Please contact your parish office, and they will assist you in that process!

FROM THE DESK OF THE REGIONAL PARROCHIAL VICAR: On this Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time, I am here. Ministry 2025 brought changes to about 25 parishes last year and another 13 this year—closed, merged, or made into ‘secondary worship site’ [as will happen to Holy Angels-Roselle on June 30]. Throughout this process there have been many questions raised including: Why can’t we get priests from other dioceses? [We have done including from India but many other dioceses have the same issue with a shortage of vocations and we know it is best to get priests from our own diocese.] Why can’t we have married priests? [Yes, we have had married priests in the early days of the church and there are a few today who converted from the Episcopal Church to the Roman Catholic Church and have received special training and permission to serve from the Pope. However, the vocation to married life and to the priesthood are two special vocations that require a person’s 100% commitment. In short, a priest needs to commit his entire self to his vocation and to also nurture a vocation to a wife would be very difficult at the same time. In addition, many Protestant communities are also experiencing a shortage of ministers.
