Cycles of Faith

If God is one, how can He be three? The most intelligent theologians have racked their brains over the problem, and the most prayerful ones have surrendered to the mystery. How it can be, we can't explain. But what it means, we can join! Our God is an ever-unfolding relationship. Theologians speak of the immanent and economic Trinity. The Trinity is immanent in the sense that the Persons are close and entirely sufficient within Godself. In other words, God doesn't require us for God to exist. The word economic is rooted in the Greek word for management of a household or family. The Trinity is economic in the sense that God has invited us to be part of Him. He's growing the family! We see the dynamic here in today's Gospel.

Jesus says the Spirit "will take from what is mine and declare it to you" and that "everything that the Father has is mine." There is relationship here. Jesus speaks (and is) the word of the Father. The Holy Spirit speaks what He hears from the Son. The Father gives everything to the Son, and the Spirit speaks that inheritance over us. God invites us into the Trinitarian family! The doctrine of the Trinity isn't something to brush off as overwhelming. After all, "the Spirit of truth... will guide you to all truth." This occurs most perfectly in the Church, who protects all that has been revealed by God in Scripture and gradually unpacked in tradition. We can trust the declarations of Her theologians and learn from the lives of Her saints. The Trinity may be a mystery, but, by the grace of God, we can have real truth about who God is and how we can love like Him.

From Father's Desk

Trinity Sunday

On this Trinity Sunday we are given a powerful message that "God loved you and me so much that He gave His only Begotten Son so that we might have new life." Jesus, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, has revealed to us His Father in the words, "Whatsoever you see Me do you see the Father." The Holy Spirit flows from the love of both the Father and the Son and is given to us to lead and strengthen in our daily journey of faith. On this Trinity Sunday we acknowledge Three Persons in one God, the Father, who is creator of heaven and earth. We acknowledge Jesus, His Only Begotten Son, who redeems us and calls us His brother. We also rejoice in the Holy Spirit who helps us in witnessing to our faith and keeps us close to our Lord. God Bless You, Fr. Terry

Faith Sharing Question

First Reading - We hear today how wisdom - from the very beginning of time - was with God. Our Jewish sage speaks of this relationship as an experience of pure delight. What do you think this reveals to us about the Trinity?
 Second Reading - Paul speaks of the inner workings of the Trinity bringing about peace with God and the love of God to believers. As a person of faith, how do you share this peace and love with others in your life?
 Gospel Reading - Jesus speaks about the divine gifts from God that the Holy Spirit will share with all who have faith. "He will take from what is mine and declare it to you." What might be an example of a divine gift in your life?

Immaculate Conception Mission Statement

As people chosen by God through our baptism, the parish of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church is called to make Christ visible in our family, community and the world. We proclaim God's word in worship, through the sacraments, in hospitality, teaching, repentance, forgiveness and service. Our goal is that all people may come to know and share in the salvation of Jesus Christ.
