FROM THE PASTOR… Today, on this Third Sunday of Easter, we celebrate BACCALAUREATE with our high school seniors. Like them we are called follow Jesus throughout our lives. And because of what Jesus taught and preached, He was sentenced to die. And yet, God exalted Him, raising Him from the dead. Those who are Jesus’ disciples continue to teach and preach what He first proclaimed. In doing so, we exalt Him and bring honor to His name.

Throughout the Season of Easter we will use the Sprinkling Rite at the beginning of Mass, in place of the Penitential Rite to remind us of the significance of our baptism.

We are experiencing a very poor return of 90 Days of Gratitude and Giving pledge cards from current ministers and all parishioners. Please return your pledge card today. More cards and info may be found in church entrances and on the website.

Please remember your parish in your will….Your bequest is a testimony to your faith in our future. —Fr. Mark

ANNOUNCEMENT: I have accepted a new assignment at the request of Bishop Nickless who needs my expertise and to cover two parishes who have lost their pastor who is undergoing cancer treatment. As of Tuesday July 2, I will become the pastor of the parishes of Immaculate Conception in Cherokee and Our Lady of Good Counsel in Holstein with residence in Cherokee. In 2015 there were 463 families with 145 K-12 students at Cherokee and 95 families with 48 K-12 students at Holstein with 40.8% of Cherokee parishioners and 62.3% of Holstein parishioners attending Sunday Mass. I love the people of the six [6] parishes of Christ the King Community and wish I could stay to continue to minister with you. However, my vow of obedience to the bishop is important to me as a priest of the Diocese and I will go where I am asked to go. News regarding the new pastor of the six [6] parishes will be announced later. All new appointments will be announced in the May 9th edition of THE CATHOLIC GLOBE.-Fr. Mark
