“Where All God’s Children are Honored”
“If you choose you can keep the commandments,” Sirach tells us. God “has set before you fire and water; to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand” (Sirach 15:15, 16). This is a great mystery: God does not control us so completely that we cannot choose our own path. We have certain boundaries, of course, but no one but we can choose our way within those boundaries.

In today’s reading from Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus reminds us of our freedom and our responsibility for our lives. He calls us to look beyond the words of the commandments, all the way to their meaning. Look beyond the adultery to the selfishness that poisons our love. Look beyond the murder to the anger that eats away at our compassion. Look beyond the perjured testimony to the lies and deception that drive our behavior.

Our vocation is to choose life for ourselves, and to choose a path through our part of the world that helps make life possible and more abundant for others as well.

A Column by Fr. Tom

A Name Above All Names

In our current series, we are exploring the Ten Commandments. As mentioned in a previous column, the first few Commandments relate primarily to God and to our love for Him. Last week, we started with the First Commandment which tells us that we should love God above all else. This week, we continue with respect for the name of God, which seems to follow naturally from love of God. For all the ones we love, we honor everything about them, right down to their name.

In the traditional catechetical formula of the Ten Commandments, the Second Commandment reads simply, “You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain.” This is perhaps the most misunderstood Commandment. Somehow, over time, this Commandment has come to be a prohibition of all bad language. That was never the intent. Of course, bad language is vulgar and offensive, especially to those with sensitive ears. It is sinful because it is offensive to another person, especially if we are using this type of language to curse or disparage another.

If we read the Second Commandment in the language of Exodus, where the Commandments were first introduced, we can see that the original context of the Commandment had to do with oaths and promises. “You shall not invoke the name of the LORD, your God, in vain. For the LORD will not leave unpunished anyone who invokes his name in vain.” [EX 20:7] The Catechism explains using the Lord’s Name in vain as follows: “The second commandment forbids false oaths. Taking an oath or swearing is to take God as witness to what one affirms.” [CCC 2150] Swearing “in vain” is using God’s name to attempt to give credence to an oath that lacks truth.

The Second Commandment furthermore concerns the use of God’s Name in any way that is unbecoming of the holiness that is inherent in His Name, simply because it is the Name of the Lord. “Respect for his name is an expression of the respect owed to the mystery of God himself and to the whole sacred reality it evokes.” [CCC 2144]

The Catechism further explains the honor which is due to God’s Name: “Among all the words [of God’s revelation], there is one which is unique: the revealed name of God. God confides his name to those who believe in him; he reveals himself to them in his personal mystery. The gift of a name belongs to the order of trust and intimacy. ‘The Lord's name is holy.’ For this reason [we] must not abuse it. [We] must keep it in mind in silent, loving adoration. [We] will not introduce it into [our] own speech except to bless, praise, and glorify it.” [CCC 2143] And “The second commandment forbids the abuse of God’s name, i.e., every improper use of the names of God, Jesus Christ, but also of the Virgin Mary and all the saints.” [CCC 2146] We should use God’s Name unsparingly to “bless, praise or glorify” Him, but we should take great care of our use of God’s Name otherwise.

Our love of God should be evident in the way that we speak of and about God. We grow in holiness when we respect and reverence God and His Name.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Next weekend, the parishes in our diocese will join together to raise money for our local priests who have retired. Currently our diocese has 27 dedicated priests who are no longer able to serve in parish ministry due to age or infirmity. They will directly benefit not only from your financial generosity, but also through your prayers and kind remembrance.

At their ordination the bishop prays, “Together with us, may they be faithful stewards of your mysteries, so that your people may be renewed in the waters of rebirth and nourished from your altar; so that sinners may be reconciled and the sick raised up. May they be joined with us, Lord, in imploring your mercy for the people entrusted to their care and for all the world” (Rites of Ordination, 2nd Edition, USSCB). It is this commitment that our priests live out in our community.

The Diocese of Palm Beach has been blessed by the dedicated priestly ministry of so many who have given their lives in joyful service to the Lord. Even after their retirement, many continue to labor tirelessly in the vineyard for the glory of God and out of love for the faithful. We appreciate their service and thank them for their selflessness.

Your support of these faithful priests, especially those who can no longer minister publicly, is greatly appreciated. Thank you in advance for allowing them to continue to be faithful stewards of God’s mysteries.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito

CATHOLIC SOCIAL

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time:
The USCCB’s Department of Justice, Peace and Human Development held its annual “Catholic Social Ministry Gathering” in Washington D.C. from January 25th-28th. This year’s gathering coincided with the Annual March for Life and the theme was: “Bearing Witness: Life and Justice For All” recognizing the call for a “Consistent Ethic of Life: From conception until natural death”.

“The proper task of a Christian, then, as the Council tells us, is to work with everyone in building a more human world (cf., Gaudium et Spes 55). This is about taking a stand toward reality in which neither our spiritual lives nor religion can be understood without social commitment. Nor can salvation be understood without the need to transform history. They are linked together.” Cardinal Blase Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago, Plenary Speaker at CSMG.

Challenge Question: Do I see my own salvation beyond my relationship with God, to include my relationship with my neighbor, especially those in need?

DO YOU THINK GOD IS CALLING YOU TO THE PRIESTHOOD?

If you are junior in high school or older, come join other men who are looking to answer that question. On March 13-15, 2020 St. John Vianney Seminary in Miami is hosting a weekend to experience what life is like at the seminary and to answer any questions you may have.
Transportation will be provided. Please ask Fr. Tom for a registration form. If you need more information on the weekend contact the Office of Vocations for more information; 561-775-9552, or vocations@diocesepb.org.
Columbienne meetings are on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. The next meeting is Wed. Feb. 19th, at a new time, 4:30 PM in the All Saints Room. Refreshments will be served after the meeting. Please consider joining the Columbiettes.

Knights of Columbus general meetings are on the 2nd Wednesday of the month; the next meeting is Wed., Mar. 11th at 7 PM (officers meet on the 1st Wed., Mar. 4th). Please consider joining the Knights of Columbus at St Paul of the Cross Parish. Contact Jonathan Knaus at 561-603-8303 or email jonathan.Knaus@kofc.org

Join us for these exciting events taking place during the last half of our 50th Anniversary year:

March 28/29 - Ministries Fair
April 25 - Golf Tournament-NPBCC
June 6 - Renewal of Wedding Vows

There are 24 members in two groups who meet on Tuesday, after either the 8 am Mass, or the 5:30 Mass. They are dedicated to the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy.

Please Pray for Priests
Dear Lord, we pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words,
"Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5).
May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph, Mary's most chaste spouse. May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross.
May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of your love seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls.
Whether or not we are present at Church, we remain one in the Lord. Please keep the following members of our parish family in your prayers: Paula Penza, Joann Schilling, Audrey Wharton and
