Pope Francis' Intentions for July

Universal – Justice

That those who administer justice may work with integrity and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.

Fund a Religious Education Student

REIGIOUS
EDUCATION

Not every family in our parish is able to afford the registration fees which cover the expense of books and supplies. If you would like to "adopt" a child/family, it would be appreciated!

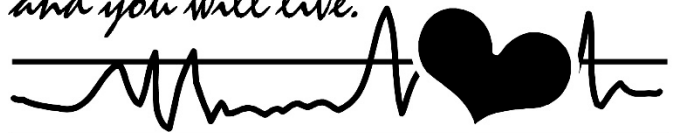

ESL (English as a Second Language) Classes

ESL (English Second Language) classes will be at Sacred Heart in the parish center (St. Teresa's room) every Saturday at 11:00 am. Please call the Religious Education Office at (845)782-7420 if you have any questions.

Religious Education Registration 2019-20

Dear Sacred Heart Families,
Welcome to the Religious Education Program at Sacred Heart. We just started the registration process for the 2019-2020 school year. We take children from 1st grade until 12th grade. You would need to bring a copy of your child's baptismal certificate in order to register. Our office hours are Monday to Thursday from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. We are closed for lunch from 12:00 -1:00 pm. Please, call us at (845)782-7420 if you have any questions.

Return to God with all your heart and you will live.

Sacred Heart's Lucky Draw Raffle 2019

Tickets are available in the parish office and after all Sunday Masses for the 2019 Lucky Draw Raffle. The tickets are $52 for the year and one person will win $100 each week. The last winner of the year will win $1,000.

Our winner this week is:

18 – Maureen O’Riordan
299 – Mary Ferreira

So far 202 tickets have been sold.

If we sell all 300 tickets, Sacred Heart will make $9500. Please help us reach our goal.

Starting July 1 the office will be opened Monday through Thursday from 9:30 am – 12:00 pm. The office will continue to be closed on Fridays.

Stop and Shop Giving Bags

During July if you buy one of the reusable Giving Bags for $2.50 in Stop and Shop, you can designate Our Father's Kitchen to receive a donation of $1.00.

St. John Paul II National Shrine

If your vacation takes you to Washington, DC this summer, consider visiting the St. John Paul II National Shrine. The shrine is a place of prayer and worship that offers sacraments and liturgical events including Mass daily in the Redemptor Hominis Church at 12:00 pm Monday through Saturday and 2:00 and 7:00 pm on Sundays. There is an Hour of Mercy Prayer and recitation of the Chaplet at 3:00 pm daily. A first-class blood relic of St. John Paul II is present in the Luminous Mysteries Chapel. And every Saturday from 12:45 pm – 1:15 pm those attending pray the rosary with meditations by St. John Paul II.

Rosary for Life

July 27th at St. Anastasia after the 9:00 am Mass.

Prayer for Priests

St. Thérèse of Lisieux

O Holy Father, may the torrents of love flowing from the sacred wounds of your divine Son bring forth priests like unto the beloved disciple John who stood at the foot of the cross; priests, who as a pledge of your own most tender love will lovingly give your divine Son to the souls of men.

May your priests be faithful guardians of your Church, as John was of Mary, whom he received into his house.

Taught by this loving Mother who suffered so much on Calvary, may they display a mother's care and thoughtfulness towards your children. May they teach souls to enter into close union with you through Mary who, as the Gate of Heaven, is specially the guardian of the treasures of your divine Heart.

Give us priests who are on fire, and who are true children of Mary, priests who will give Jesus to souls with the same tenderness and care with which Mary carried the Little Child of Bethlehem.

Mother of sorrows and of love, out of compassion for your beloved Son, open in our hearts deep wells of love, so that we may console Him and give Him a generation of priests formed in your school and having all the tender thoughtfulness of your own spotless love. Amen.

Formed.org

There are a number of Catholic movies available on Netflix.com (and it always varies by country and region), but you have to dig a little to find them. What if there was a streaming service for Catholic content, a 'Catholic Netflix', wouldn't that be amazing? Well, there is! And it is called Formed. So for $9.99 you can have tons, and I mean tons of really rock solid, Catholic Video, Audio, and Books!

And for the kids, you will be very happy to see titles like The True Story of Fatima, Ben-hur, The Odyssey, Francis the Knight of Assisi, and many more.

What Is the Catholic Bible?

Many Christians are surprised to learn that the Catholic Bible is different from the Bible used by Protestants. While all 66 books found in Protestant Bibles are also found in the Catholic Bible, the Catholic Bible also contains other books, and additions to books. The Catholic Bible contains a total of 73 books, 46 in the Old Testament (Protestant Bibles have 39) and 27 in the New Testament (the same as Protestant Bibles).

The additional books in the Catholic Bible are known as the deuterocanonicals/Apocrypha. They are Tobit, Judith, 1 Maccabees, 2 Maccabees, Wisdom, Sirach (Ecclesiasticus), and Baruch. The Catholic Bible also includes additions to the books of Esther and Daniel. Should the Apocrypha be included in the Bible? There was significant debate in the early Christian church, with a majority of the early church fathers rejecting the idea that the Apocrypha belonged in the Bible.

However, under tremendous pressure from Rome, Jerome, the translator of the Latin Vulgate, included the Apocrypha, despite Jerome's insistence that the Apocrypha did not belong in the Bible. The Latin Vulgate became the dominant and officially sanctioned Catholic Bible, and remained that way for around 1200 years. Thus, the Apocrypha became a part of the Catholic Bible.

The Apocrypha was not formally/officially made a part of the Catholic Bible, though, until the Council of Trent, in response to the Protestant Reformation. The early Protestant Reformers, in agreement with Judaism, determined that the Apocrypha did not belong in the Bible, and therefore removed the Apocrypha from Protestant Bibles.

The most popular English translations of the Catholic Bible today are the New American Bible, the New Revised Standard Version Catholic Edition, and the New Jerusalem Bible. Aside from the inclusion of the Apocrypha, each of these Bible translations is reasonably good and accurate in how it renders the biblical text into English.

In summary, the Catholic Bible is the version of the Bible promoted by the Roman Catholic Church and used by the majority of the world's Catholics. Aside from the inclusion of the Apocrypha, the Catholic Bible is identical to Protestant Bibles in terms of the canon (the books belonging in the Bible).
