SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION is AVAILABLE 1/2 HOUR BEFORE WEEKEND MASSES

FROM THE PRIESTS:  What a difference a week makes! Last week, Jesus was taken up on a high mountain for the most devastating temptation by the Devil. This week, however, it is Jesus who takes the inner circle of his apostles—Peter, James and John—up a mountain (Mt 17:1-9), where Jesus “was transfigured before them”. Similar to the Gospels of Mark and Luke, this story in Matthew happens shortly after the first time Jesus predicts his passion, death and resurrection. This glimpse of Jesus’ glory is intended to help the apostles as they follow Jesus into an intense time of learning from Jesus, most especially more specifics about his passion. This glorious glimpse is also to help them in the midst of that very passion of Jesus! For us, Jesus invites us to go with him, to spend some special time with him, so that we can see his glory and to learn from him. This, in turn, will help us to continue to learn from Jesus and give us greater spiritual strength with which to face any challenges and suffering that come our way.
