He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to go to a house, stay there until you leave the place. And if any place will not receive you and they refuse to hear you, when you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet for a testimony against them (Mk 6:7-13) mission. One of the countless concrete evidence of their success is the faith that we have right now. We attribute the Catholic faith that we hold on today to their faithful discipleship to Jesus. They responded to the voice of Jesus and faithfully followed His instructions.

We too are being summoned and instructed by Jesus to help Him and the apostles spread the faith. Are you doing something to help Jesus and the apostles propagate the faith?

Respect Life Second Annual Symposium

2018 Annual Life Symposium - Nā Mo'olelo Ola Living Stories

Each person has many unique and personal stories to share. Sometimes stories are tragic and heartbreaking: Suicide of a family member, a close friend or relative. A young life abducted into slavery, human trafficking or addiction. An elderly parent whose family is in conflict over decisions to sustain or withdraw life support. An individual or family that are added to the list of thousands who are homeless.

This symposium addresses the educational component of the USCCB Pastoral Plan for Pro-Life Activities and will address serious issues as we look through the lens of Holy Scripture, Church teaching, and personal (life stories) testimonies.

This symposium is suggested for parents, grandparents, educators, clergy and religious, youth and young adults, ministry leaders, medical professionals, and adult laity because each of us is called to a continuing commitment to preserve the sanctity of life.

To register, go online to: <http://catholichawaii.org/diocesan-offices/respect-life/education/> or call the Respect Life Office at 203-6722.

Registration deadline: July 31
 Registration fee: $25. Scholarships are available.
