

Leo Ludwig Murr

Leo Ludwig Murr, 87, of Glasgow, Montana peacefully passed away on October 2, 2019 at Prairie Ridge Village.

Leo was born in Flaxville, Montana to Ludwig J. and Viola C. (Linder) Murr on November 24, 1931. He attended school in Wheeler and Glasgow, Montana. He married Margaret C. Wagar on October 12, 1954 at St. Raphael's Church in Glasgow. The union of their marriage blessed them with five children: Gwen, Leo, Trent, Valerie, and Kent. He worked as a lineman for Valley Rural Electric for 37 years. Leo was an active member of the Knights of Columbus and the St. Raphael's parish for many years.

Leo will be remembered for his kind eyes and big smile. He loved to play pinochle and was crowned the winner and held the trophy amongst his friends often. He loved homemade baked goods. He never missed a sporting event, especially when it came to his grandchildren's sports. He love fishing, camping, horseback riding and going to church every week. He loved his kids, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren; it brought joy to his life when they would come to visit.

Leo is preceded in death by his beautiful wife of 61 years, Margaret; son Trent; granddaughter Amy Murr; son-in-law Curtis Johnson; brother Anton; sister Nona Jimison; and parents Ludwig and Viola.

Leo is survived by his sisters Beatrice Johnson and Shirley (Leroy) Siefert; kids Gwen (Dean) Hawkins, Leo (Diane) Murr, Valerie (Chuck) Barstad, Kent Murr; grandkids Angela, Travis, Lisa, Tony, Joseph, Chris, Nate, Kylan, Kristi, Susan; 12 great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Leo's family will receive friends Monday, October 7, 2019 from 6:00-8:00pm at Bell Mortuary. Funeral Mass will be celebrated Tuesday, October 8, 2019 at 10:00am at St. Raphael's Catholic Church with burial in Highland Cemetery.
