We're looking for our next:

FINANCIAL SECRETARY

Jerry Garren PGK, has held the vital financial secretary position since December, 2004. Jerry took over with a heavy heart, as Gene Rutherford his predecessor took ill that February.

For over 11 years Jerry has been the Camerlengo of the Edward Douglass White Council. He has not only cared for the financial well-being of EDW, he has been the chief advisor on all fiscal matters and a core advisor along with the trustees and the Past Grand Knights for all matters when valued informed opinions are needed by the Grand Knight.

With Jerry's announced resignation at the January 7 council meeting we are now looking for our next financial secretary. The person will be appointed to a three year term by the Supreme Knight, Carl Anderson with a recommendation from the Grand Knight.

EDW's Financial Secretary duties are much more intensive for obvious reasons than a normal council. The duties run the gamut from maintaining both the Knights of Columbus and the EDW databases, collecting and depositing dues and donations, working closely with the treasurer to safely handle the income, deposit and withdrawals of council funds. Maintaining our council membership rolls, arranging death notifications in The Washington Post, control of the 500 Club roster. The FS also acts as the Financial Agent for the Columbus Club of Arlington, Inc. in respects to collecting the club's dues.

The duties and responsibilities of a financial secretary are graver than those of the other council officers hence why the Supreme Knight, through the Grand Knight, controls the appointments. With the more serious role comes the understanding that the time demands for the job are heavy. The Financial Secretary does need to be available on a continual basis, seven days a week. The Financial Secretary position is the only council-level office that comes with a modest compensation package.

Candidates must be a third degree member of the Order, shall not hold a license or be engaged in the sale of life or health insurance and cannot have a criminal record.

If you are interested in applying for this key position or have any questions regarding it please contact the Grand Knight, John White, via email donager21@hotmail.com. If you are applying for the position please send a letter of interest with your qualifications and resume to the Grand Knight via email donager21@hotmail.com.

Those who show an interest or apply will be given a more detailed listing of the job description. Those candidates still showing an interest will be interviewed in person by the Grand Knight and designated other senior officers. At the conclusion of the interviews the Grand Knight will forward a recommendation to the Supreme Knight in New Haven, Conn. for his consideration of appointment.

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

It is with sadness and a heavy heart that the newly formed Boy Scout Pack 2473 and the Venture Crew 2473 will be leaving our council effective no later than the end of the year.

The Knights of Columbus Supreme Council has made the decision to dissociate from the Boy Scouts and ask all units if at all possible to move into our parishes. We've been proud to be the chartering organization for the Venture Crew and excited about building a relationship with the newly formed pack 2473. Mark Stoffel and Carl Stout, council members and leaders of the respective units, have been stellar Catholic gentlemen and BSA leaders. EDW will do everything we can to assist them in a smooth transition and will provide support where needed in the future. The Boy Scouts do an excellent job of molding young kids into outstanding Americans and we've been honored in our small way to be a part of that journey and hope to continue it in whatever fashion we can. If you have young kids and are thinking whether or not to join the scouting movement I strongly encourage you to do so. The lessons my daughter is learning and the camaraderie she's building with friends are cornerstones for her development that make Jenifer and I proud of her.

In the coming months there will be other changes around our campus, mostly superficial tweaks, some cosmetic signage changes and paperwork. Some changes may be more in depth depending on the outcome of our continuing research and analysis by the board and the council officers. The Supreme Council has "asked every council using facilities owned by a home association to undertake a serious assessment of how that relationship supports the council in its fulfillment of the core mission of the Knights of Columbus." An ad hoc committee of Jerry Garren, Bob Dannemiller, Steve McTeague and me, with the approval of the immediate past and current presidents of the Columbus Club, have been hashing out the assessments and various requirements from Supreme. We've read the documents, handbook, attended statewide meetings that were convened for home corporation-based councils, I've had a conversation with a Supreme legal counsel. We've reached out to the diocese to try to gain their moral and ethical guidance. We will also be receiving guidance from one of our pro bono attorneys. We've already initiated a couple basic items and are working towards creating a presentation to give to the council officers and the club's board of directors. Once that has been worked through, a presentation will be given to the membership for a question and answer session and implementation.

EDW and the Columbus Club are shining examples of what home corporation councils were always meant to be for our parishes, our families and the community. We've been told by people at the State and Supreme levels that EDW is the stellar example, the gold standard for how we do things. That's a great thing to hear, and a testament to our joint mission to be shining examples of Catholicism. That doesn't mean that we don't have to continue being vigilant or to keep improving. The credit for that reputation clearly lies with every member of the council over the years, all past and current directors of the Columbus Club board and every council officer through the years who've helped us honor the desire of Bishop Ireton, who in 1951 blessed our newly purchased property and encouraged us to be a center of Catholic activity for Northern Virginia.

If you have any questions whatsoever please do not hesitate to cordially reach out to me for a conversation.

NEW YEAR'S EVE 2015

A wrap up with huge thank yous!

A good sized crowd of about 170 enjoyed another successful and festive New Year's Eve celebration in EDW's main hall. Such an event can only be pulled off with the help of several contributing their time and expertise. Thanks to Vince Long and Chris Hudson for helping to decorate the main hall. Thanks again to Chef Maria Diaz and her daughter, Claudia Giron for preparing and serving (in a very timely manner), hors d'oeuvres, followed by a superb choice of entrees and dessert; thanks also to the crew of 17 of EDW's Redcoats led by Peter Kehoe, Owen Beirne, PGKs Kenny Goss, Steve McTeague and Vince Long, and another 12 Redcoats for doing a great job on the bar, and serving the 3-course meal in under an hour! The lively Jim Bowie Band provided their wide-range of dance music before an enthusiastic and appreciative full dance floor from 9pm to 12:30am (2016). Thanks also to our Columbus Club office team of Managers, Peter Silano, Nick Beirne and especially to Jeff Koch who handled the bulk of the reservations, including the several last-minute calls still coming in New Year's Eve afternoon!

LADIES U-KNIGHTED NEWS Jo Balsamo Wood

Greetings all. Do you believe we are already in the second month of 2016? Yes, it's February, the month where we celebrate Groundhog Day on Feb 2. Let's hope Punxsutawney Phil gives us the news that spring is almost here. Holiday number two of the month is Saint Valentine's Day, an annual commemoration held on February 14, celebrating love and affection. The day is named after one or more early Christian martyrs named Saint Valentine and was established by Pope Gelasius I in 492 AD. It was deleted from the General Roman Calendar of Saints in 1969 by Pope Paul VI. The popular customs associated with Valentine's Day undoubtedly had their origin in a conventional belief during the Middle Ages, that on 14 February, the birds began to pair.

However, before we get to the February holidays, I want to express my sincere thanks to those who helped LUK put up and take down the Christmas tree and other decorations at the Old Council Home. We were very short-handed this year and LUK greatly appreciates everyone who assisted.

During our first Ladies U-Knighted meeting of the year, we looked ahead at some of the activities we would like to do in 2016. Unfortunately, we are a small group and can only do so much, so, we have scaled back our scope of activities for now. As we planned our activities for the upcoming year, we decided to stick with what has worked for us in the past and concentrate our efforts on charity, moneymaking and fun events. Once again, LUK will continue to support and assist unwed mothers, by holding its 6th Annual Baby Shower. Watch the Knight Life for more information. Additional plans for charity include making blankets in the fall to give to the homeless. The moneymaking events discussed were an Easter candy sale, a summer Margaritaville party, and continued sales of cookbooks and ornaments at the bake sales at summer events. Of course, we will continue to sponsor the annual Halloween Party in October and help decorate the Old Council Home for Christmas.

This year, Easter is March 27. While that seems like a long way away, it is never too early to begin planning for this very special day. This year Ladies U-Knighted will make chocolate Easter-themed pops. We will sell them via orders and at the Easter egg role. See the March Knight Life for more information.

I usually reserve this space to wish our current LUK members a Happy Birthday. Since we have no current members with February birthdays, we are looking for new members who were born in February or any other month. For those of you that are unfamiliar with Ladies U-Knighted, we are a group of women that support and promote the goals and endeavors of the Knights of Columbus, Edward Douglass White Council No. 2473 by raising funds through volunteer efforts. We meet at 7:30 p.m. on the first Thursday of each month at the K of C Old Council Home, 5115 Little Falls Road, Arlington, VA. Membership is open to any woman who is compelled to help those in need, provide excellence in its many activities, whether religious, charitable, or social, and have fun. Please stop by for a meeting or contact Jo Balsamo Wood at balsamowood@verizon.net for more information.

Wishing everyone a Happy Groundhog Day and Happy Valentine's Day. Remember your sweetie on Feb 14. The next LUK meeting is on Feb 4 at 7:30.

SUMMER CAMP

Dear Knights of Columbus Families

I'm thrilled to be coming back to spend another summer season as your Camp Director. I had such a great experience last year, and am looking forward to making things even better for your children this summer. For those of you who are new members, just a quick introduction. My name is Jill Burdick-Zupancic and I'm currently in my 8th year of teaching high school English and art history, most recently at Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology in Alexandria. I'm also very pleased to let you know that Mary O'Connor will also be returning as Assistant Camp Director this year. We both look forward to leading our wonderful staff members and making the 2016 the best summer season yet for you and your camper(s).

The Knights of Columbus Summer Camp is a perfect place for children to take a break from the rigors of the school year. Campers love running around our spacious campus, learning how to swim, making life-long friendships and learning how to work together with each other and their counselors. Our camp offers nine 1-week sessions during the summer. During each session campers partake in various activities including: Music, Arts and Crafts, Sports, Swim Lessons and Free Swim.

The link to register will be emailed to all returning 2015 families at 8am on Monday, February 1, 2016, to KofC EDW members at 8pm on Monday, February 1, 2016, will be posted on the Knights of Columbus summer camp website for general registration at 8am on Tuesday, February 2, 2016.

For dates, questions, and updated policies, please check our website: http://www.kofcedw2473.org/facilities/camp_1.shtml

The cold weather may be deceiving now, but summer will be here before we know it. We are all looking forward to the 2016 season of the Knights of Columbus Summer Camp in June. Hope to see you there!

-Jill

CHOOSING LIFE

By Mary Rivas Glaser

If you are searching for a Pro-Life story filled with extreme circumstances that will leave you wanting to picket the next abortion clinic you see, this is not going to fulfill that desire. My life was that of a normal teenager, living only by making decisions based on the thrill of the moment or the smiles of good looking boys. I lightly gave myself to those boys and, like so many stories, many of which are left untold, my irresponsibility led to a small red "YES" on a pregnancy test at the age of 19. Was he my first? No, I wish that I could say he was, but there I sat in the Starbucks bathroom holding that little stick that changed my life. As I shakily tried to pull myself together, I could feel my infatuation subsiding and my vision broadening. I didn't love this boy, but there I was carrying his child, a product of our careless mistake. We had taken part in the most important act of love between a man and a woman. One that is meant only for the Sacrament of Marriage.

For years I had marched in the March for Life in Washington, DC, Austin, Texas, and occasionally even in Dallas. I chanted and prayed with everyone else around me and felt grief for the countless women and children affected by abortion. I can honestly say that from the moment I found out I was pregnant I never once thought of having an abortion. For years I had prayed that girls in my situation would not make that terrible decision. I knew that this baby was meant to live. That left me with two choices: keep the baby and raise it to the best of my ability or pursue adoption. I was 19 and adoption seemed like it was the smart decision for everyone involved, including the baby. So, for the first five months of pregnancy I went through life convinced that this baby was better off with another family and even another mother.

At my 20 week sonogram the nurse looked at me and asked if I would like to know the sex of the baby. I replied yes. A few nervous moments went by and then she pointed to the screen and said, "Here is your baby girl." I sat there looking at the round head in the picture with a nose that was so small and cute. That day I decided that I was going to keep her and do the best that I could with what I had to make sure she was always taken care of. In August I gave birth to a very healthy 7 pound baby girl. I named her Elizabeth.

The decision to keep her was only the first part of our journey together. I needed to provide for her, and that required me to work. At first I was able to work half days and live in my mother's house, which was a blessing because grandparents are the best, but Elizabeth and I needed to move on. We needed our own space to live in. This was only going to be possible if I worked full days from 9:00 am to 6 pm. So, Elizabeth stayed with a nanny and I worked and worked and worked. It wasn't easy and most definitely wasn't glamorous, but I knew that saying yes to life meant that there would be sacrifices that I would have to say yes to as well.

It was a custom for families in our group of friends to bring new mothers dinner during the first couple weeks after the baby was born. One of the families who had offered to bring dinner didn't actually bring it until Elizabeth was already three months old. Their entire family stayed for dinner, including their son, who had just graduated from college. We started dating a week after that dinner and were married almost three years later. My daughter has known him since she was only a couple months old and he is the most amazing father she could have. Our relationship was different and more serious than that of a normal relationship that starts off without children. My husband is directly impacted every day by my decision to say "yes" to life, and he has chosen to love my daughter as his own. We are currently expecting our second baby girl and could not be happier.

Being pro-life cannot simply consist of marches in major cities and rants about the horrors of abortion. If we only focus on the culture of death we will lose the culture of life. Being pro-life for me meant choosing love in a situation where I had not been shown love. My daughter's life has given me the ability to love in a way that I did not think I was capable of. It means loving the women who have said yes to life in those horrific and extreme circumstances, loving the women who have said yes to becoming single mothers, loving the women who have quietly said yes and have given up their babies for adoption. But most especially loving the women who did not choose life for their children, because they need our love the most.

It will take you 60 seconds to fill out the form and allow you to receive up-to-date information on the council. You'll also be able to receive the Knight Life quicker by email. BONUS: the emailed version is in color! This will save the council quite a bit of money and allow us to focus it on our charities rather than on overhead.

KNIGHT OF THE MONTH

Tim Walthall has served EDW through his service on the Columbus Club of Arlington board of directors since 1999. A lot of decisions have been made by the board for our wellbeing in those 16 years. Tim was always a steady voice in those decisions. The appearance and operations of the club in the past ten years is black and white. In 2005 the mansion was dilapidated and some people were advocating tearing it down. Tim was a clear voice to spend money to bring it back to life. Tim has earned a much deserved retirement however we will pull him back in when needed to assist on any projects.

You've been warned, Tim!

Thank you for your dedication to our Catholic mission at EDW, Tim. A donation will be made to the Diocese of Arlington's work camp in Tim's name.

FIRST DEGREE!!

FEBRUARY 18TH

The time is now to ask your Catholic friends, neighbors and fellow parishioners to join the Knights of Columbus!

Recruiting young Catholic men to be new members is essential to the continued growth of the EDW council and the Order. Offering a man membership in the Knights of Columbus gives him the opportunity to improve his own life and his community. Membership allows him to experience the fraternal bond that Knights share while growing closer to his family and faith. EDW provides many resources for Catholic families to spend time together relaxing and volunteering within a very vibrant Catholic organization that's in service to our parishes. We strongly consider our campus to be an extension of St. Agnes, St. Ann, St. Charles Borromeo and St. James parishes.

If you have a prospective candidate please pick up a Form100 from the Council Mansion and contact Greg Strizek, our membership chairman, at membership@kofcedw2473.org to continue the process and ensure everything is ready for the February 18th Initiation Degree.
