“Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart: and you will find rest for yourselves.”

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SHARE THE BURDEN

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28). These words of our Savior seem to be in stark contrast to the previous chapter from the same Gospel, when we were told that if we do not take up our crosses, we are not worthy of Christ. Connecting these two messages might help us on our faith journeys. Being a follower of Christ surely means that we must embrace the cross, in its mystery of both suffering and triumph. This is something that we need not do alone, for the burden is often too heavy for us to carry by ourselves.

Who, then, do we turn to? We can turn to the Body of Christ—the community of disciples gathered for worship. When we find the burden too heavy, let us remember that we can share that burden with our Christian sisters and brothers, who can help bring us rest.

First Reading — My word will achieve the end for which it was sent (Isaiah 55:10-11).
Psalm — The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest (Psalm 65).
Second Reading — We, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan within ourselves awaiting the redemption of our bodies (Romans 8:18-23).
Gospel — Some seed fell on rich soil and produced fruit (Matthew 13:1-23 [1-9]).
The Precepts of the Church

As we continue our catechetical journey through the Catholic Faith, we should explore the Precepts of the Church. At this time, you may be thinking that you have never even heard of them, but I would venture to guess that you’ve heard at least a few of these, but didn’t know that they were grouped together nor that they were called Precepts. For example, most people know that we have a Sunday Obligation and an Easter Duty. These are just two of the Precepts of the Church. Currently, there are five Precepts of the Church.

First, let’s talk about what a “precept” is. The dictionary defines a precept as, “a command or principle intended especially as a general rule of action.” [Merriam-Webster Dictionary, “precept”]
The word “precept” comes from the Latin “praecipuum,” which means an instruction. Therefore, a precept is a rule or instruction, which is intended to elicit a certain action. The Precepts of the Church are the actions that all Catholics should take.

So, what are the Five Precepts of the Church?

- Keep holy the Sabbath (Sunday) and the Holy Days of Obligation [Sunday Obligation]
- Observe the laws of fasting and abstinence
- Celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation at least once per year
- Receive the Eucharist at least once per year, during the Easter Season [Easter Duty]
- Contribute to the support of the Church

There are also two additional Precepts that have been included in some traditional lists:

- Observe the laws of the Church in regard to marriage
- Participate in the Church’s mission of evangelization

When examined as a group, one might consider them the minimum required actions. When we were in school, there was a minimum amount of work we needed to do to pass a class, but for those who wanted to achieve a better grade, a little extra effort needed to be put forth. Here’s another example: You can remain married if you treat your spouse nicely and remain faithful. However, you can have a happy marriage, if you put in a little more effort, and actually demonstrate your love for your spouse daily. Would you rather be married to someone who does the minimum, or someone who loves with their whole heart? When we love someone, we want to do more than the bare minimum. When we love God, we want to do more than the bare minimum, too. However, when we’re learning how to be a good Christian (or a good spouse), we have to start from somewhere. The Precepts are good place to start. As we grow in our faith, we can try harder to move toward the ideal, which is holiness.

Perhaps the pertinent question is, “Which would you rather hear from God as you wait to enter Heaven?” Would you rather He say, “I guess you’ve passed” or “Well done, my good and faithful servant”?

Over the next weeks, we will examine each of these Precepts to understand both the minimum and the ideal.
Baptisms
Celebrated on the second Sunday of each month at 12:00pm. Parents are encouraged to attend an instruction class prior to the birth of their first baby. Please call the Office to register.

Marriages
Arrangements should be made at least six months prior to the wedding date. Please call the Parish Office. Our beautiful Ave Maria Banquet Hall (capacity 325) and our St. Joseph Hall (capacity 175) are available for rental for approved adult receptions and gatherings for occasions connected with church events.

Challenge Question: Let us prayerfully reflect on several key words in the above quote: Courageously; Generously; Conversion; Policies and Structures. How might God be challenging us to look at the sin of racism through the lens of these words used by our Bishops in the text of their Pastoral Letter against racism?

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time:
"Love compels each of us to resist racism courageously. It requires us to reach out generously to the victims of this evil, to assist the conversion needed in those who still harbor racism, and to begin to change policies and structures that allow racism to persist." (Open Wide Our Hearts, Pg.18, USCCB, 2018)

Prayer for Spiritual Communion
My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire you with all my heart. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already in my heart and unite myself to you completely. Please do not let me ever be separated from you. Amen.

attributed to St. Alphonsus Ligouri

Anima Christi
Soul of Christ, sanctify me;
Body of Christ, save me;
Blood of Christ, inebriate me;
Water from the side of Christ, wash me;
Passion of Christ, strengthen me;
O good Jesus hear me;
Within your wounds hide me;
separated from you, let me never be;
From the evil one protect me;
At the hour of my death, call me;
And close to you bid me;
That with your saints, I may be praising you forever and ever. Amen.

Diocesan Prayer for God’s Protection in the face of the Coronavirus Pandemic
Loving and gracious God, as in all times, we turn to You and implore Your protection and healing as we face a new threat to our health and peaceful well-being in the coronavirus pandemic before us. Help us to be united with each other and with all of our brothers and sisters around the world affected by this illness. We pray for all those in the medical field who are assisting patients and in the field of science who are discerning a cure, as well as for all government leaders. Remember those who, through this virus, have passed from this life as well as their families in their loss.

At this time of fragile uncertainty, we also humbly implore You to grant us prudence, hope, courage and patience. Dispel from us fear, panic and distrust which disrupt us in spirit to the detriment of our well-being.

We make our prayer in the name of your beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who always cured those who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. Our Lady, Patroness of our Diocese, Queen of the Apostles and Comforter of the Afflicted, pray for us, Amen.
Whether or not we are present at Church, we remain one in the Lord. Please keep the following members of our parish family in your prayers: Tresa Gardella, Geraldine Servideo, Jose Valdivia and...

Comfort them in loneliness, sustain them in hardship, give them the courage they need to fulfill their duty and so do Your will in all things.
