SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION is AVAILABLE 1/2 HOUR BEFORE WEEKEND MASSES

FROM THE PRIESTS: Because we are in Liturgical Year A, this and the two succeeding Sundays will have readings from the Gospel of John that were part of the final preparation for baptism at Easter since the 4th century: the Samaritan woman at the well (4:5-42), the man born blind who washes in the pool of Siloam (9:1-41), and the raising of Lazarus (11:1-45). They are paired with Old Testament readings that situate the Gospel passages in the larger framework of God’s plan of salvation. In each Gospel story, there is a poignant encounter with Jesus Christ, that leads the main characters (as well as others) to conversion and new life as a follower/believer in the Christ. Today, with the Samaritan woman, may we more deeply believe in Christ Jesus as the living water, who quenches all our deepest thirsts. May that move us, as it does the woman, to be courageous witnesses for Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

PLEASE CONTINUE TO BE VIGILANT: As you will see in other parts of the bulletin, the Bishop has started canceling major events. He as also asked that we do not have the Sign of Peace and do not offer the Precious Blood. Remember, stay home if we do not feel well, and especially if we have a fever. Also, be especially careful if we’ve been in contact with a sick person. You might wish to have a small bottle of hand sanitizer (at least 60% alcohol) in your pocket or purse and use it when you think wise (because having no Sign of Peace and no cup doesn't take care of other vectors for transmitting a virus).
HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO FR. TIM FRIEDRICHSEN (Friday, March 13). Sending you blessings and wishing you many happy returns. May God’s love and peace be with you always.
