FROM THE PASTOR… Today is the Sixth Sunday of Easter. Jesus assures us that He will dwell within us, and the Holy Spirit will teach us and remind us of what He taught. This is good news for us, because it means we are not making this Christian journey alone. Today we, like the early Church of Jerusalem, are taught and guided by the Spirit. We need only to listen and have faith in His working in us. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion [EMOH] so they may be commissioned on June 22/23. These parish volunteers are necessary for helping priests and deacons provide Holy Communion to the faithful in the parishes.

Next Sunday is the Solemnity of the ASCENSION OF THE LORD. As of 2001, this Solemnity was transferred from the Fortieth Day after Easter, a Thursday, to the following Sunday by most bishops of the United States with permission of Pope John Paul II to highlight the meaning of the mystery of the Ascension, a meaning had been eclipsed by the unfortunate tendency of a growing number of our people who fail to come and celebrate the Liturgy on Thursday, a weekday and a workday in our secular calendar. Thus, today, there is no longer Ascension Thursday or the Seventh Sunday of Easter. We now celebrate Ascension Sunday.

Please remember your parish in your will.....Your bequest is a testimony to your faith in our future. —Fr. Mark
