Saint of the Week

St. Joseph of Cupertino, Confessor September 18

Born of devout parents, as a young man Joseph of Cupertino was outstanding for his purity. In the convent of the Friars Minor at Grotella, he was first enrolled among the lay-brothers because of his lack of learning, and then, by a disposition of divine Providence, he joined the clerics and was ordained.

He chastised his body with a hair-shirt, with scourgings and all kinds of austerities, and nourished his spirit continually with the food of holy prayer, so that he was called by God to the highest degree of contemplation.

Outstanding for obedience and poverty, he cultivated chastity above all, and preserved it unharmed, conquering great temptations. He honored the Virgin Mary with a wonderful love and shone for his great charity toward the poor.

His humility was so deep that he thought himself a great sinner and earnestly prayed God to take away the remarkable gifts he had been given. He journeyed through many places at the command of the superior of the Order and of the holy Inquisition; finally, at Osimo in Picenum, in the sixty-first year of his age, he made the last journey, to Heaven.

A PRAYER AT ELECTION TIME

O Lord, Our Just and Loving Father,
We thank you for the precious gift of Human Life
That is greatly threatened by the Culture of Death.
Aware of the dangers we are now facing,
We ask that You guide us in electing the leaders
Our nation truly needs:

-Leaders with the wisdom to discern your providential plan,
-Leaders who understand the weakness of the human condition,
-Leaders who counsel our citizens to respect the rule of law,
-Leaders with the fortitude to face their opponents with grace,
-Leaders with knowledge of our Constitution and of natural rights,
-Leaders whose piety makes them aware of their own limitations,
-And leaders whose reverential fear informs their moral judgment.

We pray that the inalienable rights
To life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness,
Promised by our founders,
May be preserved, protected, and defended for all,
Especially the most vulnerable members of our society.
Almighty and Merciful God,
Sustain us in our struggle to live in peace
As one nation under God. Amen.
