FROM THE PASTOR...In his 2009 Pastoral Letter to the Faithful of the Diocese of Sioux City, entitled “The Church is Always in Need of Renewal,” Bishop Nickless writes: “Our urgent need at this time is to reclaim and strengthen our understanding of the deposit of faith. We must have a distinctive identity and culture as Catholics, if we would effectively communicate the Gospel to the people of this day and Diocese. This is our mission.” When we look at some the past decades, we see we have drifted in many areas from the solid teachings of Christ and His Church. As a result, we are seeing: smaller families, lower Mass attendance, fewer priests, closing of parishes, abuse in many areas of life, etc. Many of these are not new—these issues have been around for centuries. However, we are constantly called to review and renew our lives in obedience and fidelity to God. This task is not easy, but necessary. This is the work we are engaged in at this time in our Ministry 2025 planning in order to created vibrant parishes. I invite you to join me in helping to renew our parishes.

Please remember your parish in your will. Your bequest is a testimony to your faith in our future. —Fr. Mark

T HANKSGIVING M ASS FOOD D RIVE: You are invited to bring non-perishable food items for our local food pantry. Items will be taken up at offertory.

T H E R I TE O F W ELCOM E is one of the rites of the of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults [RCIA] which “welcomes” candidates who have been validly baptized in another Christian community into the process of joining the Roman Catholic Church. Amy Schroeder will be celebrating the “Rite of Welcome” at St. John the Baptist-Arcadia at the 10:00 a.m. Mass. This ceremony marks her decision to follow God’s call to live their Christian faith and complete her initiation within the Catholic community. The Rite takes place during the Introductory Rite of the Mass and includes the signing of them by the cross of Christ and the affirm of her intention to live under Christ’s cross. The Mass will take a little longer [but not much more]. All gathered are important in this celebration as we all welcome Amy into our midst and share your faith with her. Before coming next week, please give some thought to this question: “What is the cross you are embracing in your own life?” You may want... to share your responses with your family or a friend before coming next Sunday.
