all stages, from conception to natural death. The columns for the rest of the month will carry the idea of respect for all human life through the lifecycle of the human person, focusing on just a few of the pertinent topics for each stage of life. This week, we take a look at a topic that affects young people and people of working age, human trafficking.

Recently, human trafficking has finally received a great deal of media attention. According to the United Nations, human trafficking is defined as “the recruitment, transportation, harboring or receipt of persons by means of force, fraud or coercion.” [UN General Assembly, “Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons…”, §3a, 15 November 2000] The goal of human trafficking is to use the “trafficked” persons for forced labor – especially in the areas of agriculture, fishing, sweat shops, and domestic help – or for sexual exploitation – such as prostitution and pornography. According to the International Labor Organization (ILO), a great majority of “trafficked” persons are women and girls (55% of forced labor and 98% of sexual exploitation) and 26% of all victims are aged 17 and under. [ILO, 2012 Global Estimate of Forced Labor]

Human trafficking has often been referred to as “modern day slavery” and we as Catholics should work to eradicate this blight on our society. The Church has always taught that such activities, which diminish the value of any person, are objectively sinful. During Vatican II, the Church stated in Gaudium et Spes that “slavery, prostitution, the selling of women and children, [and] disgraceful working conditions where [people] are treated as mere tools for profit, rather than as free and responsible persons” are “infamies indeed.” [Vatican II, Gaudium et Spes, 27]

So, what can we do about human trafficking? First, we can ensure that we are not contributing to industries that profit from human trafficking. Last year, we saw evidence that human trafficking is active in our neighborhood. [“Hundreds arrested in South Florida, Treasure Coast massage parlor bust”, www.local10.com, 2/21/19] Also, online pornography is coming into many homes and can be viewed on tablets and phones as well. The customers of pornographic websites are keeping those sites alive…and keeping the victims of the pornographers imprisoned.

Regarding those who profit from other forced labor, perhaps we can ask ourselves, “Do I know where my produce comes from?” or “How can I be sure that the food I give to my family was produced in a way that did not denigrate others?” It is our responsibility to find out more and ensure that the people who are providing us with food are doing so with labor that is respected and valued.

What else can we do? We can do our part to ensure that our government is taking the proper oversight over industries that are prone to profiting from human trafficking. We can also work to promote new legislation that inhibits and hopefully stops all human trafficking.

To summarize what we need to do: Learn more about human trafficking, do not support those who take advantage of others, and do our part to stop this dis-respect of human lives!

CATHOLIC SOCIAL
The Baptism of the Lord
"I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice, I have grasped you by the hand; I formed you, and set you as a covenant of the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to bring out prisoners from confinement, and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness."
"Every believer is called to serve "the least of these," to "hunger and thirst for justice," to be a "peacemaker."

Challenge Question: At the beginning of this New Year, what ways can I live out my discipleship by working for peace and justice in my local community; my country; or my world?

Merciful Father, you desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
