A VIEW FROM THE PEW

Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist

The name John means “God’s gift,” and such was the Baptist. From the moment he came on the preaching scene, he proved himself a powerful, captivating herald of God. His bold, dramatic, austere, and uncompromising style is what many people had in mind when they hoped for a Messiah. But John understood that his role was to prepare the way for the One who was to come.

His prophet witness and commitment to his call are his legacy to us. Share in his gift by being true to your own Christian calling.

Solemnity of SS. Peter and Paul, Apostles
Rock of Ages

The pallium is an ancient liturgical vestment worn only by the pope and a very few other high church officials on whom the pope bestows it as a symbol of the jurisdiction delegated to them. In honor of Saints Peter and Paul, Friday, June 29, is the day of the liturgical year on which these officials receive this symbol of their office. In its current form it is a narrow band of white lamb’s wool from sheep raised by Trappist monks, looped and draped over other liturgical vestments. The pallium is a reminder of the serious duty placed on the shoulders of the highest church leaders. Pray today that they may fulfill their offices wisely, faithfully, and with compassion.

“YOU ARE PETER AND UPON THIS ROCK I WILL BUILD MY CHURCH.”

Discovering the Mystery of You

Each newborn child is a mystery about to unfold in the world. Always there is the potential for joy and pain, great good or tremendous misery. A good bit of what a child becomes is contained in the context of the family: its resources, stability, and capacity to nurture. Parents and children together become what they would never have been without the challenge and the privilege of their relationship. John might never have become the Baptist without Elizabeth and Zechariah. What parts of yourself do you owe to those who took that journey of trust with you?

Show Yourself the Door

During a tour of San Francesco Basilica in Assisi, Italy, a friar took a group of pilgrims through the upper and lower churches and to the crypt where Saint Francis and his companions were buried. Throughout the tour he talked about the life of Francis and the architecture, art, and history connected to him. At the end, the friar brought the group back to the upper church and showed them the stunning frescoes attributed to Giotto illustrating scenes from the scripture and Francis’ life. As he guided the group to the exit he explained that on this wall was the most important scene yet: the door! The exit, he said, is a reminder to go through the doors and spread the Good News to the whole world. Something to think about next time you exit a church. “Enter through the narrow gate.”

The Senility Prayer

God, grant me the senility to forget the people
I never liked anyway, the good fortune to run into the ones I do, and the eyesight to tell the difference.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD LEVEL I CERTIFICATION

“Help me draw closer to God by myself.”

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a religious/liturgical educational and faith-formation program endorsed by the Office of Religious Education of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Honolulu. Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a child-centered, faith formation and liturgical educational program for children. It is rooted in scriptural and liturgical works using Maria Montessori’s pedagogical principles. The program was developed in Rome with the collaboration of two women: Sofia Cavalletti, a Hebrew Scripture Scholar; and Gianna Gobbi, a Montessori instructor.

The Level 1 course is the foundation course for teaching 3-6 year old children. Participants will create their entire lesson plan book during the training program; receive the complete materials-making handbook for this age group; and receive certification from the National Association of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a hands-on faith formation process and children gather in a sacred space called an “atrium.” This room is designed with the child in mind and centered on simplicity, order, prayer, work and community. Mary, Star of the Sea Early Learning Center is seeking to create its atrium within the Early Learning Center.

Training Location: Mary, Star of the Sea Early Learning Center
