

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Gospel of John, his message today is really an eye opener. Jesus asked his disciples to eat his flesh and drink his blood. For many of his disciples this was just too much to ask. Many of his disciples left his company and went back to their former ways of life.

When the Lord asked Peter, "Are you also going to leave?" Peter responded, "Where can I go, you have the Words of everlasting life."

Within our country today, nearly 80% of Catholics, Christians, Jews and Muslims do not attend Church.

Today the Lord ask you, "Are you also going to leave?" Like Peter, may our answer be, "Lord where can we go, you have the Words of everlasting life."

P.S. Remember to encourage our young members to register for Religious Education Classes. You are reminded to "Mask up" when you are indoors with a crowd, especially if you have not received your vaccine shots. Thank you for weekly attendance at Church and your kind donations. May your prayers bring an end to the Pandemic and the violence throughout our country. And of course, your donations help pay the bills and the salaries of your Parish Staff.
