Cycles of Faith

It's said that upon reading the Gospels, Gandhi commented that he very much liked Jesus Christ. It was Christ's followers he found troublesome. One wonders who Gandhi had met and if these Christians had truly counted the cost of their faith. Following Jesus, really following Jesus, is much more challenging than we may think. He emphasizes this with strong language in this Sunday's Gospel. He compares discipleship to the carrying of one's own execution device - "his own cross" - and for the need even to "hate" what could disrupt one's commitment. Some of this is standard hyperbole, exaggeration for effect common to the time period. Some of this should make us wonder how deep our discipleship goes.

"Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost?" Jesus imagines this construction project gone wrong. Someone may lay the foundation but not have enough resources to finish. We've received the firm foundation of the sacraments - our baptism, for one, along with weekly Mass attendance and regular confession. Yet how often do we find ourselves too distracted, exhausted, or uninterested to truly build our lives on our faith? We have all met such Christians. Some days, we may be those Christians ourselves. We become the incomplete tower that confuses and baffles the onlookers. "This one began to build but did not have the resources to finish!"

For some of us, our cross may feel heavier than we expected upon the first lift. Building a tower means laying stone upon stone. It's a process. We don't arrive at completion overnight. Grace is always sufficient to provide the resources, but we need to keep saying yes to the task. This week, consider your own discipleship. What is one area where you've become distracted or discouraged? How can that improve this week? Let God lay another brick on the tower.

The Price We Pay:

There is an old saying that "nothing is free anymore" and that there is a price we have to pay. Even following JESUS requires a cost which includes detaching ourselves from things and possessions that sometimes get in the way. JESUS also speaks of the reality of the cross and that the Christian must pick it up daily if he/she claims to be a true follower. Although these expectations of JESUS are not easy and the cost of discipleship is high, He reassures us that the reward is great. Let us pray for the strength to persevere. Have a great week!

Why Do We Do That?

Q: As Catholics, we talk a lot about "redemptive suffering" and "carrying your cross." What does that mean practically in daily life?

A: When Jesus spoke these words, they would have sounded quite intense to his hearers. "Pick up your cross daily and follow me." At the time, Jesus hadn't yet been crucified. A cross was a Roman torture instrument. "Pick up the thing that tortures you the most," Jesus seemed to say. Unfortunately, most of us have no real shortage of these in our life. To take up the cross isn't to seek out new sufferings in our life. It's to accept the life we have.

Of course, unjust or unhealthy circumstances should be rectified when possible. But there are always circumstances that remain out of our immediate control. It could be pain management, the defiance of our teenage child, or an unhealthy work environment... but you need the paycheck to pay the bills. In difficult circumstances, it can be easier to blame, complain, or daydream our way out of it. None of these are real solutions, since none of them accept the reality of the situation at hand. Those options only add to our suffering, since they damage relationships, fixate on the problem, or set up unrealistic expectations.

Instead, Jesus invites us to take up our cross - to look at the uncomfortable situation square in the eyes, take a deep breath, and do our best to be present to God's grace in the moment. To love those in our path. To take things one step at a time

Faith Sharing Question

Jesus taught the crowds that the renunciation of all possessions is required for true discipleship. How do you try to live out this command?

“Someone, Kept Tugging at Me”

When Denise and Jill started talking about having a day of Adoration, I thought it sounded like a great idea, after all it is one of our highest forms of prayer. I felt a pull to sign up for it, but it just wasn't going to work for me. My work takes me over seven counties and if I did it, I would have to plan the whole week around my time at Adoration. So, I decided not to say anything about it and let other people do it. As time went by the planning went on and they were having difficulty getting enough people to sign up. During this time something, or Someone, kept tugging at me. I was torn, I knew I was being called to do this but didn't want to commit. I talked to

Denise about it and started praying about it, hoping all the time that someone else would sign up for it and they wouldn't need me. Well, it got down to them needing one more person and I could no longer put it off or letting other people do it. Reluctantly, I told them I would do it if they had someone I could call when I couldn't be there. (There is a list of substitutes.)

After that first week I was hooked! Now I happily plan my whole week around that one hour. It is the most important hour of the week and I start looking forward to it on Monday morning. For one hour there is nothing in the world except me and my Lord. His whole attention is on me and mine is on Him. The phone is turned off and the world stops! What a great feeling of peace and love I experience during this hour and it goes by way too fast.

What about you? Do you feel a tug at you? Some people have had to quit for health and family reasons, and we need replacements and substitutes. Think about signing up for Adoration. It will be a great addition to your life.

God Bless,
Denny

Thank you Denny. Contact Denise to be added to the substitute list. We also have a 1:00pm and 4:00pm opening for Adoration at St. Columba on Thursdays. Please contact Denise or the church office if you want to participate in adoration or have any questions.
