FROM THE DESK OF THE Regional PAROCHIAL VICAR: On Fifth Sunday of Easter Fr. Tim Schott, our future sacramental minister, is here and I am at Liddell and Willey. Quarterly, or so, representatives, including the Lay Directors, meet as a Parish Council in each parish to review the financial status of each respective parish and discuss parish matters. At each parish’s recent meetings discussion was held about hiring a full-time administrative assistant to work at St. Bernard-Breda to be in place by July 10 and to be funded by the six [6] parishes will be pastoring to assist in my work. This job opening will be offered after consulting with representatives of the other 3 parishes. Again, on July 10 I become the pastor of the parishes in Breda, Mount Carmel, Arcadia, Halbur/Roselle, Templeton, and Glidden. I will remain in residence in Breda and the office in Breda will become the center/hub of the expanded Christ the King Catholic Community. I have included a summary of each parish’s latest meetings in the parish sections below. Copies of approved minutes for meetings may be found on the website on each parish’s page.

Please remember your parish in your will... Your bequest is a testimony to your faith in our future, — Fr. Mark
