TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
ENTHUSIASM AND GRAMMAR

There is a good reason that the writings of St. Paul don’t show up as examples in grammar textbooks. Today’s reading is a case in point. It begins with one of those long Pauline run on sentences that leave lectors gasping for breath. So what? Take a closer look at how Paul’s fervor for his subject matter derails the grammar. There is something admirable about being so caught up in his convictions that the words cannot come fast enough to express them, much less in an orderly fashion. Scripture scholars usually take this grammatical ineptness as a sign of a passage’s early importance in the Christian community, something they were so ardent about that their language never got refined.

What leaves us in this condition? Re-telling the plot line of an action movie or the play-by-play of a sporting event? When was the last time any of us was so excited by our faith in Christ that we were grasping for words, stumbling over our own errors in speech? It may be bad grammar, but it is an excellent way to inspire others with the message of Christ!

To prepare for the Readings of June 27/28
Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading — Elisha promises a baby son to the hospitable woman (2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a).
Psalm — For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord (Psalm 89).
Second Reading — We shall live in newness of life as Christ was raised from the dead (Romans 6:3-4, 8-11).
Gospel — Whoever gives but a cup of cold water to another will surely be rewarded (Matthew 10:37-42).
In last week’s column, we explored the petition “And lead us not into temptation.” In this week’s column, we examine perhaps its corollary, “But deliver us from evil.” First, we ask God to allow us not to yield to temptation, then we increase our petition by asking God to deliver us completely from evil.

This petition contains both an immediate and an ultimate request. In the present, we are asking God that He help us with our temptations to sin, but also that He keep us from all evil in our lives. For example, if an absent-minded Lamborghini driver left his keys in the ignition, we are asking God not only to help us avoid the temptation to enjoy a “test drive” in that sweet ride, but also to “deliver us” from even the thought of such sin.

The more far-reaching component of this petition is that we are asking God to not only help us avoid the lure of the devil’s lies (temptation), but to help us steer clear of the devil altogether. In this version of the request, we are also concerned for our ultimate abode (i.e. Heaven or Hell). Intellectually, most right-thinking people would choose Heaven, but the devil’s lies are insidious, just ask Adam and Eve. [cf. Gen 3:1-6]

What we are asking God to do in the petition, “But deliver us from evil,” is asking Him to deliver us from the Evil One. We are not stronger, on our own, than the devil, but God is, and we can be – with God’s help. In fact, in the New American Bible translation for the Our Father, Jesus says in the current verse, “and do not subject us to the final test, but deliver us from the evil one.” [MT 6:13]

Evil has a personification and Jesus is encouraging us to pray for protection from this personification, the devil. In fact, Jesus makes the same request of the Father on our behalf, during the Last Supper. “I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the evil one.” [JN 17:15]

In the present sense of this request, “When we ask to be delivered from the Evil One, we pray as well to be freed from all evils, present, past, and future, of which he is the author or instigator. In this final petition, the Church brings before the Father all the distress of the world. Along with deliverance from the evils that overwhelm humanity, she implores the precious gift of peace and the grace of perseverance in expectation of Christ's return” [CCC 2854]

In the more far-reaching sense, we pray for, “Victory over the ‘prince of this world’ [which] was won once for all at the Hour when Jesus freely gave himself up to death to give us his life. This is the judgment of this world, and the prince of this world is ‘cast out.’ Therefore the Spirit and the Church pray: ‘Come, Lord Jesus,’ since his coming will deliver us from the Evil One.” [CCC 2853] We pray for this same ultimate salvation every time we pray the Our Father at Mass, or at least the priest prays it for us, as he prays what is known as the embolism at the end of the Our Father, “Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant us peace in our days, that by the help of your mercy, we may always be free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.” [Roman Missal, No. 125]

Next week, we will conclude our exploration of the Our Father with an examination of a traditional addition to the prayer, the Doxology.

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time:
We continue to prayerfully reflect on the USCCB Document: “Open Wide Our Hearts; the enduring call to love” (A Pastoral Letter against racism, 2018)

“What is needed, and what we are calling for, is a genuine conversion of heart, a conversion that will compel change, and the reform of our institutions and society...In this regard, each of us should adopt the words of Pope Francis as our own: let no one ‘think that this invitation is not meant for him or her’. All of us are in need of personal, ongoing conversion. Our churches and our civic and social institutions are in need of ongoing reform.”
(Pg. 7, Open Wide Our Hearts)

Challenge Question: If you have not yet read the entire document, “Open Wide Our Hearts; the enduring call to love” (A Pastoral Letter against Racism, 2018), spend some time this week doing so. [It is only 32 pages long.] This will give you a chance to learn a little about some of the many forms of racism in America. You can find the document at the following link: www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/human-life-and-dignity/racism/upload/open-wide-our-hearts.pdf

Masses have resumed in the Church however, if you are unable or uncomfortable attending, it is still possible to watch Fr. Tom as he presides over daily and Sunday Masses on YouTube.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion
My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire you with all my heart. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already in my heart and unite myself to you completely. Please do not let me ever be separated from you. Amen. attributed to St. Alphonsus Liguori

Prayer for God’s Protection in the face of the Coronavirus Pandemic
Loving and gracious God, as in all times, we turn to You and implore Your protection and healing as we face a new threat to our health and peaceful well-being in the coronavirus pandemic before us. Help us to be united with each other and with all of our brothers and sisters around the world affected by this illness. We pray for all those in the medical field who are assisting patients and in the field of science who are discerning a cure, as well as for all government leaders. Remember those who, through this virus, have passed from this life as well as their families in their loss.

At this time of fragile uncertainty, we also humbly implore You to grant us prudence, hope, courage and patience. Dispel from us fear, panic and distrust which disrupt us in spirit to the detriment of our well-being.

We make our prayer in the name of your beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who always cured those who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. Our Lady, Patroness of our Diocese, Queen of the Apostles and Comforter of the Afflicted, pray for us, Amen.
PLEASE NOTE: Please call the Parish Office if you are being admitted to the hospital or know of someone in our parish who requests a visit from a priest or Eucharistic Minister. Names will remain on the prayer list for two months, unless notified.

PLEASE PRAY for the men and women in our armed forces stationed overseas, for the military commanders who lead them, for President Trump and his advisors and for...

Merciful Father, You desire the welfare of all your children. Stretch out Your protecting arm over our men and women in the service. Shield them from every danger to body, mind and soul. Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and do Your will in all things. Bestow on our leaders and the leaders of the world the wisdom and prudence which will bring peace and justice to all. This we ask through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen.
