HOSANNA!

“Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest” (Matthew 21:9). With these words the Church enters the holiest of weeks, commemorating the passion, death, and resurrection of Christ. When the people of Jerusalem cried out with their “hosannas,” they were using an ancient Hebrew shout of acclamation that meant “Pray, save us.” The king to whom they were shouting eventually would save them, but in a way that would be far from what they expected. Salvation would come from the wood of the cross as Jesus hung there to bring freedom from sin and life through death, opening the gates of heaven for all who put their faith and trust in him.

To prepare for the Readings of April 11/12

Easter Sunday

First Reading — Peter is an eyewitness: The Lord is risen (Acts 10:34a, 37-43).

Psalm — This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad (Psalm 118).

(1) Second Reading — All who are baptized, set your hearts in heaven (Colossians 3:1-4)

(2) Second Reading — Christ our Passover is sacrificed; therefore let us celebrate (1 Corinthians 5:6b-8).

Gospel — Three witnesses, Mary, Peter, and John; each responds to the empty tomb (John 20:1-9) or Matthew 28:1-10 (or, at an afternoon or evening Mass, Luke 24:13-35).
Covet? Isn't that Something that Goes on a Bed?

This week, we conclude our examination of the Ten Commandments with the final two Commandments – “You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife” and “You shall not covet your neighbor’s goods.” As these two Commandments contain the same verb, covet, they also contain a similar motive, “an inordinate desire for obtaining what belongs to another.” [Merriam-Webster Dictionary, “covet”]

First, let’s look at the Ninth Commandment, “You shall not covet your neighbor’s [spouse].” In previous columns (especially in the column on the Sixth Commandment), we have discussed the sanctity of marriage and the fidelity that the spouses should maintain in regard to their covenant relationship. [cf. Looking Through Stained Glass, “A Covenant of Love; A Covenant for Life”, March 15, 2020] However, the Ninth Commandment refers more to the desire of someone outside the marriage bond, who wishes to break that bond or wishes that he or she was in a spousal relationship to this person. We may note that Jesus ties the Sixth and the Ninth Commandment together, when He says in His Sermon on the Mount, “Everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.” [MT 5:28] The Ninth Commandment forbids the desire for someone who belongs to (is exclusive to) another through the marriage covenant.

The Tenth Commandment forbids the desire for material goods that belong to another by ownership. As we discussed above, this Commandment forbids the Capital Sin of Envy. It also forbids the Capital Sin of Avarice (or Greed), which is related to Envy. “The tenth commandment forbids greed and the desire to amass earthly goods without limit. It forbids avarice arising from a passion for riches and their attendant power. It also forbids the desire to commit injustice by harming our neighbor in his temporal goods.” [CCC 2536] “Envy represents […] a refusal of charity; the baptized person should struggle against it by exercising good will. […] Rejoice in your brother's progress and you will immediately give glory to God.” [CCC 2540] In Paul’s First Letter to the Corinthians, he reminds us that we are all one Body of Christ and therefore should be happy for the good fortune of others. “If [one] part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy.” [cf. 1 Cor 12:26] Let us remember that, in our column on Envy, we said, “We are called to practice both humility and charity in order to combat the sins that are brought on by the Capital Sin of Envy. We are called to rejoice for the gifts and blessings that God has bestowed on us, but also for the gifts and blessings that He has bestowed on our brothers and sisters.” [Stained Glass, March 3, 2019]

Throughout this Lent, we have explored the Ten Commandments as a way to grow in holiness. Perhaps, as a capstone for this examination of the Ten Commandments, we should remember the way we started this series: “What we will also notice is not so much that the Commandments tells us what we ‘shall not do’, but instead what they encourage us to do, particularly how they encourage us to love” – to love God and to love one another. [Looking Through Stained Glass, “They’re Stone Tablets Because They’re the Foundation of Holiness”, Feb. 2, 2020, emphasis added]

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Pope Francis has asked all parishes throughout the world to support the annual Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees.

During Holy Week, the Gospel readings come to life in a special way as we gather to celebrate the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. The readings remind us of our special connection to the land where this great story unfolded. Christians living in the Holy Land today are descendants of those who first believed and lived the Christian faith. It is important that Christians continue to live, work and pray in the Holy Land.

Specifically, last year's collection supported 29 parishes, four homes for orphans, three academic institutions, helped keep schools open for more than 10,000 PreK-12 students, created 1,500 jobs in the Holy Land, supported 120 men preparing to be priests or brothers, and much more.

Thank you for supporting the Pontifical Good Friday Collection. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace in a troubled land.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

Please Pray for Priests

Dear Lord,
we pray that the Blessed Mother
wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession
strengthen them for their ministry.
We pray that Mary will guide your priests
to follow her own words,
"Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5).
May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph,
Mary's most chaste spouse.
May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace
all who suffer at the foot of the cross.
May your priests be holy,
filled with the fire of your love
seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls.

Please Pray for Vocations

Father, you call each one of us by name and ask us to follow you.
Bless your Church by raising up dedicated leaders from our families and friends in the Diocese of Palm Beach, who will generously serve your people as sisters, brothers, deacons, and priests.

Inspire us as we grow to know you, and open our hearts to hear your call.
We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord.
Amen.
The Sacred Triduum refers to the three days before Easter. They include Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. On Holy Thursday, we commemorate the last Supper. Good Friday is a solemn time in which we remember the suffering and death on the Cross of Jesus Christ. On Holy Saturday we observe the Easter Vigil and anticipate Christ’s triumphant Resurrection from the dead. The Sacred Triduum is the summit of our liturgical year, its glorious fulfillment. Let us observe these days as a special time of prayer and meditation.

Diocesan Prayer for God’s Protection in the face of the Coronavirus Pandemic

Loving and gracious God, as in all times, we turn to You and implore Your protection and healing as we face a new threat to our health and peaceful well-being in the coronavirus pandemic before us. Help us to be united with each other and with all of our brothers and sisters around the world affected by this illness. We pray for all those in the medical field who are assisting patients and in the field of science who are discerning a cure, as well as for all government leaders. Remember those who, through this virus, have passed from this life as well as their families in their loss.

At this time of fragile uncertainty, we also humbly implore You to grant us prudence, hope, courage and patience. Dispel from us fear, panic and distrust which disrupt us in spirit to the detriment of our well-being.

We make our prayer in the name of your beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who always cured those who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. Our Lady, Patroness of our Diocese, Queen of the Apostles and Comforter of the Afflicted, pray for us, Amen.
Whether or not we are present at Church, we remain one in the Lord. Please keep the following members of our parish family in your prayers: Mary T. Clark, Angela B. Cone, David Gehoski, and...

PLEASE NOTE: Please call the Parish Office if you are being admitted to the hospital or know of someone in our parish who requests a visit from a priest or Eucharistic Minister. Names will remain on the prayer list for two months, unless notified.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
