Our readings this weekend invite us not just to give lip service to our Faith but to be men and women of action. As I have reviewed the list of our Parish Ministries, we are very active in living out our call to discipleship. As a parish family, we are wonderful. Maybe today however we might take a few moments to review our own personal ministry. Are we a member of any of our Parish Ministries? Do we extend our self to others that might be less fortunate than our self? Do we pray for others? Do we call and check on the many shut-ins in our Parish or Family?

I would like to think we are all at our best, but I also realize we all can be even better.

P.S. This week, I have asked Agatha to bring together the various leadership groups of our Parish, so I can personally share the happenings of the Archdiocese Renew Committee. Watch for your meeting date.
