Announced Masses

There is perhaps no greater gift to offer a loved one than to have him/her remembered at Mass. In addition to arranging for a Mass you can request a card that you can give to the family of the person for whom you are arranging the Mass. A Mass can be offered for a variety of reasons. Most commonly these Masses are offered for someone who is deceased. Masses can also be said for the living (perhaps someone in need of healing) or for other special intentions. Two intentions can be offered for each Mass. The suggested donation for each intention is $15.00 or $30.00 if you would like two separate intentions for that Mass. You can arrange for a Mass and request a card online by calling or visiting our parish office. Please note, that your request for a Mass intention will be processed within 24 hours Monday through Friday. Requests received over the weekend (after 4 pm on Friday) will be processed on the following Monday. Your Mass intention and the date you requested is considered "confirmed" once you receive an email response back from our parish office.

Perpetual Masses

These Mass intentions are for souls to be enrolled in our Holy Souls Society. Those enrolled in the Holy Souls Society are prayed for once every week during the 9 am Mass. You will receive a Mass card that you can give to the family of the person for whom you are arranging the Mass.

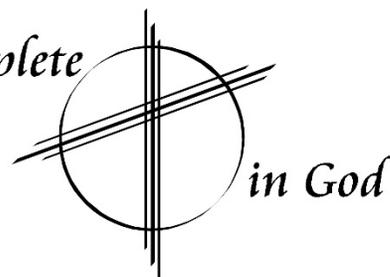

Parish Garden Ministry

Use your green thumb to care for the plants and flowers on our property. If you would like to help, please call the parish office at 782-8510.

It is not your outward appearance that you should beautify, but your Soul, adorning it with good works.

The Chime Travelers

Lisa M. Hendey

The Chime Travelers includes five books, featuring fun-filled time-traveling adventures. In each book, twins Patrick and Katie Brady find themselves “chime” traveling to a faraway land, where they enter a real saint’s life. Saints featured in the series include Patrick, Kateri, Francis, and Clare. A Christmas adventure rounds out the series, as the twins travel to Bethlehem and meet up with the Holy Family. During each adventure, they learn a valuable lesson that applies directly to a situation back at home. Each book includes prayers and a short biography of the saint’s life.

Fans of Percy Jackson will want to add the Will Wilder trilogy by Raymond Arroyo to their summer reading list. In the first book, The Relic of Perilous Falls, Will Wilder accidentally borrows a sacred relic, which is believed to protect the town of Perilous Falls. While his intentions are harmless, Will’s 12-year-old impulsivity awakens an ancient evil that now endangers the town. To make things right, Will sets out on adventure and proves that while he is young, he can make a difference. The author draws inspiration from the Bible and weaves virtue lessons into the plotline.

The Bird Face

The Bird Face is a series by Cynthia Toney that follows the life of Wendy Robichaud as she navigates the end of eighth grade and beginning of high school. In the first book, 8 Notes to a Nobody, a school bully schemes against Wendy, and her best friend starts to drift away. At the same time, someone starts leaving her anonymous sticky-note messages all over school. The more Wendy discovers about the people around her, the more lessons she has to learn. This series uses humor and hope to address real issues concerning tweens and teens, including bullying, self-image, blended families, a first innocent romance, and more.
