You may continue to book “unannounced” Masses to be celebrated by a missionary priest.
PENTECOST SUNDAY
THE RICHNESS OF THE SPIRIT

Students, and most adults recalling their school days, are familiar with the phrase “compare and contrast” that shows up from time to time on tests. Today we hear two different accounts of the giving of the Holy Spirit to the church. Let’s contrast, then compare. Luke’s account from Acts is filled with arresting details: the mighty wind from heaven, the tongues of flame, the miracle of different languages. John’s account seems timid: fearful disciples, the wounded Christ, the expelling of breath from his risen body, not from the sky. Our literal, modern minds wonder which way it happened; our noisy culture probably makes us prefer the former. But if we compare the two, we find that the dazzling richness of the Spirit fills both accounts, for it is the very breath of the risen Christ, ascended to the sky in Luke, that appears to his disciples in John and sends his followers forth to carry on his mission of forgiving sin and proclaiming the mighty acts of God.

To prepare for the Readings of June 6/7
The Most Holy Trinity
First Reading — The LORD, merciful and gracious, rich in kindness and faithfulness (Exodus 34:6-7). Psalm — Glory and praise for ever! (Daniel 3).
Second Reading — Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Live with one another in peace, and the God of peace will be with you (2 Corinthians 13:11-13).
Gospel — God did not send the Son to condemn the world, but to give it abundant life (John 3:16-18).
...Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread...

As we mentioned at the beginning of our study of the Our Father, this prayer is actually a series of prayers, or petitions. These petitions help us to understand our relationship with God. They help us to understand who God is, who we are, and why we need God. Until now, we have focused on how the petitions help us to understand more about God. In essence, the first few petitions basically pray that God be God – that His Holiness be found in His Name, in Heaven, on Earth, and through His Holy Will.

As we continue with our prayer, our petitions move to prayers that God be the God of our lives. For example, our first petition in this series is “Give us this day our daily bread.” As God is the Creator of all that the world holds, it is only He that can provide for our needs. As children depend on their parents to take care of their needs, Jesus gives us this petition that we might rely on our Heavenly Father to do the same.

In His Sermon on the Mount, Jesus says, “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat [or drink], or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds in the sky; they do not sow or reap, they gather nothing into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are not you more important than they? Why are you anxious about clothes? Learn from the way the wild flowers grow. They do not work or spin. But I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was clothed like one of them.” [MT 6:25-26, 28-29]

God’s care for us goes beyond food, drink and clothing. God wants to give us all that we need. The Catechism summarizes God’s care for us this way, “The Father who gives us life cannot not but give us the nourishment life requires - all appropriate goods and blessings, both material and spiritual.” [CCC 2830] What we are praying for when we pray for “our daily bread” is for all that we need to get us through each day.

In fact, “daily” is an important part of this petition as well. When the Israelites were wandering in the desert, God gave them manna, and told them that they were only to gather what they needed for that day, because God would provide for them again the next day. [EX 16:16-27] Continuing our above quote from the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus tells us, “Do not worry about tomorrow; tomorrow will take care of itself.” [MT 6:34] In other words, we should not worry about tomorrow, but our hope should be in God’s care for us – today, tomorrow, and each day. Anxiety for the future is a sign of one’s lack of trust in God and His care for us.

We pray the Our Father to ask that God gives us what we need, sufficient for each day. It is only fitting that we then pray a prayer of thanksgiving when God has met this request. For food and other material needs, we call that prayer of thanksgiving “Grace.” For the Body of Christ, the Bread of Life, and other spiritual needs, we pray a Mass of thanksgiving, which we call the “Eucharist,” a Greek word for thanksgiving.

In our next personal petition, “And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us,” we explore what the Our Father has to teach us about our relationship with others.
Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in every one. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. (From today’s 2nd Rdg., 1 Corinthians 12: 4-7)

CATHOLIC SOCIAL

Pentecost Sunday

"Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. (From today’s 2nd Rdg., 1 Corinthians 12: 4-7)

Challenge Question: The Gifts of the Holy Spirit: Wisdom, Understanding, Knowledge, Counsel, Fortitude, Piety, and Fear of the Lord, are the very gifts we need to claim during these difficult days living under a global pandemic. Yet, as today’s passage from Corinthians points out, these gifts are not solely for our own personal consolation. Indeed, they are meant to be put at the service of the "common good"; in other words, for the Community. How can I place the gifts of the Holy Spirit at service to others, especially during these difficult times?

Diocesan Prayer for God’s Protection in the face of the Coronavirus Pandemic

Loving and gracious God, as in all times, we turn to You and implore Your protection and healing as we face a new threat to our health and peaceful well-being in the coronavirus pandemic before us. Help us to be united with each other and with all of our brothers and sisters around the world affected by this illness. We pray for all those in the medical field who are assisting patients and in the field of science who are discerning a cure, as well as for all government leaders. Remember those who, through this virus, have passed from this life as well as their families in their loss.

At this time of fragile uncertainty, we also humbly implore You to grant us prudence, hope, courage and patience. Dispel from us fear, panic and distrust which disrupt us in spirit to the detriment of our well-being.

We make our prayer in the name of your beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who always cured those who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. Our Lady, Patroness of our Diocese, Queen of the Apostles and Comforter of the Afflicted, pray for us, Amen.

Please Pray for Vocations

Father, you call each one of us by name and ask us to follow you. Bless your Church by raising up dedicated leaders from our families and friends in the Diocese of Palm Beach, who will generously serve your people as sisters, brothers, deacons, and priests. Inspire us as we grow to know you, and open our hearts to hear your call.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord. Amen

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me;
Body of Christ, save me;
Blood of Christ, inebriate me;
Water from the side of Christ, wash me;
Passion of Christ, strengthen me;
O good Jesus hear me;
Within your wounds hide me;
separated from you, let me never be;
From the evil one protect me;
At the hour of my death, call me;
And close to you bid me;
That with your saints, I may be praising you forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire you with all my heart.
Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already in my heart and unite myself to you completely.
Please do not let me ever be separated from you.
Amen.

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over all our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen. Mary, help of Christians, pray for us.
