

24 Sunday in Ordinary Time

“What good is it brothers and sisters if we say we have Faith but no Good Works.” This verse from the book of St. James truly captures the central theme of our Roman Catholic Faith. How can we be believers and not extend our hand or our heart to those less fortunate than ourselves.

Sadly, too often, people of wealth or power do not see the need to empower or help those less fortunate than ones self.

May we never be that narrow to refuse someone a loaf of bread, a kind word and or a prayerful thought.

Next weekend, there is a food drive set for the morning of September 18th. A can of food or a box of cereal can help the cause of those in need. Catholic Charities is also willing to accept a check.

A kind heart can truly brighten a dark world.

Sincerely,

Father Ron
