The person who has been "saved," who has "heard the good news of salvation," still lives in an unsaved world, a world sadly oblivious to the presence of God. Today's readings outline how the disciple is present in the world.

The outline begins with Isaiah: "Share your bread . . . shelter the oppressed . . . clothe the naked" (Isaiah 58:7). Those who hear the word of salvation are not insensitive to the urgent needs of others. Then Paul reminds his flock that he brought Christ to them not in eloquence or wisdom, but by being with them in the "weakness and fear" of their daily lives (1 Corinthians 2:3). Finally, Jesus tells his disciples to go out into the gloom and darkness of the streets of the world and let God's light shine through their good deeds.

We disciples don’t save the world. To the extent, however, that we have heard the word of God and been awakened to God’s presence, we may spread that word and bring that presence to others.

Readings for the Week

Thursday:
- 1 Kgs 11:4-13; Ps 106:3-4, 35-37, 40; Mk 7:24-30

Friday:
- 1 Kgs 11:29-32; 12:19; Ps 81:10-11ab, 12-15; Mk 7:31-37

Saturday:
- 1 Kgs 12:26-32; 13:33-34; Ps 106:6-7ab, 19-22; Mk 8:1-10

To prepare for the Readings of Feb. 15/16

First Reading — God allows us to make choices, but we are not to choose injustice or sinfulness (Sirach 15:15-20).

Psalm — Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord! (Psalm 119).

Second Reading — God’s wisdom is mysterious and hidden (1 Corinthians 2:6-10).

Gospel — Jesus has come not to abolish but to fulfill the law and the prophets (Matthew 5:17-37 [20-22a, 27-28, 33-34a, 37]).
We Love God Because He First Loved Us

Last week, we introduced the Ten Commandments as our foundation of holiness, so it makes sense for us to begin our study of the Ten Commandments with those that pertain primarily to God. It also makes sense that we begin with the First Commandment: I am the LORD your God: you shall not have strange gods before me.

When we look at the First Commandment in its “traditional Catechetical formula,” as quoted above, it does indeed seem to be one of the “shall not’s” that we discussed last week. However, when we look back to the original words that were given to Moses from the Lord, we notice something more – a relationship. “I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. You shall not have other gods beside me. You shall not make for yourself an idol or a likeness of anything in the heavens above or on the earth below or in the waters beneath the earth; you shall not bow down before them or serve them. For I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God, inflicting punishment for their ancestors’ wickedness on the children of those who hate me, down to the third and fourth generation; but showing love down to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments.” [EX 20:2-6]

We must remember that the Ten Commandments are part of the Covenant that God had with His chosen people. He chose them; He saved them; He wishes to remain with them; He loves them. In this Covenant relationship, God looked out for His people. He is asking them to look for Him first too.

As we move forward to today, the First Commandment teaches us that our relationship with God should be primary in our lives. We all have relationships that we value and find important, such as relationships with a spouse, children or other family members. What God is encouraging us to do in the First Commandment is to put our relationship with God first, even before these relationships that we value and call important. Last week, we quoted Jesus’ citation of the most important commandment as “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind.” [MT 22:35] How can we love God with our whole heart, soul, and mind if He is not our first love?

Of course, God is also asking us to ensure that He is more important to us than even lesser things, such as money, power, fame, status, self-love or admiration. These are just some of the “idols” that are alluded to in the quote from Exodus above.

How can we work toward having “no other gods” before the Lord? First, we can do as the Lord asks. Interestingly, obeying the Ten Commandments is a good start in that regard. Also, we should stay connected to the Lord, especially through prayer. For sure, one of the great ways to put God first in our lives is to put Him first in our day. Many people start their day with prayer. Some will start with a traditional “Morning Offering Prayer,” such as the following: My God, I offer you my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day in union with the holy sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your Son’s Sacred Heart, for the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, and the reunion of Christians. Amen.

Obeying the First Commandment by loving God above everything and everyone else is our first step toward growing in holiness through the Ten Commandments.

DONATIONS ACCEPTED, VOLUNTEERS

The St. Vincent de Paul Society has played an important role in our parish from the beginning, quietly working behind the scenes to help people in need. In February, 1972, they conducted a clothing drive for the poor with donations brought to the rectory (then in a trailer on U.S. One). Often, a 2nd collection would be taken to aid the needy in our area. In August, 1976 in the bulletin, a “Message from the Pastor” indicated a need to increase their treasury (then at $100) to be able to help a family from the parish pay their mortgage and turn their electricity back on. This ministry continues in a big way to this day, quietly helping those in need.

Join us for these exciting events taking place during the last half of our 50th Anniversary year:
Feb. 22 - 5pm Mass & Gala Celebration (Tickets now available!!)
March 28/29 - Ministries Fair
April 25 - Golf Tournament-NPBCC
June 6 - Renewal of Wedding Vows

Your donations assist the poor in many ways. Thank you for dropping your dollar bills and loose change in the poor boxes. God bless you!

WORSHIP MESSAGE ADORATION
Thurs., Feb. 13th
Join us each month for a night of praise & worship, a dynamic message, and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.
It is held from 7-8:30 in the Church, is for all ages and free to attend!
Whether or not we are present at Church, we remain one in the Lord. Please keep the following members of our parish family in your prayers: Agnes Berry, Richard Ferazzi, Margherita Guttmann, Peggy Lake, Michael Leth, Laverne Mezzacapo, Lamy Murphy, Bernard Wagstaff and James P.
