Gospel Reflection
20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

So what does Holy Communion really entail? How does the act of communion with the Body and Blood of the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world affect us? For believers, communion with Jesus, partaking of His Body and Blood, means receiving the eternal benefits of this food.

õ Y j q g x g t " g c v u " o { " h n g u j " c p f " f t k p m W e n e f r i d a S a l a s q q f " j c u ' g v g t p c n " n k h g . " c p f " K " y k n n " t c k u g " j k T h e r e s a S o u z a j g " n c u v ' f c

To enter into communion involves taking a conscious stand on the side of grace and removing ourselves from sin. To enter into communion with Christ means that we are not satisfied with sin, but rather we adopt the Death and Life of the Lamb as part of our own life.

Who of us does not know the face of pain, anguish, and suffering? When we receive communion we share the sacrifice of Jesus; we let His Word and His healing invade, permeate, and save us from ourselves, transforming our very selves into sharers in the sacrifice of Christ for the salvation of the world.
