THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER
GOD’S PLAN

Saint Peter speaks to us twice today. In the first reading, we hear an excerpt from his sermon on Pentecost; in the second, part of his first letter. Once a frightened, uneducated fisherman who often said just the wrong thing, now Peter is speaking what he knows to be true. Everything Jesus had said now makes sense. His death and rising were all part of God’s plan, and our faith and hope can be centered on God.

Today’s Gospel tells the story of Jesus’ walk to Emmaus with two of the disciples. Frightened, sad, and confused, the two of them don’t recognize Jesus, who tells them what we heard Peter say above: All this had to happen as part of God’s plan. In the end, these disciples recognize Jesus as we are to recognize him—in the breaking of the bread.

To prepare for the Readings of May 2/3

Fourth Sunday of Easter

First Reading — All peoples called by God will receive the gift of the Spirit if they repent and are baptized (Acts 2:14a, 36-41).

Psalm — The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want (Psalm 23).

Second Reading — Once we were like straying sheep; but now we have been returned to the shepherd, our guardian (1 Peter 2:20b-25).

Gospel — The shepherd leads the sheep out into pastures of abundant life (John 10:1-10).
Our Father...

In our first installment on the Our Father, we explored Jesus’ reason for teaching His disciples this particular prayer. We discovered that the Our Father not only helps us to ask the Father for what we need, but it also teaches us about our relationship with God. We also laid out a plan for our examination of the prayer – we will look at each line or phrase of the prayer.

It seems appropriate that we should look at the address of the prayer first for two reasons. First, the invocation is the first two words of the prayer, “Our Father.” Also, as mentioned above, addressing God as Father teaches us a lot about our relationship with Him.

The Catechism tells us that the title “father” evokes certain images: “By calling God ‘Father’, the language of faith indicates two main things: that God is the first origin of everything and transcendent authority; and that he is at the same time goodness and loving care for all his children.” [CCC 239] Before Jesus, the first image of “father” is more frequently used – especially in regard to His “transcendent authority.” In the Hebrew Scriptures (Old Testament), God is often mentioned to be like a father – to David’s son Solomon [2 Sam 7:14], to the orphan [PS 68:6], or to Israel [Mal 2:10]. However, it is the rare instance where God is called “father.” Jesus introduces God as His Father, not just like His father. In His teaching, Jesus’ focus is more on the second image of father – His loving care for His children.

As we have mentioned in a previous column, Jesus is the only Begotten Son of God. [cf. Looking Through Stained Glass, “…the Son of God”, Sept. 22, 2019] We are God’s adopted sons and daughters, but God has a paternal love for us in the same way as He loves His Son. Jesus includes us in the Father’s love when He tells Mary Magdalene after His Resurrection, “Go to my brothers and tell them, ‘I am going to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’” [JN 20:17] He also includes us in a filial relationship with God the Father when He teaches the disciples to call God “Our Father.” St. Paul accentuates this relationship when he tells us that we not only have God as our father, but he is our “Abba,” a more diminutive form of address akin to “Dad” or even “Daddy.” [cf. Rom 8:15 and Gal 4:6] Jesus Himself calls God “Abba” in Gethsemane when He says, “Abba, Father, all things are possible to you. Take this cup away from me, but not what I will but what you will.” [MK 14:36]

Calling God “Our Father” speaks to us not only of our relationship with God, and not only of our relationship with Jesus His Son, but it also speaks to us of our relationship with one another. When we begin our prayer saying, “Our Father,” we are recognizing that God is the Father of us all; therefore, we are brothers and sisters. When we use this term, we are also recognizing our common need for God. This prayer is not between me and God, but it is between we [sic] and God.

Addressing God as “Our Father” reminds us that we are uniting our hearts in prayer with one another and with God. One of the lessons we’ve learned from the coronavirus pandemic is that if our hearts are united in prayer, it matters very little if we also join our hands.

Next week, we will continue with the phrase “who art in Heaven.”
Challenge Question: "Common Good" appears throughout Catholic Social Teaching. It is defined as: "The sum total of social conditions which allow people, either as groups or as individuals, to reach their fulfillment more fully and more easily." (Pope John XXIII’s encyclical Mater et Magistra: On Christianity and Social Progress). What can I do, especially during these difficult times, to help work toward the common good, and encourage our political leaders to do the same?
Diocesan Prayer for God’s Protection in the face of the Coronavirus Pandemic

Loving and gracious God, as in all times, we turn to You and implore Your protection and healing as we face a new threat to our health and peaceful well-being in the coronavirus pandemic before us. Help us to be united with each other and with all of our brothers and sisters around the world affected by this illness. We pray for all those in the medical field who are assisting patients and in the field of science who are discerning a cure, as well as for all government leaders. Remember those who, through this virus, have passed from this life as well as their families in their loss.

At this time of fragile uncertainty, we also humbly implore You to grant us prudence, hope, courage and patience. Dispel from us fear, panic and distrust which disrupt us in spirit to the detriment of our well-being.

We make our prayer in the name of your beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who always cured those who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. Our Lady, Patroness of our Diocese, Queen of the Apostles and Comforter of the Afflicted, pray for us, Amen.

Please Pray for Vocations

Father, you call each one of us by name and ask us to follow you. Bless your Church by raising up dedicated leaders from our families and friends in the Diocese of Palm Beach, who will generously serve your people as sisters, brothers, deacons, and priests. Inspire us as we grow to know you, and open our hearts to hear your call. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord. Amen

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire you with all my heart. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already in my heart and unite myself to you completely. Please do not let me ever be separated from you. Amen.
