FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Seeds of a Fruitful Harvest

In a garden shop I looked through packets of seeds. I came across some morning glories. "Morning glories!" I wondered. I didn't know people actually planted them! I thought they just wildly wrapped around my flowers, trees, shrubs, corn stalks, tomato plants, and delicate herbs. Their roots are easy enough to pull from the ground, but you can get dizzy trying to unwrap them from hundreds of stems. They threaten to suffocate and choke out everything that grows.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 55:10-11 RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 65:10, 11, 12-13, 14
SECOND READING: Romans 8:18-23 GOSPEL: Matthew 13:1-23 [1-9]

Comment

There is an analogy made between the earth and us. Just as God waters the earth to make things grow, we are "watered" by God's Word and grow in living out the Word's meaning. God has a purpose for the words that are sent to us. According to God's plan, we will achieve the purpose of that word. The fruit of God's harvest is divine in human beings—God's everlasting love.

Paul compares the work of the harvest to a mother's labor during childbirth. The work is hard and often painful, but the end result is the joy of holding her new baby. Similarly it takes hard work to make a crop healthy for harvest, but the conclusion is a great yield.

In the parable, Jesus describes the soil onto which the seed may fall. If it falls on the hardened path, birds may come and eat it because it is not embedded in the soil. Or it may land on rock, which has very little soil and roots cannot go deep enough. Thorns and weeds (I'm sure they were morning glories!) may come and choke out the seed's growth. Only if the seed falls on good soil can it take hold and mature into a fruitful harvest.

Reflection

We are the soil in which God plants the seeds. Are we fertile soil or does our sinfulness or righteousness make us thorny? Are we filled with weeds of distraction and busy-ness? Paul points us in the direction of hope. His letters to the early Church tell us that our great hope and salvation rests in Christ who died for us. It is Christ who removed the thorns of sin for us.

We need to be attentive to the care of our soil. Sometimes we can do our own gardening. Other times we need the help of a gardener. And still other times, we offer nutrients to others trying to maintain a fertile soil. We are a community of believers. We all need one another's help to ensure good soil.

Like the rain mentioned in Isaiah, which will not return to God until it has watered the earth, God's word will not return to God void. This means it falls on fertile soil. We already know about the thorns of sin and the weeds of distraction. How will we prepare the soil today for God's word? What action have we put off that we now must do in order for God's word to land gently on us and move us to action?

Why Is Mary Called 'Mother of God'?

When early Christians read biblical passages about the Incarnation (see "Why Does the Church Teach That Jesus Is God?" M-1) — such as Isaiah's words about the Child who would be called God (see Is 9:5) — they wondered: How exactly was Christ both human and divine? Was he simply God, only appearing to be human? Was he a human to whom God attached himself in a special way, dwelling inside him? Was he partly human and partly divine?

Ultimately, in the light of Scripture and Tradition, the Church concluded that none of the above answers is correct. An ecumenical Church council that helped to resolve the issue (Ephesus, 431) was provoked by a controversy over one particular question: Can we call Mary the "Mother of God"?

One prominent archbishop, Nestorius, rejected the title. He claimed that Christ was two persons — one human, one divine — joined together in Christ. Though Mary was the mother of the human person in Christ, she was not the mother of the divine Person (God the Son). So she could not rightly be called the Mother of God.

After examining this teaching, however, the Church concluded that Nestorius was mistaken. Christ was not a combination of two persons, one human and one divine. That would be close to saying that he was simply a man to whom God was joined in a uniquely intimate way — a man specially indwelt by God, like one of the biblical prophets.

Instead, the Church declared, Christ is only one divine Person — the Person of the Trinity. This single Person took human nature and joined it to his own divine nature, so that he possesses two natures (Jn 1:1-3, 14). But these natures don't constitute two different persons. They belong to one and the same Person, the divine Son of God. And these two natures, though not to be confused, cannot be separated.

In this light, the Church concluded that not only is it correct to call Mary the Mother of God, but it is important to do so. Mary is the mother of the one Person, Jesus Christ, who is the Son of God in the flesh. If we deny that she is the Mother of God, then we are denying that Christ himself is God, come down from heaven. Truly, as St. Paul declared, "God sent his Son, born of a woman" (Gal 4:4)

Hurricane Prayer

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming, lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us.

Meeting

There will be a Pastoral Council Meeting Wednesday, July 19, 2017 at 6 pm in the Education Building, every member please be in attendance.
