Ryan Bomberger

Ryan Bomberger is an Emmy® Award-winning creative professional who, together with his wife Bethany, co-founded The Radiance Foundation. Through creative ad campaigns, powerful multimedia presentations, fearless journalism, and compassionate community outreach, The Radiance Foundation addresses a myriad of social issues in the context of God-given purpose and the intrinsic value of all human life.

Ryan offers a rather unique perspective of the innate nature of purpose. His biological mother was raped yet courageously gave him both a chance to live and the beautiful gift of adoption. He was adopted at 6 weeks of age and grew up in a loving, multi-racial Christian family of 15.

Ryan was the creative force behind the first ad campaign to expose abortion's hugely disproportionate impact in the black community. The bold TooManyAborted.com billboards/web campaigns made an unexpected impact in the pro-life movement. Working in conjunction with noted national civil rights leaders like Dr. Alveda King (niece of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.), Ryan continues to be involved in national efforts to expose and defund Planned Parenthood by illuminating their human rights injustices.

He is a broadcast media designer, producer, columnist, passionate activist, international public speaker and author of the powerful book, Not Equal: Civil Rights Gone Wrong. His regularly published articles address the cultural dynamics of abortion, adoption, eugenics, fatherlessness, natural marriage, racism, #BlackLivesMatter, poverty, LGBT and judicial activism, free speech and religious liberty.

Ryan is happily married to the love of his life, Bethany. They are the proud homeschooling parents of four amazing children, two of whom are adopted. They are his daily inspiration illuminating that every human life has purpose.

NOT EQUAL: Civil Rights Gone Wrong is Ryan Bomberger's first book and powerfully details how the civil rights movement has been hijacked. "Not Equal" is a tragic, yet hopeful, message that we can defeat those who have perverted justice and equality with truth and passionate persistence.
